Memorials Placed For Wall Victims

BERLIN (AP) — West Germans paid homage today to the memory of 53 persons who died trying to flee across the Communist wall that has divided East Berlin from West Berlin for the past three years.

Mayor Willy Brandt laid wreaths on memorials along a part of the 26-mile wall on its third anniversary. He also honored 52 other persons who paid with their lives attempting to cross the Iron Curtain border between East and West Germany.

Red Guards Nervous

East German border guards, showing signs of nervousness, fired 160 flares during the night. The flares are used to illuminate the wall. Police said the guards appeared to be in a state of alert.

West German police were ready for a possible riot similar to one that broke out at last year's anniversary.

Brandt placed the wreaths on simple wooden crosses bound with barbed wire in tribute to four of the victims who attempted to breach the wall three years ago.

Nearly 20,000 persons have broken through the barriers to freedom since the wall was begun on Aug. 13, 1961. There were no reports of escapes today.

Hour of Silence

Another part of the observance was to be an hour of silence tonight. All public transportation will halt.

Erected by the Communist regime to stem the mounting flow of refugees to the West, the wall has become a bitter symbol of a city, and a nation, divided by concrete and barbed wire.

Brandt Assails Divider

"The wall is against the stream of history, against the precepts of humaneness, against the right to self-determination written in the United Nations Charter, against the securing of peace," West German Mayor Willy Brandt said Wednesday night in a radio and television broadcast addressed to both East and West Germans.

The mayor declared: "We want to unite in thought — we Berliners. We Germans — this side and the other side of the wall which divides us but nevertheless has not torn us apart."

Brandt said the hour of silence "will be a sign to the whole world that we will not compromise with the wall but that we will overcome the senseless separation to serve a reasonable peace."

The Communist press, which calls the wall a justified defense against a fascist invasion, has charged that Brandt's appeal could result in a setback to thus far unsuccessful negotiations to permit West Germans to pass through the wall and visit their relatives in East Berlin. The Reds say observance of the wall's third anniversary is designed to foment cold war hatreds.

During observance of the wall's second anniversary, an angry crowd of West Berliners clashed with police in a demonstration of hatred against the wall. Police fought with some 1,500 rioters who tried without success to reach the wall at one of its crossing points.

Last Christmas thousands of West Berliners surged into East Berlin for joyous and tearful family reunions.

Billing Change Announced by Water Department

A Kingston Water Department announcement today noted "a slight change in billing procedure" for consumers starting Aug. 18 when "all bills for metered water consumption will be submitted approximately 30 days following the meter reading."

All meters will continue to be read every three months, as has been customary, it was noted.

To Prevent Confusion

The change in billing, the department reported, "was made in response to many requests by city water consumers, and will prevent the confusion that has resulted in the past, because of the lapse of time between the meter reading and the payment date."

Consumers are asked to read the notice, which will be enclosed with the next bill.

It was also announced today that quarterly water bills for the district composed of wards Three through Nine and the 13th Ward, are now due at the department's office, City Hall.

Monday Is Last Day

Monday, Aug. 17 is the last day for payment without penalty. The department's office is open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday, and is closed Saturdays.

Payments may also be made in the depository at police headquarters, City Hall, at any time.

UR Start Closer for Kingston

Documents Signed By Mayor, Agency

Signing today of agreements affecting urban renewal brings the city closer to the date "when it will actually begin to acquire and clear land for sale and redevelopment" in downtown's Broadway East project area, Eric Hemphill local UR director, announced this morning.

Documents known as "novation and cooperation agreements," given federal approval for signature, were signed today by Mayor John J. Schwenk and Bernard A. Feeney Sr., chairman of the Kingston Urban Renewal Agency.

Could Be November

The local agency, Hemphill also noted, has been notified that the documentation submitted to the Housing and Home Finance Agency, dealing with establishment of the agency, has been reviewed and approved. He indicated Wednesday that an initial phase of the downtown project could start in November.

At its July 7 meeting, the Common Council adopted resolutions authorizing execution of the agreements. Federal approval for signing them was received Wednesday, and they were signed today.

The urban renewal agency is now officially responsible for carrying out the local UR program with approval of the city and the federal governments.

Assure City Support

Agreements signed today assure the support and cooperation of the city during the execution of the program.

The urban renewal agency plan was legislated to avoid complicated measures that would be required in dealing with the problem of bonded debt limitations imposed on a state's communities. The agency, instead of the city itself, becomes responsible for carrying out urban renewal programs.

The so-called "novation agreement" permits substitution of a new legal obligation for a former one" in instances where required.

The Kingston Urban Renewal Agency, headed by Chairman Feeney, is composed of George E. Yerry Jr., David Schecter Edmund S. Peppard, and Attorney Vincent G. Connelly.

Onteora Adopts Reduced Budget For School Year

A reduced budget totaling $2,572,018 was approved Wednesday by voters in the Onteora Central School District by a 491-vote margin. The vote was 1524-1033.

Third Vote Cast

It was the third vote cast by voters of Onteora School District. The original 1964-65 budget totaling $2,661,435 was defeated in May by 18 votes, and in June district voters rejected the same budget by a margin of 265 votes.

Since July 1, the district has been operating on an austerity budget, and school officials emphasized that if the voters turned down the reduced budget yesterday the austerity budget would have been used in the future.

How Districts Voted

The Hurley district polled the largest margin in favor of the budget yesterday. The vote in that area approving the proposed budget total was 463-187. Woodstock voters approved the budget by a 231-vote margin. The vote was 545-314. The vote in Shandaken was 29 yes, 265 no. Olive votes polled 217 in favor of the budget and 267 against.

Goldwater 'Unity' Seen Forward Step

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Many Republican leaders saw today in Sen. Barry Goldwater's unity manifesto a stride toward party solidarity — but some cracks still showed on the foundation the GOP presidential nominee is out to build.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sounded the unity keynote with a warm endorsement of Goldwater and vice presidential nominee William E. Miller, and a promise to do all he can to help elect them.

Satisfied Now

"Any uncertainties I may have felt as to the fitness, adequacy and quality of the political program they will offer to the United States in the 1964 campaign have been resolved," the former president said.

Goldwater acknowledged Eisenhower was among the architects of the detailed position paper he delivered Wednesday to a four-hour closed-door meeting of three dozen GOP governors and other party chieftains from 28 states.

The nominee and the former president talked for two hours a week ago at Eisenhower's farm in Gettysburg, Pa.

In a key passage of the unity declaration, Goldwater told the Republican leaders: "I seek the support of no extremist — of the left or the right."

Join in Praise

Eisenhower, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and other party leaders joined in praising that statement.

"He has repudiated character assassins, vigilantes, Communists and any group such as the Ku Klux Klan that would attempt to control localities through terror, threat or other lawless means," the former president said.

Rockefeller said that repudiation, along with other Goldwater pledges, should help the ticket. But the New York governor said he would have added the John Birch Society to the disavowal list.

Not on List

Goldwater told a news conference he has vigorously opposed "damaging, ridiculous and very stupid statements" by Robert Welch, the society's founder. But he said the society itself is on no subversive list.

Rockefeller said the Goldwater declaration should be "reassuring to Republicans from one end of the country to the other.

But the New York governor indicated all his reservations have not been erased. He reminded newsmen that he spent five months as a candidate for the nomination, campaigning

Adams Stairway Plan Instead of Sidewalks Is Out

Construction of a stairway as a solution to the sidewalk problem near the new John F. Kennedy School in the Fifth Ward, as proposed by former Fifth Ward Alderman Frank A. Adams, has been considered and not accepted, Mayor John J. Schwenk revealed today, but, he said, he is willing to discuss the idea, as suggested by Adams.

A measure seeking installation of sidewalks and curbing on Gross Street and a section of Delaware Avenue, with property owners paying full cost, was recently defeated in the Common Council, because several aldermen feel that the city should pay 25 per cent of the cost.

The city contends that the city charter provides for a 100 per cent assessment, and Mayor Schwenk indicated recently, he intends to seek council action on the proposal in September, if no other solution to the problem is arrived at by then.

Former Alderman Adams, in his statement today, said:

Avoid Fighting

"I believe there is a solution to the Delaware Avenue sidewalk problem that will be satisfactory to everyone, and prevent another eruption in the fighting Fifth Ward this fall.

"From some point along Yeomans Street, a stairway could be built up the slope so that the upper end terminates in Hasbrouck Park. I believe this will involve only property already owned by the city. The steps would be constructed of suffi-

Turkey Is Warning On Break

Air Strikes Are Feared by Greeks

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Chances for peace on Cyprus were so precariously balanced today that U.N. officials feared an insult shouted across no-man's land could shatter the truce.

And in Nicosia, emboldened Turkish Cypriots have been screaming insults across the sandbagged "green line" that divides them from the Greek Cypriot sector.

The Turkish Cypriot minority appears convinced the threat of renewed Turkish air strikes restrains Greek Cypriots from any ground attack.

Turkey called off its reconnaissance flights over the island Wednesday in response to a U.N. appeal, but warned it would not hesitate to strike if the cease-fire collapses.

In the northwest corner of the island, Turk Cypriots manned the tiny pocket of Kokkina, into which they were driven by Greek Cypriots before the weekend cease fire.

Ring of Steel

Despite the aerial threat, the Nicosia government is maintaining a ring of steel around Kokkina and U.N. observers fear renewed clashes.

Greek Cypriots vented their rage and frustration Wednesday by turning angrily on the United States and Britain, whom they accuse of siding with Turkey in the dispute.

Parliament President Glafcos Clerides drew shouts of approval when he cried that the time for talk was past. Only outright self-determination, under United Nations shelter, would satisfy the island's 400,000 Greek Cypriots, he said.

Point to U. S., Britain

Blasting the Turkish air attacks, Clerides said "nobody can believe the responsibility rests solely with Turkey.

"Nobody can believe that Turkey would dare launch such attacks, with NATO planes, without the consent of these two countries—the United States and Great Britain."

An offshot of the anti-American campaign was the refusal of Greek Cypriots to accept from the United States 2,000 pints of blood plasma flown here at the request of Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Cypriot president.

Some Nicosia newspapers charged that the plasma was so old its use could be fatal.

Claim Plasma Bad

An Embassy spokesman said the plasma, of the same type used by the U.S. armed forces, has a standard warning on the label that if it becomes cloudy after shaking it should not be used.

Greek Cypriot authorities said the first 3 of 23 bottles handed over to them turned bad. They then refused to accept the rest of the shipment.

Despite the attitude of the Greek Cypriots, diplomats in Nicosia, Athens, Istanbul, Geneva, London, Washington and the United Nations were working to take advantage of the present cease fire to reach some kind of agreement.

Spyros Kyprianou, Cypriot foreign minister, returned to Nicosia this morning after em-

Jersey Cities Quiet After New Disorders

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — Youths armed with gasoline bombs, bottles, rocks and bricks rioted in a multiracial neighborhood of Elizabeth and smashed car and store windows in a Negro district of Paterson Wednesday night and early today.

Helmeted policemen with nightsticks restored order in both cities early today. It was the second night in a row in which violence broke out in the two northern New Jersey cities about 20 miles apart.

Elizabeth police tore into a crowd of young Negroes shortly before 2 a.m., subduing some of the youths with sticks, firing into the air, and making arrests. The brief battle followed bombarding of at least three police cars with bottles, near misses on several motorcycle police, a flaring gas bomb that lit up an intersection and the explosion of firecrackers.

Elizabeth hospitals reported treating eight persons for minor injuries. About a half-dozen Negroes and whites were injured in Paterson, but none was hospitalized.

Sixteen adults and two juveniles, mostly Negroes, were arrested as disorderly persons in Elizabeth.

Twenty-three Negroes, including six juveniles, were arrested in Paterson. One woman, arrested as she allegedly prepared to throw a garbage can through a window, was charged with inciting a riot.

Ulster Town Hall Vote Set 15th; Whittier Asks Lights

A bonding capital resolution was approved Wednesday night by the Town of Ulster Board, approving construction of a new town hall on Morton Boulevard at an estimated cost of $110,000.

The action of the board is subject to a mandatory referendum. The Board set Tuesday, Sept. 15 for the referendum. Voting will take place from 2 to 8 p. m. at the regular polling places in the seven election districts.

Those who will be eligible to vote are property holders listed on the last completed assessment roll of the township.

A petition signed by approximately 80 per cent of residents of the Whittier area proposing the establishment of a Whittier Light District, was received. It was noted that the law requires that a public hearing must be held on proposed creation of new special districts.

The hearing was set by the Board for Sept. 9, at 7:15 p. m. at Lake Katrine Grange Hall. The approximate cost for the light district per $1,000 of assessed valuation, would be $4.77. The Board has urged residents of the Whittier to attend the hearing and they will be heard pro or con.

Two members of the recently established Town Zoning Commission submitted resignations, which were accepted with regret. They were Stephen G. Hyatt, principal of J. Watson Bailey Junior High School, who resigned because of a pressure of work in the school post, and John Ponsen, an IBM employe who recently was transferred to the Poughkeepsie plant and intends to move there in the near future.

The Board appointed Reta Fredericks, temporary chairman of the commission to succeed Hyatt.

A plan was received from Sunset Gardens Inc., for their proposed connections to water mains in the Ulster Water District. It was referred to the town engineers for review and comment.

Permission was received from the Archdiocese of New York, owners of property on the old Wiltwyck golf site on Route 209, to drill test wells for water supplies to serve the Spring Lake

UR Start Closer for Kingston

DocumentsSigned By Mayor, Agency

Signing today of agreements affecting urban renewal brings the city closer to the date "when it will actually begin to acquire and clear land for sale and redevelopment" in downtown's Broadway East project area, Eric Hemphill local UR director, announced this morning.

Documents known as "novation and cooperation agreements," given federal approval for signature, were signed today by Mayor John J. Schwenk and Bernard A. Feeney Sr., chairman of the Kingston Urban Renewal Agency.

Could Be November

The local agency, Hemphill also noted, has been notified that the documentation submitted to the Housing and Home Finance Agency, dealing with establishment of the agency, has been reviewed and approved. He indicated Wednesday that an initial phase of the downtown project could start in November.

At its July 7 meeting, the Common Council adopted resolutions authorizing execution of the agreements. Federal approval for signing them was received Wednesday, and they were signed today.

The urban renewal agency is now officially responsible for carrying out the local UR program with approval of the city and the federal governments.

Adams Stairway Plan Instead of Sidewalks Is Out

Construction of a stairway as a solution to the sidewalk problem near the new John F. Kennedy School in the Fifth Ward, as proposed by former Fifth Ward Alderman Frank A. Turkey Is Warning On Break

Air Strikes Are Feared by Greeks

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Chances for peace on Cyprus were so precariously balanced today that U.N. officials feared an insult shouted across no-man's land could shatter the truce.

And in Nicosia, emboldened Turkish Cypriots have been screaming insults across the sandbagged "green line" that divides them from the Greek Cypriot sector.

The Turkish Cypriot minority appears convinced the threat of renewed Turkish air strikes restrains Greek Cypriots from any ground attack.

Turkey called off its reconnaissance flights over the island Wednesday in response to a U.N. appeal, but warned it would not hesitate to strike if the ceasefire collapses.

In the northwest corner of the island, Turk Cypriots manned the tiny pocket of Kokkina, into which they were driven by Greek Cypriots before the weekend cease fire.

Ring of Steel

Despite the aerial threat, the Nicosia government is maintaining a ring of steel around Kokkina and U.N. observers fear renewed clashes.

Greek Cypriots vented their rage and frustration Wednesday by turning angrily on the United States and Britain, whom they accuse of siding with Turkey in the dispute.

Parliament President Glafcos Clerides drew shouts of approval when he cried that the time for talk was past. Only outright self-determination, under United Nations shelter, would satisfy the island's 400,000 Greek Cypriots, he said.

Point to U. S., Britain

Blasting the Turkish air attacks, Clerides said "nobody can believe the responsibility rests solely with Turkey.

"Nobody can believe that Turkey would dare launch such attacks, with NATO planes, without the consent of these two countries—the United States and Great Britain."

An offshot of the anti-American campaign was the refusal of Greek Cypriots to accept from the United States 2,000 pints of blood plasma flown here at the request of Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Cypriot president.

Some Nicosia newspapers charged that the plasma was so old its use could be fatal.

Claim Plasma Bad

An Embassy spokesman said the plasma, of the same type used by the U.S. armed forces, has a standard warning on the label that if it becomes cloudy after shaking it should not be used.

Greek Cypriot authorities said the first 3 of 23 bottles handed over to them turned bad. They then refused to accept the rest of the shipment.

Despite the attitude of the Greek Cypriots, diplomats in Nicosia, Athens, Istanbul, Geneva, London, Washington and the United Nations were working to take advantage of the present cease fire to reach some kind of agreement.

Spyros Kyprianou, Cypriot foreign minister, returned to Nicosia this morning after em-

Jersey Cities Quiet After New Disorders

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — Youths armed with gasoline bombs, bottles, rocks and bricks rioted in a multiracial neighborhood of Elizabeth and smashed car and store windows in a Negro district of Paterson Wednesday night and early today.

Helmeted policemen with nightsticks restored order in both cities early today. It was the second night in a row in which violence broke out in the two northern New Jersey cities about 20 miles apart.

Elizabeth police tore into a crowd of young Negroes shortly before 2 a.m., subduing some of the youths with sticks, firing into the air, and making arrests. The brief battle followed bombarding of at least three police cars with bottles, near misses on several motorcycle police, a flaring gas bomb that lit up an intersection and the explosion of firecrackers.

Elizabeth hospitals reported treating eight persons for minor injuries. About a half-dozen Negroes and whites were injured in Paterson, but none was hospitalized.

Sixteen adults and two juveniles, mostly Negroes, were arrested as disorderly persons in Elizabeth.

Twenty-three Negroes, including six juveniles, were arrested in Paterson. One woman, arrested as she allegedly prepared to throw a garbage can through a window, was charged with inciting a riot.

Ulster Town Hall Vote Set 15th; Whittier Asks Lights

A bonding capital resolution was approved Wednesday night by the Town of Ulster Board, approving construction of a new town hall on Morton Boulevard at an estimated cost of $110,000.

The action of the board is subject to a mandatory referendum. The Board set Tuesday, Sept. 15 for the referendum. Voting will take place from 2 to 8 p. m. at the regular polling places in the seven election districts.

Those who will be eligible to vote are property holders listed on the last completed assessment roll of the township.

A petition signed by approximately 80 per cent of residents of the Whittier area proposing the establishment of a Whittier Light District, was received. It was noted that the law requires that a public hearing must be held on proposed creation of new special districts.

The hearing was set by the Board for Sept. 9, at 7:15 p. m. at Lake Katrine Grange Hall. The approximate cost for the light district per $1,000 of assessed valuation, would be $4.77. The Board has urged residents of the Whittier to attend the hearing and they will be heard pro or con.

Two members of the recently established Town Zoning Commission submitted resignations, which were accepted with regret. They were Stephen G. Hyatt, principal of J. Watson Bailey Junior High School, who resigned because of a pressure of work in the school post, and John Ponsen, an IBM employe who recently was transferred to the Poughkeepsie plant and intends to move there in the near future.

The Board appointed Reta Fredericks, temporary chairman of the commission to succeed Hyatt.

A plan was received from Sunset Gardens Inc., for their proposed connections to water mains in the Ulster Water District, It was referred to the town engineers for review and comment.

Permission was received from the Archdiocese of New York, owners of property on the old Wiltwyck golf site on Route 209, to drill test wells for water supplies to serve the Spring Lake

Restaurateur Is Cited by Nebraska For Steaks Sale

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The navy of Nebraska may be a figment of imagination, but Pat Destito has an authentic admiral's commission to display to customers of his two restaurants in Rome, N.Y.

Gov. Frank Morrison presented the commission to Destito Wednesday.

The governor said the Savoy Restaurant in Rome, operated by the Destito family, had been featuring Nebraska beef for about 50 years.

"We sell quite a few of them," Destito remarked of Nebraska steaks.

The restaurant owner and his wife are visiting Nebraska as guests of the Strategic Air Command, which has its headquarters at Offcutt Air Force Base in Omaha and also operates Griffiss Air Force Base at Rome.

Destito has been a booster of the SAC, as well as Nebraska steak.

The Nebraska governor promised to send Destito a letter of commendation, which Destito said he planned to have copied and enlarged for display in the two restaurants he now owns.

Biloxi to Sign Negroes Friday In School Plan

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — Registration for the first desegregated public school classes in Mississippi will take place Friday in this Gulf Coast resort city.

Mississippi is the last state to topple classroom racial barriers below the college level.

There was no estimate of how many Negro children would seek to register for first grade classes at nine previously all-white schools under federal court orders. Actual classroom work doesn't start until next month.

School and local officials plan to keep a tight security barrier around the schools, in an effort to keep down violence.

The same court order which opened the first grade to Negroes here also directed the school systems of Jackson, the state's capital and largest city, and rural Leake County, birthplace of segregationist former Gov. Ross R. Barnett, to accept Negroes.

Desegregation under the court order will reach the second grade next year and continue upward on a grade-a-year basis.

Biloxi, site of Keesler Air Force Base, has been free of the racial discord which has swept other areas of the state recently.

In Leake County, three Negro schools began activities Monday. The county's five white schools don't open until Aug. 28.

Negro leaders complained that the Negro schools were started earlier than the white schools to discourage integration attempts.

Rural schools in the state frequently begin classes in mid-August and suspend operations temporarily during the height of the cotton harvesting season later in the fall.

State Judge Bans Democratic Wing Of Rights Group

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A state judge has banned operations of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party, formed by civil rights leaders to seek ouster of the all-white regular Democrats from the national convention.

At almost the same time that Chancery Judge Stokes Robertson Jr. issued his injunction Wednesday, a suit was filed in federal court asking that 16 state laws designed to hinder civil rights activities be struck down.

The two actions weren't directly connected. But both were seen as part of the continuing struggle on one hand by the state to maintain the status quo and on the other hand by Negroes to win civil rights including recognition from the national Democratic party.

Lawrence Guyot, chairman of the Freedom Democrats executive committee, said attorneys were considering action to counter the injunction.

State Atty. Gen. Jot T. Patterson, a Democrat, obtained the injunction.

Patterson, along wih Gov. Paul B. Johnson and other state officials, was named a defendant in the federal court action.

Guyot declined to say if officers of the Freedom Democrats would obey the injunction ordering them to cease activity for the group.

A floor battle over the issue at the Democratic National Convention, which begins Aug. 24 at Atlantic City, N.J., is virtually assured. At least eight state Democratic delegations have called for support of the predominantly Negro Freedom Democrats.

Patterson's suit said it was filed for "the preservation of order and the protection of the public." It charged that last week's state convention of the Freedom Democrats was designed to "intimidate and embarrass the lawfully existing Democratic party and to create confusion in the minds of the electorate and bitterness, hatred and discord among the citizens."

The attorney general argued that the word "democratic" is already in use as part of another party name and under Mississippi law a second group cannot use it.

The Colosseum, the earliest great amphitheatre in Rome, was named after the colossal statue of Nero which stood close to it. Its over-all dimensions were 620 feet by 513 feet. The arena was 287 feet by 180 feet and the seating capacity is estimated at about 50,000.

Denial Made U. S. Will Lack Bombing Power by Year '70

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and the Pentagon have fired back at Sen. Barry Goldwater's charge that the Administration is depleting the "arsenal for the defense of freedom."

The Defense Department decribed as "totally false" Goldwater's statement that the U.S. capacity to deliver nuclear weapons may be reduced by 90 per cent in the next decade.

And President Johnson, addressing the same audience that heard Goldwater's charge — the members of the National Association of Counties — said:

"Our resources are committed, our sacrifices are made, our vigil is maintained so that there shall be no win for aggression in our times."

In his speech Monday, Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, said the United States faces the prospect of going into the 1970s without a single new manned bomber.

"Under our present defense leadership, with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 90 per cent in the next decade," Goldwater asserted, unless present plans are changed.

Not so, the Pentagon said Tuesday night through Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester.

Sylvester's statement said Goldwater's charge was "not only without foundation but contrary to the facts."

"The facts are," the statement said, "that in 1970 we will have a capability to deliver on target 2½ times as many warheads as we had in 1961 and a greater number than we have today."

A Goldwater speechwriter, Karl Hess, said Goldwater's forecast was based on public information about bombers, missiles and their payloads.

"You take what we've got and you take what we're going to have and that is the result," said Hess. He said no classified information had been used.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork is vying for the spotlight at the nation's groceries this weekend after standing in the shadow of beef for many months.

Hams and loin roasts are among the widespread features at special prices. Also featured are spareribs, chops and pork steaks.

Beef still is rated a best buy at many markets, however, despite pork competition and despite a gentle rise in some beef retail prices.

Rib roasts are offered at 65 cents a pound at the Northeastern outlets of one big chain.

For winged protein, turkeys, frying chickens and baking hens are common features.

Fresh vegetable supplies have been affected by hot, dry weather in Western growing areas, but no bad shortages or sharp price jumps have been reported.

Among the general features are green beans, carrots, celery, eggplant, peppers, potatoes, tomatoes, fresh corn and lettuce.

Von Sydow Will Play in Western After Bible Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Three years ago Max Von Sydow had been signed to portray Jesus in "The Greatest Story Ever Told" and was reminded of H.B. Warner, whose career was almost halted after playing the same role in "King of Kings."

"Then," the Swedish actor told me in Stockholm, "I should insist on playing a gunfighter in a Western immediately afterward."

Having completed his year's work in "The Greatest Story Ever Told," Von Sydow is back in Hollywood appearing in a Western.

"Not really a Western," he remarked. "It's more of a modern story against a Western background. And I don't carry a gun, although I do get shot at."

Von Sydow is appearing with Yvette Mimieux, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and Gilbert Roland in "The Reward," the first American film directed by Frenchman Serge Bourguignon ("Sundays and Cybele.") With his penchant for realism, the director insisted on shooting in Death Valley in midsummer, when the place lives up to its name.

But Von Sydow had nary a complaint.

"The temperature got up to 126 in the shade — in the 140s in the sun," he reported, "but it didn't bother me a bit. I couldn't get enough of the heat.

"How many cold winters, how many foggy winters, how many sunless winters have I known in Sweden! I felt it my duty to my countrymen to get as much sunshine as I could. And, after all, we were not '49ers but '64ers. We had air conditioning and other things the pioneers did not enjoy."

East Berliners Find Escape Is Not So Simple Anymore

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP) — It began three years ago today with a few strands of barbed wire being dragged across the streets of downtown Berlin.

Now the Red wall dividing the city is a massive, bloodstained death trap with a depressing air of permanence.

The Communist regime began to build the wall after more than three million East Germans had fled to the West. The refugees were pouring over the open frontier at the rate of 2,000 a day.

Then it was just a question of crossing the street or taking a subway ride.

Subway Stopped

The wall blocked 377 streets, and the subway stopped running between East and West. The escape hatch was closed.

The eight crossing points kept open for foreigners and West Germans are strongly guarded.

Daring East Germans are still risking their lives to escape, but now they come over mostly in ones or twos.

At least 53 have been killed and 34 injured in attempts to breach the wall. Another 52 died on the 800-mile frontier between East and West Germany.

Nearly 20,000 East Germans have escaped since the wall was built —an amazing number considering the formidable obstacles.

Whole rows of houses have been demolished to clear a field of fire for the guards. Apartment blocks on the border have been evacuated and windows bricked up.

Western experts estimate that $3.5 million worth of concrete and barbed wire have been used on the wall and on barricades around West Berlin. The waste of man-hours has been enormous.

Constant Watch

West police have counted 232 trenches and dugouts and 165 watchtowers around the 101-mile city limits. In these more than 10,000 East German soldiers keep constant armed watch, with orders to shoot refugees.

West police say the Red Guards have used their weapons 833 times. West police have observed the arrest of 1,798 persons, apparently planning to escape.

There may have been many more victims out of sight inside Communist territory. Security controls around Berlin begin many miles from the border.

Planning to leave East Germany without official permission is a crime. A West Berlin refugee group calculates that prison terms totaling 12,000 years have been handed down by Communist courts for planning or helping escape.

Not all the Red guards enjoy their work. Since the wall, 1,633 of them have deserted to the West. Many of the young men who escape say they bolted to avoid being conscripted for duty at the wall.

The controlled East German press, including soldiers' magazines, is continually trying to bolster morale and alertness by the border guards. They are told the wall was a justifiable defense against a Fascist invasion and that their countrymen who try to cross it are traitors.

Aided by Guards

But it is obvious that many escapes have been made only because guards have looked the other way, or deliberately aimed wide.

The Berliners have become used to the wall, without accepting it. The economic blow of the loss of 60,000 East Germans who used to work in the Western sectors has been overcome.

Most West Berliners are prosperous. The immediate threat of a Communist takeover has receded.

But medical experts say the human misery caused by the wall is a heavy psychological burden on the Berliners. They call it "wall sickness" and say it is partly responsible for the high suicide rate on both sides of the wall.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television's 1964-65 season looms as the year of the computer.

The miracle machines are not new in television. But soon they will be blossoming forth as actors.

The star of a new CBS comedy series, "My Living Doll," has a computer in the title role. The character looks like a beautiful human female, but is a disguised machine programmed to exhibit every human characteristic except emotion.

Then there is "Thrush," the international cartel of evil which NBC's "Man from U.N.C.L.E." will fight each week. The scheming head of this vicious organization is a computer, programmed by the villainous agents to dream up dreadful plots for the brave, good agents of "Uncle" (the crime-fighting organization) to foil just before the final commercial.

Computers will turn up as dress extras and minor characters in ABC's "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," a flashing computer will spew out information in the science fiction and adventure tales, including "The Outer Limits."

ABC, once again, will launch its entire fall schedule of new shows in a one week period starting Sept. 14, arriving on the home screens first with the most.

CBS will start its fall programming, for the most part, the following week.

But NBC's opening gambit is to spread the new shows and seasonal premieres over a longer period — through September and into October — one night at a time. All of its Monday evening shows, new and returning, will start on Oct. 5; all its Friday night efforts on Sept. 25, and so on.

Actually, the first new show to move into the network lineup will be NBC's star-studded "Rogues," on Sunday night, Sept. 13. The adventure series with Charles Boyer, David Niven and Gig Young will replace the "Show of the Week" dramatic series which always attracted disappointingly small audiences.

Year-'round Shoes

White shoes used to be a bad investment. They were good for only one season and too seedy to put away for the next summer. With the new shoe coloring, you can now wear them white for summer. Then dyed black, brown or whatever shade you desire, they can go through fall and winter, too.

Grahamsville Fair Concessions Given

Bids were let Saturday night at Grahamsville for concessions at the 85th annual Little World's Fair to be held August 22.

Ray Krum was high bidder on the soda concession. Hot dogs and ice cream both went to F. Simone. Ben Morse secured the Milk Bar concession. Popcorn, candy apples and cotton candy were let to Anthony Smedira. The Middletown Paid Firemen will again serve dinners on the grounds.

Fair time is prize time and many contests are open besides the usual exhibit premiums. Prizes are offered for prowess at horseshoe pitching. The annual amateur contest is a popular attraction. Horse pulling contests are scheduled. The youngest person to be registered at the secretary's booth will win a prize, as will the oldest fair goer. Prizes are offered to the newest married couple and to the couple married longest.

If anyone doubts that this is a world's fair, he should listen in when fair goers register for the prize given to the person who comes farthest to attend. In the past contestants have registered from France and Antarctica.

The Little World's Fair is especially hospitable to young and old. Children under 12 are admitted free and all oldsters over 80 may have their admission refunded on application at the secretary's booth.

Denial Made U. S. Will Lack Bombing Power by Year '70

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and the Pentagon have fired back at Sen. Barry Goldwater's charge that the Administration is depleting the "arsenal for the defense of freedom."

The Defense Department decribed as "totally false" Goldwater's statement that the U.S. capacity to deliver nuclear weapons may be reduced by 90 per cent in the next decade.

And President Johnson, addressing the same audience that heard Goldwater's charge — the members of the National Association of Counties — said:

"Our resources are committed, our sacrifices are made, our vigil is maintained so that there shall be no win for aggression in our times."

In his speech Monday, Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, said the United States faces the prospect of going into the 1970s without a single new manned bomber.

"Under our present defense leadership, with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 90 per cent in the next decade," Goldwater asserted, unless present plans are changed.

Not so, the Pentagon said Tuesday night through Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester.

Sylvester's statement said Goldwater's charge was "not only without foundation but contrary to the facts."

"The facts are," the statement said, "that in 1970 we will have a capability to deliver on target 2½ times as many warheads as we had in 1961 and a greater number than we have today."

A Goldwater speechwriter, Karl Hess, said Goldwater's forecast was based on public information about bombers, missiles and their payloads.

"You take what we've got and you take what we're going to have and that is the result," said Hess. He said no classified information had been used.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork is vying for the spotlight at the nation's groceries this weekend after standing in the shadow of beef for many months.

Hams and loin roasts are among the widespread features at special prices. Also featured are spareribs, chops and pork steaks.

Beef still is rated a best buy at many markets, however, despite pork competition and despite a gentle rise in some beef retail prices.

Rib roasts are offered at 65 cents a pound at the Northeastern outlets of one big chain.

For winged protein, turkeys, frying chickens and baking hens are common features.

Fresh vegetable supplies have been affected by hot, dry weather in Western growing areas, but no bad shortages or sharp price jumps have been reported.

Among the general features are green beans, carrots, celery, eggplant, peppers, potatoes, tomatoes, fresh corn and lettuce.

East Berliners Find Escape Is Not So Simple Anymore

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP) — It began three years ago today with a few strands of barbed wire being dragged across the streets of downtown Berlin.

Now the Red wall dividing the city is a massive, bloodstained death trap with a depressing air of permanence.

The Communist regime began to build the wall after more than three million East Germans had fled to the West. The refugees were pouring over the open frontier at the rate of 2,000 a day.

Then it was just a question of crossing the street or taking a subway ride.

Subway Stopped

The wall blocked 377 streets, and the subway stopped running between East and West. The escape hatch was closed.

The eight crossing points kept open for foreigners and West Germans are strongly guarded.

Daring East Germans are still risking their lives to escape, but now they come over mostly in ones or twos.

At least 53 have been killed and 34 injured in attempts to breach the wall. Another 52 died on the 800-mile frontier between East and West Germany.

Nearly 20,000 East Germans have escaped since the wall was built —an amazing number considering the formidable obstacles.

Whole rows of houses have been demolished to clear a field of fire for the guards. Apartment blocks on the border have been evacuated and windows bricked up.

Western experts estimate that $3.5 million worth of concrete and barbed wire have been used on the wall and on barricades around West Berlin. The waste of man-hours has been enormous.

Constant Watch

West police have counted 232 trenches and dugouts and 165 watchtowers around the 101-mile city limits. In these more than 10,000 East German soldiers keep constant armed watch, with orders to shoot refugees.

West police say the Red Guards have used their weapons 833 times. West police have observed the arrest of 1,798 persons, apparently planning to escape.

There may have been many more victims out of sight inside Communist territory. Security controls around Berlin begin many miles from the border.

Von Sydow Will Play in Western After Bible Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Three years ago Max Von Sydow had been signed to portray Jesus in "The Greatest Story Ever Told" and was reminded of H.B. Warner, whose career was almost halted after playing the same role in "King of Kings."

"Then," the Swedish actor told me in Stockholm, "I should insist on playing a gunfighter in a Western immediately afterward."

Having completed his year's work in "The Greatest Story Ever Told," Von Sydow is back in Hollywood appearing in a Western.

"Not really a Western," he remarked. "It's more of a modern story against a Western background. And I don't carry a gun, although I do get shot at."

Von Sydow is appearing with Yvette Mimieux, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and Gilbert Roland in "The Reward," the first American film directed by Frenchman Serge Bourguignon ("Sundays and Cybele.") With his penchant for realism, the director insisted on shooting in Death Valley in midsummer, when the place lives up to its name.

But Von Sydow had nary a complaint.

"The temperature got up to 126 in the shade — in the 140s in the sun," he reported, "but it didn't bother me a bit. I couldn't get enough of the heat.

"How many cold winters, how many foggy winters, how many sunless winters have I known in Sweden! I felt it my duty to my countrymen to get as much sunshine as I could. And, after all, we were not '49ers but '64ers. We had air conditioning and other things the pioneers did not enjoy."

POLITICAL HUCKSTERISM

The American electoral scene has always been characterized by a liberal dose of hucksterism. The history of the campaign button goes back a long ways. The lawn sign and the bumper sticker are later developments, but the chances are good that if there had been bumpers a century ago they would have been suitably plastered.

In some respects, politics is not as lively as it used to be. Torchlight parades are a thing of the past. Campaign invective is less colorful than of yore, and political oratory in general is less flamboyant these days; the big thing now is less to arouse listeners than to project an image of sincerity.

But when it comes to hucksterism, as distinguished from showmanship, our generation excels. Buttons, hatbands, bumper stickers, lawn signs and all the rest of it suggest that an election is not so much the contending of men and issues, but a battle of names and slogans.

In normal times this might seem to most citizens just plain silly. But an election campaign is not a normal time. People steamed up over candidates and ideas tend to lose their perspective. There is always the chance that votes may actually be swayed by who appears to have the most lawn signs in the neighborhood, or whose bumper slogans are the catchiest.

Herewith, then, the obvious counsel: Do not be unduly influenced by signs and buttons and slogans — especially not by their number, which may simply indicate that one candidate has more money to spend than another. Beneath the hucksterism lies the essential business of democracy — the business of choosing those who govern. Judgement should be based on men and issues, not on signs and slogans.

U Thant suggests a Southeast Asia peace formula to President Johnson. The trouble is, there's one missing ingredient: a North Vietnamese yen for peace.

CASTRO ON THE DECLINE

Amid the welter of racial unrest here at home it is possible we have underplayed the tremendous significance of the imposing of sanctions against Castro's Cuba at the recent conference of the Organization of American States. The margin of victory — 15 to 4 — came as a surprise, since the indication had been that the assembly might reject the proposal.

Thomas C. Mann, our number one man in shaping Latin-American policy, has offered an explanation. He believes that support for Castro, once prevalent in South America, is giving way to disillusionment with the bearded dictator's lack of progress in improving the lot of his people.

Mann recalled that Cuba originally was expected to become a showcase for communism, though Mann said he always had regarded this as phony propaganda. "The Russians," he said, "couldn't run the island from that distance any more than we can run our aid programs with unlimited success."

In any case, Latin Americans now are waking up to the fact that an imposed communism, such as Castro's, doesn't work. They are coming to understand that his brand of political terrorism does not buy material progress, and that even aside from his subversive campaign his operations are hurting the Latin American economy.

Mann predicted recently that "Castro isn't going to be around forever." The prospect grows that this may prove to be an understatement. The beginning of the end of Castro's ascendancy may have been marked by that OAS vote.

EVERY LITTLE SECOND HELPS

These are busy times, as everybody knows, and science is working overtime to speed up everything we do so we will have more time to speed up added activities made possible by the time we save by speeding up our original activities.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

AN ANSWER TO THE SLUMS

Every year Watson Washburn, the old First Ten tennis player who is convinced that inability to read, or "functional illiteracy,," is at the bottom of much that passes for delinquency and unemployability, brings some remarkable speakers to New York City for a conference of his Reading Reform Foundation. This year, at the Hotel Roosevelt, the reading reformers listened to Max Rafferty, California's Superintendent of Public Instruction and Director of Education. Rafferty, who is going places politically in his home state and, incidentally, is restoring good literature to the reading curriculum in the California schools, had a huge audience laughing at his sallies about the "configurative contour method of reading instruction," which has even mature students perennially confusing "money" with "monkey" and "sock" with "sack."

Dr. Rafferty's remarks struck home to this columnist, who had recently been victimized by a telegraph operator who, following the "configurative contour" method of reading newspaper copy, had, in the course of transmitting a column to New York, changed Ray Bliss from the "boss of Ohio" into the "boss of Chicago" and, furthermore, had pronounced the astonishing news that the Republican Party had been captured by the "conversationalists" instead of the "conservatives." Plainly, the telegraph company could do worse than to put Dr. Rafferty on its payroll as an adviser.

The most interesting person to turn up at Mr. Washburn's conference, however, was not Dr. Rafferty, who is already winning his fight for good phonetic reading instruction in California, but a Negro from Chicago named Mort Levi. The 33-year-old Mr. Levi, a former research chemist at Sacramento State College in California, is the National Educational Director of Teamwork Foundation, Inc., of 228 North La Salle Street in Chicago, and what he had to tell people at the Reading Reform Foundation Conference had its distinct bearing on the news of slum riots in Harlem, Jersey City, Rochester and elsewhere.

When he was teaching chemistry in California Mr. Levi discovered that he often had to give his students a private course in remedial reading before he could tell them anything about science. Because the "look-say," or "configurative contour," method of reading instruction had already ruined some of his students so far as scientific precision in the use of language was concerned, Mr. Levi had to experiment with old-fashioned phonics. This approach seemed to work.

Then came the so-called "Negro revolution." Its promise excited Mr. Levi, but he soon decided that when he had heard Dr. Martin Luther King once, he had absorbed everything that Dr. King had to say. And once the Civil Rights law had been passed, that was that.

"Sit-ins, lie-downs, and other things of the sort, aren't the answer to the Negro troubles," says Mr. Levi. "What we need is the 'dignify-ins' and 'produce-ins.' Integration won't relieve the Negro of frustration. He needs to achieve independence as a producer. We want no relief handouts; we want self-supporting standouts."

To get Negro "standouts," so Mr. Levi insists, one must begin at the beginning, with the reduction of Negro illiteracy. "One out of every three Negroes in the U. S.," he says, "is an educational cripple without basic reading ability." Bussing Negro children to white schools, he says, won't solve anything in many places, for the teaching of reading in the white schools hasn't been any more effective than the teaching in the slums.

Mr. Levi told his listeners about a Teamwork Foundation experiment in Chicago. Giving six weeks of classes for three hours a night, five days each week, Mr. Levi said he had raised the reading level of more than 200 persons by an average of five grammer school grades in a burst of intensive instruction. The reading clinics were conducted in seven Negro churches on the south and west sides of Chicago. Mr. Levi is prepared to carry his gospel anywhere, and the Foundation will shortly be conducting classes in Minneapolis and St. Paul. But the places he would really like to get into are such dynamite spots as Harlem and Rochester.

"Pigmentation," he says, "is no longer the issue. It's now qualification. If you can read, you can qualify. And anyone who can say 'aah' can be taught to read in six weeks."

Once Final, Much Deafness Is Prevented or Controlled

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

People who are deaf die of something else. Nevertheless, hearing loss is the greatest single physical impairment in this country. It affects an estimated 17 million persons.

As there are different types of deafness, there are different causes. Fortunately such infectious diseases as mastoiditis, pneumonia, meningitis and sinusitis which used to cause a great deal of deafness are being prevented or quickly brought under control with antibiotics.

Otosclerosis is often the cause of deafness in older people. This is a bony replacement of the cartilage joint connecting the tiny bones of the middle ear. Other causes of deafness include congenital defects, ear injuries and exposure to excessive noise, either sudden or extending over several years in a noisy working environment.

The tragedy of deafness is that the victim feels that he is watching the world rather than taking an active part in it. Because he is unable to understand the conversation of his friends, because he misses the point of the jokes, and because he soon grows tired of asking people to repeat what they said he tends to withdraw into a shell.

When he does try to converse he speaks either too low to be heard or he shouts without realizing that he is shouting. Because his friends cannot make him understand, they all too frequently give up trying. This causes the victim to become resentful and to withdraw further from social contacts.

If otosclerosis is the cause, the victim can usually hear you better over the telephone than when you are in the same room because the receiver gives him bone conduction of the sound waves rather than air conduction.

On the bright side, and contrary to popular belief, the deaf driver is guilty of far fewer moving traffic violations than the hearing motorist. He is almost never involved in hit-and-run, drunk driving, or reckless driving charges.

For the victims of otosclerosis (about 33 per cent of all the deaf) the modern technique of microsurgery, performed through the eardrum itself, has proved a boon. The stapes, one of the tiny bones in the middle ear, is freed from its bony adhesions, removed, and replaced by a stainless steel or plastic wire. This requires the most delicate of instruments and great magnification of the operative field but the results have been truly astonishing.

The latest time saver for busy, busy people is "touch-tone" push-button telephone dialing.

This cuts the average dialing time from fourteen seconds to five seconds.

Wow! Nine seconds saved at the phone!

Think what this will mean to teen-agers (and a lot of adults). Now they can talk for two hours AND nine seconds!

Polls show Goldwater has a big lead over Johnson in the South—and the Arizonan is not saying much these days about hoping civil rights won't be an issue.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sizable Democratic gains achieved in U. S. suburbs in 1960 with the late John F. Kennedy as presidential nominee could be wiped out this year if many white suburbanites decide Sen. Barry Goldwater may somehow help them slow or block Negroes seeking homes in their areas.

Conversations with suburban folk disclose that among some there is great resistance to the idea of Negro entry into the suburbs. Others say they won't mind, but occasionally the reality strikes them differently than the mere prospect.

A SUBURBAN DWELLER IN CHICAGO'S NORTH SIDE told a friend from his area:

"I'm tired of all this talk. I wish a Negro would move onto my block next week and we'd be done with the matter."

His friend quietly replied:

"A Negro just did move onto my street a short time ago."

The first man confronted by the fact of change, greeted the response with stunned surprise: "Did he really?"

Negro leaders, housing specialists and others are deeply concerned at hostile attitudes among countless suburban whites. They believe that the Negro's desperate housing dilemma will not begin to be solved until his dispersal into the suburbs becomes a truly substantial fact.

To the extent that dispersal is blocked, the rising numbers of urban Negroes tend to push out in inevitable waves to take over larger and large segments of the older housing in the city proper. It is these waves which city ethnic groups fight with their "backlash."

FOR BUSINESS LEADERS WHO COMPRISE the urban power structure, the puzzle grows steadily greater. In some instances, if they do not soon throw their weight toward wider dispersal of their central city Negro populations, they will find their cities largely Negro in a few decades—and only the suburbs substantially white.

Thus the defacto segregation of the northern cities—a condition no community leader can publicly espouse but some of them privately approve—could work against some of the larger economic objectives of the power structure by creating a massive social imbalance in the cities.

Advocates of broader area dispersal for Negroes welcome, as a solid frame, the open occupancy laws which now govern some kinds of private housing in 18 states and more than 60 U. S. cities. Naturally, they were also grateful for the late John Kennedy's anti-bias housing order of November 1962.

Yet even though they view with distress the prospect that one such law be beaten in a popular referendum this fall in California, they do not see these statutes as much more than a starting point.

Experience in many states suggests that all too few Negroes make use of these laws. Evasions by real estate people are frequently subtle and ingenius, and enforcement of the laws is lax.

HOUSING EXPERTS HERE SAY THAT A PRIME NEED is for more receptive climate for the Negro in the suburbs. Only with that, they argue, will men in the housing industry drop their guard and begin voluntary compliance with anti-bias laws.

Some suburban communities find "fair housing" groups springing up in an effort to provide a better climate. But more often than not these are spurned by a majority of the townsfolk.

Another big barrier to Negro housing advance into the suburbs is economic. While government figures indicate that Negro incomes are rising steadily, that many more families can afford decent housing today than a decade or two ago, families tend to be larger, and savings far skimpier.

Nevertheless, it is clear from official statistics that many Negro families could indeed pay for good suburban housing, new or old, if the opportunity to buy were real. Many in the suburbs who fear the granting of that chance may try to express their concern at the polls in November.

From time to time I am loaned such interesting booklets as one called "The Catskill Mountains" which was copyrighted in 1894 by N. A. Sims, general passenger agent, of the Ulster and Delaware Railroad and re-issued in 1915 and printed by the Kingston Freeman. This copy is owned by Mr. William Guldy of 29 Rogers Street, Kingston, and on the staff of the Freeman.

This booklet tells about the construction of the Ulster and Delaware line which began in 1866. It proceeded slowly and cautiously for a time, the iron horse did not really get very far into the mountains until four years later, it explains. Even then the project was generally considered wild and ill-advised, with certain failure at the end. But the projectors had faith in the final result and kept stretching out the rails until they reached and crossed the mountains.

It was said that the engineers found a natural pass here, crooked and tortuous though it was and they followed it up in laying out the line of the road, avoiding any aggressive liberties with the native conditions, as far as possible. They did encounter many heavy grades, and a cantankerous mountain creek, and a "whole brood of wayward and excitable little tributaries pouring into it from every gorge and gulch which had to be dealt with in a dignified and earnest manner. These little streams were normally quiet and speckled trout disported lazily in the crystal water, but when the floods came these placid and pretty rills swelled into roaring torrents in a few hours, which swept everything down before it."

As transportation came, so came mountain boarding houses, hotels, large and small, to rise here and there in the valleys and on the mountain slopes. Kingston city was the start of the all-rail route, beginning at Kingston Point. The Ulster and Delaware line runs through the entire Catskill range until it reaches the city of Oneonta, in Otsego County, some 107 miles from this eastern terminus of Kingston Point Park. Here at the Point, folks in the early 1900's were able to step off the elegant and popular day line steamers and board the Ulster and Delaware trains for any point in the range, coming from various stops on the Hudson River where the day line stopped.

No doubt many readers remember when these "strangers" with baggage used to step directly from the palatial decks of the steamers to the train cars. The transfer of baggage was done politely and quickly and there was no change of cars between the river and the Catskill Mountains.

About our Rondout Station they wrote in 1915. This was formerly a village, and in 1614 the Dutch established a settlement here. It is the river port of the city of Kingston, which was incorporated in 1872. The steamer Mary Powell (day line) and the steamers of the Central Hudson Steamboat Company (night line) made daily trips between this port and New York. Connection was also made here by ferry to Rhinecliff with the New York Central trains. For folks in Rondout, this was a great convenience, while the wonderful modern Rhinecliff-Kingston bridge is a great inconvenience, I think. It takes you from nowhere to nowhere. What the old timers did seems so wise, reasonable and sensible to me now. Our modern planners have made no end of mistakes, I wonder why.

Political Speeches Solve Nothing in Racial Struggles

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The political world "will little note nor long remember" what was said in the addresses at Hershey, Pa., by the leading Republicans who gathered there on Wednesday to present an image of party unity. For the semantics of what is or is not party harmony can have little bearing on the deep-seated feelings which have been stirred up on fundamental questions among the voters of all parties throughout the country.

It matters little, for instance, whether Sen. Goldwater failed to repudiate the John Birch Society in its entirety—as Gov. Rockefeller urged — or whether the Arizona Senator was right in limiting himself to sharp criticism of Robert Welch, head of that same society. Mr. Goldwater revealed that, when he first read Mr. Welch's book linking officials of the Eisenhower administration with the Communist movement, he told the author to "burn it up." Mr. Goldwater added that many members of the society agree with him.

It is of little relevance, moreover, whether Mr. Goldwater's statement that, if elected, he would rely on Gen. Eisenhower and other competent military advisers is accepted as sufficient by captious critics, or whether, in order to be elected, he must reaffirm every day from the housetops that he believes—as he does—in the doctrine of civilian supremacy over the military.

These subjects are neither in the "mainstream" of political thought nor of overriding importance among party principles today. More vital are such basic issues as honest government, excessive government, and wise use of the taxpayer's money. But somehow the contest over Mr. Goldwater's ambiguous words in recent speeches or statements has seemed to provide opportunities for sniping attacks that are coming regularly now from the Democrats who have merely picked up what some of the so-called Republican "liberals" said about their opponents during the San Francisco convention.

The simple fact is that Republicans are still fighting Republicans in New York State, for example, and show little signs of ending their internecine warefare. In the South, on the other hand, Democratic members of Congress who have been opposed to the basic principles of their own party for decades tactfully go off to Europe instead of attending the Democratic national convention and carrying their grievances before television screens.

Theoretically, a member of Congress who has been elected on the Republican ticket has a moral obligation to support his party from top to bottom. If he wants to become an "independent," he can find plenty of precedent for doing so —only he cannot consistently run under the label of his own party in a state and yet fail to give full support to his party ticket nationally.

It is believed that eventually both Sens. Keating and Javits of New York will be found supporting the national ticket and that the present controversy will prove to be much ado about nothing.

A lot of the debate over "principles" is a smokescreen that hides deep resentments occasioned by the failure of a particular faction to win at the Republican national convention. When it comes to "principles," it is difficult to find much difference between what Sen. Goldwater is saying today and what the platform planks of the party itself proclaimed at San Francisco.

But even if Mr. Goldwater had denounced every member of the John Birch Society, it wouldn't have satisfied his critics, who seem to be anxious to pin the label of "extremism" on the Arizona Senator no matter how often he reaffirms that he favors the United Nations and that he favors peace by strength and is opposed to appeasement because it leads to war.

Some of this type of criticism comes, of course, from Democrats against Republicans. President Johnson, for instance, in a speech on the same day as the Hershey conference was held, said that it had never been "the policy of any American President to systematically place in hazard the life of this nation by threatening nuclear war." This left an inference in the minds of many people that Mr. Goldwater had somehow done so. In rebuttal, Mr. Goldwater promptly declared it was "the supreme political lie" to imply that a victory for him in November might lead to war.

And so the battle of words between parties goes on, which, of course, is understandable. But the battle inside the Republican party, which also seems to be continuing somehow doesn't make sense. Maybe the recalcitrant Republicans ought to study carefully how the Democrats in Congress behave during a Presidential campaign when they support the ticket with the Democratic label on it no matter how their constitutents feel or how many fundamental principles in the history of the party are being ignored.

POLITICAL HUCKSTERISM

The American electoral scene has always been characterized by a liberal dose of hucksterism. The history of the campaign button goes back a long ways. The lawn sign and the bumper sticker are later developments, but the chances are good that if there had been bumpers a century ago they would have been suitably plastered.

In some respects, politics is not as lively as it used to be. Torchlight parades are a thing of the past. Campaign invective is less colorful than of yore, and political oratory in general is less flamboyant these days; the big thing now is less to arouse listeners than to project an image of sincerity.

But when it comes to hucksterism, as distinguished from showmanship, our generation excels. Buttons, hatbands, bumper stickers, lawn signs and all the rest of it suggest that an election is not so much the contending of men and issues, but a battle of names and slogans.

In normal times this might seem to most citizens just plain silly. But an election campaign is not a normal time. People steamed up over candidates and ideas tend to lose their perspective. There is always the chance that votes may actually be swayed by who appears to have the most lawn signs in the neighborhood, or whose bumper slogans are the catchiest.

Herewith, then, the obvious counsel: Do not be unduly influenced by signs and buttons and slogans — especially not by their number, which may simply indicate that one candidate has more money to spend than another. Beneath the hucksterism lies the essential business of democracy — the business of choosing those who govern. Judgement should be based on men and issues, not on signs and slogans.

U Thant suggests a Southeast Asia peace formula to President Johnson. The trouble is, there's one missing ingredient: a North Vietnamese yen for peace.

CASTRO ON THE DECLINE

Amid the welter of racial unrest here at home it is possible we have underplayed the tremendous significance of the imposing of sanctions against Castro's Cuba at the recent conference of the Organization of American States. The margin of victory — 15 to 4 — came as a surprise, since the indication had been that the assembly might reject the proposal.

Thomas C. Mann, our number one man in shaping Latin-American policy, has offered an explanation. He believes that support for Castro, once prevalent in South America, is giving way to disillusionment with the bearded dictator's lack of progress in improving the lot of his people.

Mann recalled that Cuba originally was expected to become a showcase for communism, though Mann said he always had regarded this as phony propaganda. "The Russians," he said, "couldn't run the island from that distance any more than we can run our aid programs with unlimited success."

In any case, Latin Americans now are waking up to the fact that an imposed communism, such as Castro's, doesn't work. They are coming to understand that his brand of political terrorism does not buy material progress, and that even aside from his subversive campaign his operations are hurting the Latin American economy.

Mann predicted recently that "Castro isn't going to be around forever." The prospect grows that this may prove to be an understatement. The beginning of the end of Castro's ascendancy may have been marked by that OAS vote.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

AN ANSWER TO THE SLUMS

Every year Watson Washburn, the old First Ten tennis player who is convinced that inability to read, or "functional illiteracy,," is at the bottom of much that passes for delinquency and unemployability, brings some remarkable speakers to New York City for a conference of his Reading Reform Foundation. This year, at the Hotel Roosevelt, the reading reformers listened to Max Rafferty, California's Superintendent of Public Instruction and Director of Education. Rafferty, who is going places politically in his home state and, incidentally, is restoring good literature to the reading curriculum in the California schools, had a huge audience laughing at his sallies about the "configurative contour method of reading instruction," which has even mature students perennially confusing "money" with "monkey" and "sock" with "sack."

Dr. Rafferty's remarks struck home to this columnist, who had recently been victimized by a telegraph operator who, following the "configurative contour" method of reading newspaper copy, had, in the course of transmitting a column to New York, changed Ray Bliss from the "boss of Ohio" into the "boss of Chicago" and, furthermore, had pronounced the astonishing news that the Republican Party had been captured by the "conversationalists" instead of the "conservatives." Plainly, the telegraph company could do worse than to put Dr. Rafferty on its payroll as an adviser.

The most interesting person to turn up at Mr. Washburn's conference, however, was not Dr. Rafferty, who is already winning his fight for good phonetic reading instruction in California, but a Negro from Chicago named Mort Levi. The 33-year-old Mr. Levi, a former research chemist at Sacramento State College in California, is the National Educational Director of Teamwork Foundation, Inc., of 228 North La Salle Street in Chicago, and what he had to tell people at the Reading Reform Foundation Conference had its distinct bearing on the news of slum riots in Harlem, Jersey City, Rochester and elsewhere.

When he was teaching chemistry in California Mr. Levi discovered that he often had to give his students a private course in remedial reading before he could tell them anything about science. Because the "look-say," or "configurative contour," method of reading instruction had already ruined some of his students so far as scientific precision in the use of language was concerned, Mr. Levi had to experiment with old-fashioned phonics. This approach seemed to work.

Then came the so-called "Negro revolution." Its promise excited Mr. Levi, but he soon decided that when he had heard Dr. Martin Luther King once, he had absorbed everything that Dr. King had to say. And once the Civil Rights law had been passed, that was that.

"Sit-ins, lie-downs, and other things of the sort, aren't the answer to the Negro troubles," says Mr. Levi. "What we need is the 'dignify-ins' and 'produce-ins.' Integration won't relieve the Negro of frustration. He needs to achieve independence as a producer. We want no relief handouts; we want self-supporting standouts."

To get Negro "standouts," so Mr. Levi insists, one must begin at the beginning, with the reduction of Negro illiteracy. "One out of every three Negroes in the U. S.," he says, "is an educational cripple without basic reading ability." Bussing Negro children to white schools, he says, won't solve anything in many places, for the teaching of reading in the white schools hasn't been any more effective than the teaching in the slums.

Mr. Levi told his listeners about a Teamwork Foundation experiment in Chicago. Giving six weeks of classes for three hours a night, five days each week, Mr. Levi said he had raised the reading level of more than 200 persons by an average of five grammer school grades in a burst of intensive instruction. The reading clinics were conducted in seven Negro churches on the south and west sides of Chicago. Mr. Levi is prepared to carry his gospel anywhere, and the Foundation will shortly be conducting classes in Minneapolis and St. Paul. But the places he would really like to get into are such dynamite spots as Harlem and Rochester.

"Pigmentation," he says, "is no longer the issue. It's now qualification. If you can read, you can qualify. And anyone who can say 'aah' can be taught to read in six weeks."

Once Final, Much Deafness Is Prevented or Controlled

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

People who are deaf die of something else. Nevertheless, hearing loss is the greatest single physical impairment in this country. It affects an estimated 17 million persons.

As there are different types of deafness, there are different causes. Fortunately such infectious diseases as mastoiditis, pneumonia, meningitis and sinusitis which used to cause a great deal of deafness are being prevented or quickly brought under control with antibiotics.

Otosclerosis is often the cause of deafness in older people. This is a bony replacement of the cartilage joint connecting the tiny bones of the middle ear. Other causes of deafness include congenital defects, ear injuries and exposure to excessive noise, either sudden or extending over several years in a noisy working environment.

The tragedy of deafness is that the victim feels that he is watching the world rather than taking an active part in it. Because he is unable to understand the conversation of his friends, because he misses the point of the jokes, and because he soon grows tired of asking people to repeat what they said he tends to withdraw into a shell.

When he does try to converse he speaks either too low to be heard or he shouts without realizing that he is shouting. Because his friends cannot make him understand, they all too frequently give up trying. This causes the victim to become resentful and to withdraw further from social contacts.

If otosclerosis is the cause, the victim can usually hear you better over the telephone than when you are in the same room because the receiver gives him bone conduction of the sound waves rather than air conduction.

On the bright side, and contrary to popular belief, the deaf driver is guilty of far fewer moving traffic violations than the hearing motorist. He is almost never involved in hit-and-run, drunk driving, or reckless driving charges.

For the victims of otosclerosis (about 33 per cent of all the deaf) the modern technique of microsurgery, performed through the eardrum itself, has proved a boon. The stapes, one of the tiny bones in the middle ear, is freed from its bony adhesions, removed, and replaced by a stainless steel or plastic wire. This requires the most delicate of instruments and great magnification of the operative field but the results have been truly astonishing.

The latest time saver for busy, busy people is "touch-tone" push-button telephone dialing.

This cuts the average dialing time from fourteen seconds to five seconds.

Wow! Nine seconds saved at the phone!

Think what this will mean to teen-agers (and a lot of adults). Now they can talk for two hours AND nine seconds!

Polls show Goldwater has a big lead over Johnson in the South—and the Arizonan is not saying much these days about hoping civil rights won't be an issue.

In the South, on the other hand, Democratic members of Congress who have been opposed to the basic principles of their own party for decades tactfully go off to Europe instead of attending the Democratic national convention and carrying their grievances before television screens.

Theoretically, a member of Congress who has been elected on the Republican ticket has a moral obligation to support his party from top to bottom. If he wants to become an "independent," he can find plenty of precedent for doing so —only he cannot consistently run under the label of his own party in a state and yet fail to give full support to his party ticket nationally.

It is believed that eventually both Sens. Keating and Javits of New York will be found supporting the national ticket and that the present controversy will prove to be much ado about nothing.

A lot of the debate over "principles" is a smokescreen that hides deep resentments occasioned by the failure of a particular faction to win at the Republican national convention. When it comes to "principles," it is difficult to find much difference between what Sen. Goldwater is saying today and what the platform planks of the party itself proclaimed at San Francisco.

But even if Mr. Goldwater had denounced every member of the John Birch Society, it wouldn't have satisfied his critics, who seem to be anxious to pin the label of "extremism" on the Arizona Senator no matter how often he reaffirms that he favors the United Nations and that he favors peace by strength and is opposed to appeasement because it leads to war.

Some of this type of criticism comes, of course, from Democrats against Republicans. President Johnson, for instance, in a speech on the same day as the Hershey conference was held, said that it had never been "the policy of any American President to systematically place in hazard the life of this nation by threatening nuclear war." This left an inference in the minds of many people that Mr. Goldwater had somehow done so. In rebuttal, Mr. Goldwater promptly declared it was "the supreme political lie" to imply that a victory for him in November might lead to war.

And so the battle of words between parties goes on, which, of course, is understandable. But the battle inside the Republican party, which also seems to be continuing somehow doesn't make sense. Maybe the recalcitrant Republicans ought to study carefully how the Democrats in Congress behave during a Presidential campaign when they support the ticket with the Democratic label on it no matter how their constitutents feel or how many fundamental principles in the history of the party are being ignored.

NEW YORK (AP) — Autumn plans are taking shape fast even while summer heat and drought plague much of the nation.

The big push is true of the garment makers and the steel mills, of the retail merchants and the food processors, of the aviation industry and the building suppliers.

At its half-way mark the year's third quarter already has turned in a better than usual report. For most businesses the summer slump has been relatively mild. For many the fall prospects look more promising than last year. Only a few still fret because the long economic expansion appears too good to be sound.

See Steel Pickup

Steelmen talk resolutely of turning 1964 into a 120-million-ton year, a record. They base their hopes on a pickup in August orders, and the lengthening in delivery times for a basic product, heavy plates.

Auto men are just as confident, even if their minds are preoccupied now with labor negotiations nearing a climax. If the new models being readied prove popular with the customers, the auto industry hopes for another big sales year ahead, which would be a record in itself on top of three good years in a row.

The railroads, trucks and barges will be moving a huge farm crop to the food processors and the consumer markets.

Many farming sections are badly hit by drought. And the summer has offered an overflowing quota of hot weather to damage some crops. In these areas farmers are suffering.

Farms Near Record

But for the nation as a whole the farm production this year will be at a near record. The Agriculture Department says that for 59 major crops the total will be 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This is below last year's record 112 per cent, but ahead of 1961 and 1962.

Retailers are counting on shoppers spending as freely as ever this fall — with a couple of additional bonuses. First, there will be more disposable income after taxes to spend. Second, many customers are expected to upgrade their purchases a bit, buying higher quality and more expensive goods.

All regions of the nation won't share in this prosperity, if it materializes on schedule, but enough should to make the final months of the year better than last — with the growth perhaps as impressive as in the record first half of the year.

Cattle to Take Primary Status At Dutchess Fair

Cattle, the center of farm exhibits since Colonial days, will occupy their traditional prominence at the 119th Dutchess County Fair at Rhinebeck, Aug. 25-30, and the 1964 show "looks like one of the best," according to Raymond G. Vail. He is first vice president of the Dutchess County Agricultural Society, co-general superintendent of its cattle department and a prominent Mid-Hudson dairyman and Holstein breeder.

The cattle show is one of the rural aspects of the fair which have been maintained as educational, commercial and industrial exhibits and entertainment for young and old have been expanded.

Vail pointed out today that the Dutchess Fair's blue ribbon stock often appear also in the winner's circle at the later New York State Exposition at Syracuse. "That," he said, "shows the type of cattle exhibited at Rhinebeck."

There will be outstanding Holstein, Guernsey, Jersey, Angus, Hereford and Ayrshire shows throughout the week, representing the top herds of the area. Hereford entries alone are expected to double those at the 1963 fair..

As an innovation this year, a milk house has been constructed to permit fairgoers to watch the modern handling of milk produced by the cows housed on the fairgrounds.

Another tradition, harness races, will feature the opening afternoon of the fair, starting at 1 p. m. Gates will open daily at 8 a. m.

Girl Caught in Flood Saved From River

WILLIMANTIC, Conn. (AP) — Mrs. Leo Racette watched in horror as her 9-year-old daughter, Rita, stepped from their stalled automobile and fell into swirling water that flooded the street.

Before anyone could help, Rita had been swept down a storm drain into a sewer. The onrushing rain waters carried her 75 feet underground and into the Willimantic River.

Three men saw the girl and two jumped in while the third held out a stick from the bank. Together they managed to get the child to land.

"God was good to us," said Rita's father Wednesday night after she was back safe and sound at their home in Springfield, Mass.

2 Lost in Woods Safe Following Electric Storm

SARANAC LAKE, N.Y. (AP) —A surgeon's wife and a 19-year-old Italian guest are safe after a thunder-punctuated night lost in the Adirondacks.

Dr. Alfred M. Decker of Saranac Lake found his wife, Janet, 40, and Umberto Merlo of Undine, Italy, Wednesday in the wilderness area west of Upper Saranac Lake.

The two had set out on a hike Tuesday afternoon from the Decker family camp on Long Pond. Dr. Decker discovered them missing when he returned to the camp from Saranac Lake that night.

State Police and volunteers joined the search but it was the surgeon who found them on top of one of the Adirondacks' lower mountains.

Troopers said Mrs. Decker and the youth were in good condition although a severe electrical storm battered the woods during the night.

Merlo is a student of architecture at the University of Venice. He lived with the Decker family two years ago, when he was an American Field Service Exchange student, and came back this summer to visit them.

Cooperative Finds How To Freeze Avocados

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Up to now gourmets were certain of one thing. Those buttery tasting avocados were fresh.

Not any longer. A big avocado cooperative says it has found a way to freeze them. And the flavor and texture remain the same.

Calavo, California's biggest avocado cooperative, announced Wednesday it will test market frozen avocados — wrapped in plastic bags — starting next month in New York, Chicago and Dallas.

Dear Abby . . .

Request For A Repeat

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I once read a letter in your column back in 1958 which I thought was so inspiring that I cut it out. It was signed "VERY POOR" and I wish you would print it again because I read it every day and it has helped me more than medicine. God bless you.

FAITHFUL READER

DEAR FAITHFUL: Thank heaven for a good filing system. Here it is:

"DEAR ABBY: Ive been reading the 'problems' sent to your column, and I hope you print this because it might do a lot of people some good. I'm in a charity hospital with arthritis, T.B., heart trouble, and I am gradually losing my eyesight. I'm only 38 but I can't remember being free from pain in 22 years. If I could wake up one morning feeling good again I wouldn't care if the neighbors' dogs barked, if their kids made noise, or even if my wife (if I had one) flirted with another man. What I am trying to say, Abby, is if a person can get up in the morning and go to work on his own two legs, he should get down on his knees and thank God, for, without health, you have nothing. Even if you are rich.

"VERY POOR"

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend and I both work and have had a joint account for a year. We've been going steady for two years and plan to get married as soon as we can afford it I'm 20 and he's 22. We're saving toward the things we'll need to set up housekeeping, at least that was the idea when we opened the account. My problem is that my boy friend wants to use the $1200 we have saved as a down payment on a sports car. He says it will be for both of us. He says he can get a real good deal on it, if he lets the guy know right away. I don't think he should buy it. He says if I loved him I wouldn't hesitate. I do love him, but I can't see us buying a sports car right now, but I can't put into words why. Can you help me?

HESITATING

DEAR HESITATING: I'll "put it into words" for you. "Look, Dear, our joint savings are to start a home. YOU may want a vine-covered sports car but I don't. Even though your happiness is important to me, our life together had better start off right or not at all." (P.S. If you're wise, you'll take a long, hard, second look at this fellow. He sounds immature and self-centered to me.)

• • • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MEEK AND MILD": Here is the quote you were searching for to illustrate how, after maturity, you achieved a better relationship with your father even though he neglected you during your boyhood.

"He drew a circle that shut me out—
Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout.
But Love and I had the wit to win:
We drew a circle that took him in."
(Edwin Markham)

Gabor Is Riled About Fire, Will Sue for $20,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I'm a Hungarian freedom fighter," shouted Zsa Zsa Gabor, "and I'm going to fight."

Looking beautifully ferocious, Zsa Zsa stormed the City Hall Wednesday.

Why, she demanded, had the city torn down her three chimneys and filled her Olympic-size swimming pool with sand?

"They didn't tell me about it," said Zsa Zsa. "I was in Europe."

The chimneys and pool were all that remained of her $1-million hilltop mansion in the plush Bel Air section of Los Angeles after a disastrous brush fire swept the area in 1961.

Claims Notice Given

The City Department of Building and Safety said it had given Zsa Zsa three orders since last February to have her property cleared. The pool and chimneys "endangered life and property," said the city.

"I have hired architect Paul Williams to design a new house for me," Zsa Zsa told the Building and Safety Commission. "We were going to use the chimneys and pool."

But the city, after granting the extensions, let a $2,780 contract to have the property cleared last Tuesday.

"They did it in two hours," said Zsa Zsa. "I wish I got paid $2,800 for two hours work."

She said the city owes her $20,000 and added that she was going to sue.

To Sue for $20,000

She was even mad at her lawyer, Paul Caruso, when he showed up late.

Later, she told newsmen: "I worked hard for what I have. I lost $1 million when that house burned, and it wasn't insured. I had paid the city $500,000 in taxes on that property, and not a single fireman showed up when it was burning. Not one.

"I'm not going to let them do this to me now — even if I have to start studying law to stop them.

"They're going to hear more of my Hungarian mind."

Bandit Saves Heart Victim by Giving Pill

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A bandit paused during a $100,000 robbery to give the victim a heart pill. Police said the pill may have saved Herbert Kronish's life.

Kronish felt a stab of pain as three gunmen confronted him and his wife in their Beverly Hills home Wednesday. He said he asked one of the men for help — and the man got the pill from a medicine cabinet and slipped it into Kronish's mouth.

The couple were left tied as the trio escaped with cash and jewelry including a $60,000 diamond ring, Kronish said. He is part owner of the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Deaths

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert K. Haas, 74, who in 1926 helped found the Book-of-the-Month Club and was its first president, died Wednesday.

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Kendall Foss, 60, managing editor of the weekly magazine Business International and a former foreign news correspondent, died Wednesday after a long illness.

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Hanford H. Closson, 63, associated general secretary of the division of national missions of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church since 1961, died Tuesday.

PARTNERS — The cowboys grow small in Montgomery, N.Y., and the horses grow big, but what of it? They get along famously. The candid shot was taken at the local fire department's horse show.

Compromise Bill On Voting Lines May Help Out Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders have worked out a compromise on a legislative reapportionment amendment and hope it clears the way for passage of the foreign aid authorization bill.

Action on the $3.3-billion foreign aid measure has been bogged down in dispute over the reapportionment issue, threatening to kill any chance for congressional adjournment before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 24 in Atlantic City.

Introduced by Dirksen

The compromise amendment was introduced Wednesday night by Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen with Democratic leader Mike Mansfield as a cosponsor. They hammered it out in cooperation with top Justice Department aides.

It provides for delaying court-ordered reapportionment of state legislative seats, to allow a reasonable opportunity for state action, "in the absence of highly unusual circumstances."

Would Delay 4 Years

The original amendment Dirksen announced he would offer as a rider to the foreign aid bill provided for delaying for as much as four years enforcement ing that both branches of a state of a recent Supreme Court ruling that both branches of a state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

Dirksen urged the delay to allow time for action on a constitutional amendment he and others have introduced to permit seats in one house of a state legislature to be apportioned on factors other than population.

'Dead' Bear Becomes Whirlwind After Shot

WARROAD, Minn. (AP) — Andy Streiff tells how to kill a bear: "Shoot him three times after he is dead. Then wait five minutes before you go up to him."

Streiff is recovering today from a recent encounter with a 250-pound bear. At 216 pounds, Streiff wasn't too badly outmatched except for the teeth and claws.

He came across the bear while on his truck route, picking up farmers' milk. He shot the animal and it went down and appeared lifeless.

But when Streiff approached, bruin became a black whirlwind. Streiff took him on in a wrestling match but was ripped across the stomach, had a mangled and broken left hand and a chewed leg before he managed to grab his rifle and kill the bear.

We drew a circle that took him in."

Gabor Is Riled About Fire, Will Sue for $20,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I'm a Hungarian freedom fighter," shouted Zsa Zsa Gabor, "and I'm going to fight."

Looking beautifully ferocious, Zsa Zsa stormed the City Hall Wednesday.

Why, she demanded, had the city torn down her three chimneys and filled her Olympic-size swimming pool with sand?

"They didn't tell me about it," said Zsa Zsa. "I was in Europe."

The chimneys and pool were all that remained of her $1-million hilltop mansion in the plush Bel Air section of Los Angeles after a disastrous brush fire swept the area in 1961.

Claims Notice Given

The City Department of Building and Safety said it had given Zsa Zsa three orders since last February to have her property cleared. The pool and chimneys "endangered life and property," said the city.

"I have hired architect Paul Williams to design a new house for me," Zsa Zsa told the Building and Safety Commission. "We were going to use the chimneys and pool."

But the city, after granting the extensions, let a $2,780 contract to have the property cleared last Tuesday.

"They did it in two hours," said Zsa Zsa. "I wish I got paid $2,800 for two hours work."

She said the city owes her $20,000 and added that she was going to sue.

To Sue for $20,000

She was even mad at her lawyer, Paul Caruso, when he showed up late.

Later, she told newsmen: "I worked hard for what I have. I lost $1 million when that house burned, and it wasn't insured. I had paid the city $500,000 in taxes on that property, and not a single fireman showed up when it was burning. Not one.

"I'm not going to let them do this to me now — even if I have to start studying law to stop them.

"They're going to hear more of my Hungarian mind."

Bandit Saves Heart Victim by Giving Pill

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A bandit paused during a $100,000 robbery to give the victim a heart pill. Police said the pill may have saved Herbert Kronish's life.

Kronish felt a stab of pain as three gunmen confronted him and his wife in their Beverly Hills home Wednesday. He said he asked one of the men for help — and the man got the pill from a medicine cabinet and slipped it into Kronish's mouth.

The couple were left tied as the trio escaped with cash and jewelry including a $60,000 diamond ring, Kronish said. He is part owner of the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Deaths

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert K. Haas, 74, who in 1926 helped found the Book-of-the-Month Club and was its first president, died Wednesday.

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Kendall Foss, 60, managing editor of the weekly magazine Business International and a former foreign news correspondent, died Wednesday after a long illness.

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Hanford H. Closson, 63, associated general secretary of the division of national missions of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church since 1961, died Tuesday.

PARTNERS — The cowboys grow small in Montgomery, N.Y., and the horses grow big, but what of it? They get along famously. The candid shot was taken at the local fire department's horse show.

Compromise Bill On Voting Lines May Help Out Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders have worked out a compromise on a legislative reapportionment amendment and hope it clears the way for passage of the foreign aid authorization bill.

Action on the $3.3-billion foreign aid measure has been bogged down in dispute over the reapportionment issue, threatening to kill any chance for congressional adjournment before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 24 in Atlantic City.

Introduced by Dirksen

The compromise amendment was introduced Wednesday night by Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen with Democratic leader Mike Mansfield as a cosponsor. They hammered it out in cooperation with top Justice Department aides.

It provides for delaying court-ordered reapportionment of state legislative seats, to allow a reasonable opportunity for state action, "in the absence of highly unusual circumstances."

Would Delay 4 Years

The original amendment Dirksen announced he would offer as a rider to the foreign aid bill provided for delaying for as much as four years enforcement ing that both branches of a state of a recent Supreme Court ruling that both branches of a state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

Dirksen urged the delay to allow time for action on a constitutional amendment he and others have introduced to permit seats in one house of a state legislature to be apportioned on factors other than population.

'Dead' Bear Becomes Whirlwind After Shot

WARROAD, Minn. (AP) — Andy Streiff tells how to kill a bear: "Shoot him three times after he is dead. Then wait five minutes before you go up to him."

Streiff is recovering today from a recent encounter with a 250-pound bear. At 216 pounds, Streiff wasn't too badly outmatched except for the teeth and claws.

He came across the bear while on his truck route, picking up farmers' milk. He shot the animal and it went down and appeared lifeless.

But when Streiff approached, bruin became a black whirlwind. Streiff took him on in a wrestling match but was ripped across the stomach, had a mangled and broken left hand and a chewed leg before he managed to grab his rifle and kill the bear.

LBJ Tells Bar Association on Rights:

Can't Let U.S. Become Jungle Where Weak Are Preyed Upon

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson told the American Bar Association Wednesday he will enforce the civil rights law and citizens must observe it—regardless of demonstrations in the streets and violence in the night.

In a city where racial disorder erupted recently in Harlem and Brooklyn, Johnson pledged that:

"We will not permit any part of America to become a jungle, where the weak are the prey of the strong and the many."

While speaking of maintaining law and order among American citizens, Johnson also stressed in his prepared address that "we work for peaceful process among nations," and for the defense of freedom "because it was right that we should."

But he beckoned to America's allies to lend a strengthened hand and he upheld the administration's over-all policy in Viet Nam — a policy that has drawn the fire of Sen. Barry Goldwater, Republican presidential nominee.

Johnson took advantage of the forum the lawyers offered to restate principles and policies guiding the administration with respect to both Viet Nam and Cyprus.

It is our duty to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to which Greece and Turkey belong, the President said, to help prevent its disruption by a war in Cyprus.

Must Look for Peace

He said it also is our duty to help avoid large-scale loss of life among Cypriots and to uphold the principle of peaceful settlement of disputes.

In South Viet Nam, through three administrations, Johnson said, the United States has had one consistent aim — the observance of 1954 agreements guaranteeing the nation's independence.

"That independence," he said, "has been the consistent target of aggression and terror."

For 10 years, he said, our response to these attacks has followed a consistent pattern in which the Vietnamese bear basic responsibility for defending their own freedom and this country is committed to using its power to the extent needed to repel aggression.

Without mentioning names, the President said, "There are those who would have us depart from these tested principles" and those who would have us withdraw from the conflict. He said others are "eager to enlarge the conflict with reckless action which might risk the lives of millions, engulf much of Asia and threaten the peace of the world."

"The course we have chosen will require wisdom and endurance," Johnson said. "But let no doubt we have the resources and the will to follow this course as long as it may take."

Racial Problem

Turning to the racial problem at home, Johnson said:

"No person whatever his grievance can be allowed to attack the right of every American to be secure in his home, his shop and in his streets."

After saying no part of America will be allowed to become a jungle by reason of the strong preying on the weak, Johnson added:

"Such acts must be stopped and punished — whether they occur in Mississippi or in New York."

Under the Constitution, he said, local authority has the main responsibility for civil peace — "There is no place in our federal system for a national police force."

"But where help is needed or federal law is violated, we shall be there," the President pledged.

He said Congress has passed "a compassionate and comprehensive civil rights law" with the support of more than two-thirds of the members of both parties

"The President has signed it —and will enforce it," Johnson said. "Citizens must observe it. Neither demonstrations in the streets nor violence in the night can or will restrain us from seeing to it that laws rightly passed will be justly observed."

Samuel Langley, U.S. astronomer, physicist and aviation pioneer, made a steam-driven airplane which flew a distance of 4,200 feet over the Potomac river in 1896. It carried no pilot nor was it provided with any means of safely leaving the ground or safely alighting. Langley was the first to offer a clear explanation, backed by experiment, of the manner in which birds are able to soar without appreciable motion of their wings.

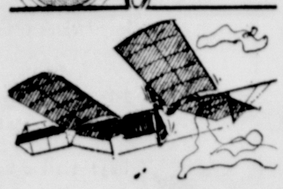
matter of Fact



Samuel Langley, U.S. astronomer, physicist and aviation pioneer, made a steam-driven airplane which flew a distance of 4,200 feet over the Potomac river in 1896. It carried no pilot nor was it provided with any means of safely leaving the ground or safely alighting. Langley was the first to offer a clear explanation, backed by experiment, of the manner in which birds are able to soar without appreciable motion of their wings.

SS Integrity Cleared

Agent Apologizes After Conviction In Bribery Case

CHICAGO (AP) — U.S. Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan has hailed the conviction of Secret Service Agent Abraham Bolden as clearing the integrity of the U.S. Secret Service.

Gets Six Years

Bolden, the first Negro ever assigned to guard a U.S. president, was convicted and sentenced to six years in prison Wednesday for trying to sell government evidence in a counterfeiting case for $50,000.

He had charged that the government framed him because he planned to tell the Warren Commission about laxity and drunkenness among Secret Service agents assigned to guard President Kennedy in 1961.

"The verdict completely rejects the outrageous charges made by the defendant and confirms the public's belief in the absolute integrity of the U.S. Secret Service," Hanrahan told newsmen.

He said it was to Bolden's credit that he "apologized for the charges he made against the Secret Service and the government in general."

Bolden, 29, made his apology in a tearful plea for mercy after his conviction was announced and before sentencing in U.S. District Court by Judge Joseph Sam Perry.

Bolden wiped tears from his eyes as he stood before Judge Perry.

His Second Trial

Judge Perry then sentenced Bolden to 6 years. He could have sentenced him to 25 years in prison and fined him $15,000 plus three times the amount of the $50,000 payment sought, a total of $165,000.

It was the second trial for Bolden, with the first ending in a hung jury.

He was convicted on three counts of attempted sale of Secret Service documents, obstruction of justice and conspiracy. He was found guilty of trying to sell a government file on May 12 to Joseph Spagnoli, alleged head of a counterfeiting ring.

Bolden joined the Secret Service in 1960. He was assigned to the White House guard in Hyannis Port, Mass., during June and July 1961.

Earns Air Medal For Army Service In Viet Nam Post

Army Capt. Randolf H. Kahl-Winter, 35, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kahl-Winter, 187 Canal Street, Ellenville, received the Air Medal during ceremonies in Vietnam, July 29 while assigned to the U. S. Support Command.

Captain Kahl-Winter received the award for meritorious achievement while engaged in aerial combat support of ground forces of the Republic of Vietnam.

The captain entered the Army in 1946 and was stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., before arriving overseas on this tour of duty last January.

He was graduated in 1946 from Ellenville High School.

Woman Donates Bird Sanctuary To Paltz Society

The first bird sanctuary known to exist in this area has been donated to the New Paltz Historical Society by Miss Annette I. Young of Poughkeepsie.

The new sanctuary is a four-acre piece of marsh land five miles south of New Paltz near the Hasbrouck Mansion on Route 32.

It is adjacent to the historical property along the Plattekill Brook, runs south along the DeWitt property to the Jenkinstown Road and is bounded on the east by Miss Young's land.

The area is being studied by the Agricultural Conservation Department of Kingston as to the advisability of building a Wildlife Pond on the land. This would attract a greater variety of birds during the nesting season and benefit migrating birds.

During the past few years, Mrs. Erma DeWitt, who is interested in ornithology, has made a survey of the area and has found that there are more than 28 different species of birds nesting in the vicinity.

Nicholas Sinacori, district engineer of the State Department of Public Works, was to conduct the hearing.

The state plans 52-foot wide road on new location, cutting through the rock cliff at the west end of the bridge and linking into Route 9W with a trumpet interchange about 1,400 feet south of the bridge circle.

Agent Apologizes After Conviction In Bribery Case

CHICAGO (AP) — U.S. Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan has hailed the conviction of Secret Service Agent Abraham Bolden as clearing the integrity of the U.S. Secret Service.

Gets Six Years

Bolden, the first Negro ever assigned to guard a U.S. president, was convicted and sentenced to six years in prison Wednesday for trying to sell government evidence in a counterfeiting case for $50,000.

He had charged that the government framed him because he planned to tell the Warren Commission about laxity and drunkenness among Secret Service agents assigned to guard President Kennedy in 1961.

Decision Upheld Dismissing Libel Suit Against AP

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld a federal court order dismissing the $2-million libel suit filed in Mississippi by former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker against The Associated Press.

The court affirmed Tuesday the decision of the District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi, quashing the service of process and dismissing the complaint alleging libel on the ground that the AP is a non-resident corporation that does not do business in Mississippi.

Cited Riot Dispatches

Walker had alleged he was libeled by dispatches filed during the riots that erupted when Negro James Meredith enrolled in the University of Mississippi at Oxford two years ago.

Walker appealed the lower-court decision. The appeals court cited the fact that The Associated Press "is a mutual co-operative and non-profit association, formed to gather collect and interchange with its members news and intelligence which, under the terms of its charter, it can neither sell nor traffic in such news items, but distributes them only to its members. The cost of these services are apportioned among the members in the form of assessments."

Noted Other Cases

The appeals court noted previous cases in which various firms, including the Memphis Publishing Co., had been declared as not doing business in Mississippi although their activities were wider in scope than those of the AP.

The court decision said "it may well be" the policy of Mississippi to require a "much stronger showing of the doing of business" within that state by an outside newspaper such as the Memphis Commercial Appeal or a nonresident news service such as the AP. "We think there is a reason for such a distinction," said the court, "because of the inherent danger or threat to the free exercise of the right of freedom of the press if jurisdiction in every state can be inferred from minimal contacts."

Elizabeth Egan Is Named Hurley PM

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Johnson sent these postmaster nominations to the Senate Thursday:

New York — Joseph D. Zint, Highland Falls; Elizabeth Egan, Hurley; Robert H. Spickerman, Middleburg; Louis J. Picarazzi, Selkirk; Charles L. France, Sharon Springs; Thomas B. O'Driscoll, Theresa.

Dad of Four Slain

NEW YORK (AP) — A 31-year-old father of four was found shot to death in his wife's station wagon last night.

The car was parked in a warehouse area of Brooklyn's Bushwick section when a patrolman came upon the body of Joseph Del Vercario slumped across the front seat.

Money was found on the victim and robbery apparently was not a motive police said.

Hunter Street Teener To See Jury on Break

Preston Coddington Jr., 16, of 109 Hunter Street, one of two teenagers, who police said, were caught in an Aug. 7 burglary at Worf's Restaurant, 97 Abeel Street, waived preliminary city court hearing today and was held for grand jury action.

Coddington and a 15-year-old boy, police said, were caught in the restaurant by officers George Barringer and Leon Fitzgerald, after police headquarters was notified of an apparent burglary in progress there. It was charged that $11.50 had been taken from a register and filing cabinet.

The younger boy was returned to Mamaroneck, where he had been in family court custody.

Attorney Richard W. Griggs appeared with Coddington in court today.

To Launch Syncom Next Tuesday for Olympic Coverage

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Plans have been made to use the Syncom 3 communications satellite for transmission of Olympic television pictures from Japan to the United States.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration plans to launch the complex satellite at 6:45 a.m. next Tuesday.

Syncom 3 is to execute maneuvers requiring about 12 days to settle into a stationary orbit 22,300 miles above the Pacific Ocean intersection of the equator and the International Date Line.

U.S. and Japanese interests plan to spend about $600,000 to televise the Oct. 10-24 Olympic Games in Tokyo to the United States, if Syncom 3 is successful.

Union Center Man Hurt Today at Mt. Marion Tracks

An Ulster Park man was injured this morning when a tractor-trailer dump truck he was driving was struck by a 41-car freight train at a railroad crossing two miles south of Saugerties near Mt. Marion.

Frederick B. Harris, 41 of Union Center Road, Ulster Park, was taken to Benedictine Hospital where he was treated for cuts of the right cheek and released.

State Police at Lake Katrine substation said Harris was driving north on County Road 33 making a right turn across the railroad tracks when the rig was struck by the northbound N. Y. Central freight. The collision destroyed the rear duals of the truck's trailer which was owned by the A and P Equipment Supply Corporation, of Morton Boulevard, Kingston.

The freight train engine was operated by engineer Clark Bonesteel, 57, of Port Ewen. He was not injured, but there was damage to one one of the four engines hauling the freight cars, due to an air failure.

The accident occurred about 8:55 a. m. near the Hudson Valley Lightweight Aggregate Corp.

Trooper W. E. Wiedemann and Investigator Joseph Ventrigilia investigated.

Peking Starts 'Maneuvers' in View of Crisis

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China announced today it is conducting "large - scale military maneuvers" in provinces facing North Viet Nam and Nationalist China.

Peking Radio, in a Japanese language broadcast monitored in Tokyo, left no doubt the exercises were connected with the Gulf of Tonkin crisis and the U.S. air strike at North Viet Nam Aug. 5.

The broadcast noted that the announcement was being issued almost "immediately after (Communist) China would stand beside North Viet Nam in repulsing any aggressor."

Chen Yi's pledge was made in a letter sent to Communist Vietnamese Foreign Minister Xuan Thuy and broadcast by Peking's New China news agency Wednesday.

Peking Radio said "thousands of men in high spirits underwent such military drills as shooting, throwing grenades, handling of explosives and crossing rivers" in Kwantung and Fukien provinces and Luichow Peninsula.

A section of Kwantung borders the northeastern corner of Communist Viet Nam. Fukien Province is directly opposite Formosa, and Luichow Peninsula faces Communist-held Hainan Island.

High Point Tower Reports Quiet In Fire Sector

"Things are very good — everything is quiet at the moment."

That was the report to The Freeman shortly before 1 p. m. today from an observer at the High Point tower, High Point Mountain, on conditions in the Shawangunk Mountains where a forest fire blackened about 1,100 acres since Saturday.

The observer said, "We have a couple of hot spots, but no fire has broken out as yet." He reported a bulldozer is working to establish a fire line around the area, which is not separated by roads to prevent further outbreak of fire.

Conservation Department ground crews remain on the job, carefully scanning the area where the fire kept scores of fire companies, forest rangers and civilian volunteers busy battling the fire more than four days.

The Shawangunk Mountain fire is reported to be "completely under control" at this hour.

Italian President Is Improving, Doctors Report

ROME (AP) — The condition of Italian President Antonio Segni continued to improve today.

Doctors said the 73-year-old chief of state, stricken last Friday with a cerebral stroke, had rested the entire night without needing oxygen.

"The improvement of his general condition persists, and his senses are clearly more alert," the doctors added in a medical bulletin.

Segni was partially paralyzed by the stroke.

A fire that started in an oil burner on a New Haven Railroad diesel engine hauling a 70-car car freight train near the Hudson River railroad bridge at Highland, was extinguished by firemen from that community Wednesday afternoon. It was reported the firefighters checked the flames before they ignited 1,400-gallon fuel tank cars on the train.

Freedom Dream Just Nightmare For 4 Inmates

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — Four convicts nursed calloused hands and shattered dreams of freedom today in the Indiana State Prison.

They sat in solitary confinement while guards sealed a tunnel the inmates had worked more than a half-year to build.

Warden Ward Lane said the four apparently worked quietly on weekends, trying to chisel a tunnel through an eight-foot section of the outside wall with tools stolen from the prison machine shop.

He said he heard of a planned escape several weeks ago, but had hoped to catch the four at work. When guards found the tunnel's exact location, Lane decided to act.

"It would have taken them years to escape at the rate they were going," he said. Officials estimated the four began digging the tunnel six to eight months ago.

Ward identified the four as Thomas McMeans, 27, and Frank Black, 32, both of Richmond, Ind.; George Clark, 34, Muncie, Ind., and James Scott, 32, Glasford, Ill.

Lane said they would appear before an institutional court.

Citizens Protest Removal of Trees In W'dstock Area

Residents of the VanDeBogart Road area in Woodstock staged a physical protest this morning to the cutting down of trees and removal of old stone fences to make way for a housing development.

A spokesman for the group said town equipment was being used to widen a road leading to the development and at least a half dozen trees have been razed in the process. He said the area involved was in a huge development being built by Ulster Homes Inc.

Among the protesting groups was a number of women who reportedly stood in front of the trees to defy workmen. A Zena Road resident who was among those who owned property in the area, said the work was destroying the rustic beauty in the countryside for which Woodstock was famous.

He said one of the trees which was cut down had been valued by the Tree Trust of Woodstock at $2,000. Tree Trust is a town organization which seeks to maintain and preserve trees in an effort to retain the scenic and artistic value of the area.

One observer described the area after the razing of the trees as "a dust bowl from Long Island." He said he was referring to his former residence, and that "if I wanted to be away from beautiful trees and countryside, I would have moved back to Long Island."

Supervisor Abram Molyneaux of Woodstock could not be reached for comment at the time, but he reportedly was at the scene where the protests were staged. Albert Cashdollar, town highway superintendent and a spokesman for Ulster Homes also could not be reached.

African Zealot Lays Down Arms

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesa (AP) — Alice Lenshina, surrendered leader of a rampaging African religious sect, broadcast an appeal to her followers Wednesday night to lay down their spears. She said the government has guaranteed her safety.

During the last several weeks, her fanatical followers have been charging government troops. Nearly 500 lives were lost in the battles and the government ordered her brought in dead or alive. Two days ago she surrendered.

In her broadcast, she told her followers to announce their surrender by putting large white circles outside their villages.

"The government and I," she said, "want to settle our troubles peacefully."

Vermont Awaits Ladybird

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)— Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will visit Burlington for a few hours next Thursday evening.

Gov. Philip H. Hoff and the White House announced Wednesday the first lady will arrive at Burlington Municipal Airport at 5:15 p.m.

A public reception will be held for her at the University of Vermont.

Rejection Seen For 18 Orbits Of First Gemini

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A recommendation for 18 orbits instead of three for the first manned Gemini flight has apparently been turned down.

Charles W. Mathews, Gemini program director, said a proposal for 18 orbits had been discussed but plans were proceeding with three trips around the globe by two astronauts.

The recommendation was accompanied with nine reasons why a longer flight was needed. Most dealt with astronaut safety.

A Manned Spacecraft Center spokesman said it was assumed the proposal had been rejected, although Mathews didn't specifically say so.

"The proposal was discussed and the original plan of three orbits still is in effect. I assume the recommendation was rejected," said the spokesman.

The proposal was reportedly made by a high official at the space center. He said a longer first flight was needed to check out spacecraft systems in space because they would be untried in later flights of longer duration.

The space capsule for the first manned mission in December has a maximum capability of 18 orbits.

SS Agents Arrest West Coast Man With Bogus Bills

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Secret Service has $744,000 in crisp new bills — all counterfeit.

The bundled bills were found Wednesday in a Hartford warehouse where the Secret Service said Stanley Frederick Withe Jr. had been storing them in two foot lockers.

Withe, arrested on counterfeiting charges Tuesday at his home in Berkeley, Calif., printed almost $1 million in bogus $10 and $20 bills last year while operating a job printing business in Unionville, Conn., the Secret Service said.

He moved to California with his wife and two children earlier this year after his shop went into bankruptcy and its equipment was sold at auction.

At least $12,000 in counterfeit bills were found when Withe was arrested, agents said, and another $500 had been passed in the last two weeks in the San Francisco area.

Special Agent Robert R. Hastings said the counterfeiting job was "not too hot," but the bills were passable.

GM Units Told To Take Strike Vote by Aug. 31

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union has ordered all its General Motors Corp. units to take strike votes before the end of the month.

Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice president and director of the union's GM department, ordered the vote Wednesday night.

A telegram to all local units said:

"As of today, Aug. 12, General Motors Corp. has made no movement at the national level. It has not indicated any date at which the union may expect counter-proposals. In view of the shortness of time remaining, it is essential that all local unions and units schedule strike votes to be completed prior to Aug. 31."

The UAW contracts with GM, Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. expire Aug. 31.

Meanwhile, top-level negotiations resumed today between contract bargainers for Chrysler and the UAW.

Non - economic issues were mulled over Wednesday by subcommittees for both sides.

In other talks Wednesday, the UAW renewed its bid to persuade General Motors to cut down on the amount of work which is farmed out to smaller companies. The union wants this work to be handled by GM workers.

Discussions at Ford centered on production standards.

Johnson Signs Highway Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed a $2.4-billion highway bill today and said it will help do justice to a stepchild in society, the American motorist.

The bill authorizes a two-year federal highway construction program, mainly for primary and secondary roads and not including the super-highways, starting in the 1966 fiscal year.

"For much too long," Johnson said, "the man who owns and drives an automobile has been treated like a stepchild. We require him to pay for the highways he uses and we require him to pay in advance. We divert his taxes to other uses but we delay the building of the roads that he deserves.

"I hope and I believe that our attitudes are changing."

The bill - signing ceremony took place in the White House Cabinet room with the secretaries of interior, agriculture and commerce on hand along with 30 or 40 members of the Senate and House.

Construction of the multibillion-dollar 41,000-mile interstate highway system is already covered by the Federal Highway Act of 1961. That act authorizes $2.8 billion for the program in the 1966 fiscal year and $2.9 billion in the 1967 fiscal year.

The bill signed by the President today authorizes funds for primary and secondary projects for fiscal 1966 and 1967.

Under the primary and secondary system, the federal government pays 45 per cent of the cost of projects on the primary highways, 30 per cent on secondary highways and 25 per cent on extensions in urban areas.

The federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of the interstate highway system.

Ontario Favors RFK for Senate

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Forces of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy cracked the home territory of Rep. Samuel S. Stratton today in the undeclared contest for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator.

The Ontario County Democratic organization announced it favored Kennedy.

The county is one of eight in the 35th Congressional District, Stratton's base.

The attorney general now has announced support, in an unofficial tabulation, of party leaders in counties that will cast 567 votes at the convention Sept. 1 in New York City. He has sufficient unannounced support to give him more than the 573 votes needed for nomination.

Kennedy has not yet declared his candidacy. Neither has Stratton. But both are known to be interested in the nomination.

John Fabrizi, Ontario County chairman, said his delegation's five votes would not be committed formally to Kennedy until he declared his candidacy, meaning that the attorney general can have them if he wants them.

New York Men Demand Hearing on Car Charge

Two New York City men, arrested early today by State Police on a second-degree grand larceny charge in connection with a car theft, demanded a preliminary hearing later at their appearance before Peace Justice John O. Beaver, Town of Esopus.

They were Raymond Gonzales, 30, who gave 241 Salltivian Street, Manhattan, as his address, and William Macey, 28, of 160 Bleecker Street, New York City. Both men were remanded to the Ulster County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bail each, for a hearing Aug. 20.

Judge Beaver also suspended imposition of a $50 fine when Macey admitted a charge of being an unlicensed driver. Troopers Wallace Mahan and John Ostermark of the Highland substation, arrested the pair about two this morning in a patrol check on Route 9W, Town of Esopus. They said a teletype message said the car Gonzales and Macey were in was reported stolen earlier.

No Agreement

There is no general agreement as to the whereabouts of Vinland, the region supposedly discovered by Leif Ericson. Some scholars place it no further south than Labrador, others were sure it was Chaleur Bay or somewhere on the coast of Nova Scotia, Maine or Boston Harbor.

UAR Urges End Of West Plan

GENEVA (AP) — The United Arab Republic called today for a halt in the plannning for a proposed Western multilateral nuclear force.

It was the first time a nonaligned delegation to the 17-nation disarmament conference has submitted a formal proposal directly affecting the controversial project. The proposal was made by UAR Ambassador Abdel Fattah Hassan.

Hassan suggested the two nuclear super-powers—the United State and the Soviet Union—open technical discussions on whether the proposed force would constitute a dissemination of atomic arms. The Soviet Union maintains that it would be and that the proposed force is designed chiefly to put nuclear weapons into the hands of the West Germans.

Britain also has reservations about the American - sponsored project.

U.S. Ambassador Clare H. Timberlake and Italian delegate Francisco Cavalletti said they would study the proposal. Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin said the proposal was "worthy of the closest attention."

Timberlake assured the conference the United States will take no action inconsistent with resolutions by the U.N. Assembly and the Organization for African Unity against the dissemination of nuclear weapons.

"That is the declared policy of the United States," he added.

Tsarapkin, who was the last speaker, repeated the Soviet arguments against the multilateral force and said that his government, while seeking to improve relations with West Germany continues to oppose any arrangement providing that country access to nuclear arms.

Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Alice Schuler, who passed away one year ago August 13, 1963.

We never knew when we awoke
The sorrow the day would bring
The call was sudden, the shock severe
We little thought such grief was near
To a beautiful life came a sudden end
She died as she lived everyone's friend
Thank you dear God, for our dear mom
For she was of the best
And the joy she missed in life
May she find in God's Garden of rest.

Decision Upheld Dismissing Libel Suit Against AP

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld a federal court order dismissing the $2-million libel suit filed in Mississippi by former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker against The Associated Press.

The court affirmed Tuesday the decision of the District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi, quashing the service of process and dismissing the complaint alleging libel on the ground that the AP is a non-resident corporation that does not do business in Mississippi.

Cited Riot Dispatches

Walker had alleged he was libeled by dispatches filed during the riots that erupted when Negro James Meredith enrolled in the University of Mississippi at Oxford two years ago.

Walker appealed the lower-court decision. The appeals court cited the fact that The Associated Press "is a mutual cooperative and non-profit association, formed to gather collect and interchange with its members news and intelligence which, under the terms of its charter, it can neither sell nor traffic in such news items, but distributes them only to its members. The cost of these services are apportioned among the members in the form of assessments."

Noted Other Cases

The appeals court noted previous cases in which various firms, including the Memphis Publishing Co., had been declared as not doing business in Mississippi although their activities were wider in scope than those of the AP.

The court decision said "it may well be" the policy of Mississippi to require a "much stronger showing of the doing of business" within that state by an outside newspaper such as the Memphis Commercial Appeal or a nonresident news service such as the AP. "We think there is a reason for such a distinction," said the court, "because of the inherent danger or threat to the free exercise of the right of freedom of the press if jurisdiction in every state can be inferred from minimal contacts."

Elizabeth Egan Is Named Hurley PM

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Johnson sent these postmaster nominations to the Senate Thursday:

New York — Joseph D. Zint, Highland Falls; Elizabeth Egan, Hurley; Robert H. Spickerman, Middleburg; Louis J. Picarazzi, Selkirk; Charles L. France, Sharon Springs; Thomas B. O'Driscoll, Theresa.

Dad of Four Slain

NEW YORK (AP) — A 31-year-old father of four was found shot to death in his wife's station wagon last night.

The car was parked in a warehouse area of Brooklyn's Bushwick section when a patrolman came upon the body of Joseph Del Vercario slumped across the front seat.

Money was found on the victim and robbery apparently was not a motive police said.

Hunter Street Teener To See Jury on Break

Preston Coddington Jr., 16, of 109 Hunter Street, one of two teenagers, who police said, were caught in an Aug. 7 burglary at Worf's Restaurant, 97 Abeel Street, waived preliminary city court hearing today and was held for grand jury action.

Coddington and a 15-year-old boy, police said, were caught in the restaurant by officers George Barringer and Leon Fitzgerald, after police headquarters was notified of an apparent burglary in progress there. It was charged that $11.50 had been taken from a register and filing cabinet.

The younger boy was returned to Mamaroneck, where he had been in family court custody.

Attorney Richard W. Griggs appeared with Coddington in court today.

ToLaunchSyncom Next Tuesday for Olympic Coverage

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Plans have been made to use the Syncom 3 communications satellite for transmission of Olympic television pictures from Japan to the United States.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration plans to launch the complex satellite at 6:45 a.m. next Tuesday.

Syncom 3 is to execute maneuvers requiring about 12 days to settle into a stationary orbit 22,300 miles above the Pacific Ocean intersection of the equator and the International Date Line.

U.S. and Japanese interests plan to spend about $600,000 to televise the Oct. 10-24 Olympic Games in Tokyo to the United States, if Syncom 3 is successful.

Union Center Man Hurt Today at Mt. Marion Tracks

An Ulster Park man was injured this morning when a tractor-trailer dump truck he was driving was struck by a 41-car freight train at a railroad crossing two miles south of Saugerties near Mt. Marion.

Frederick B. Harris, 41 of Union Center Road, Ulster Park, was taken to Benedictine Hospital where he was treated for cuts of the right cheek and released.

State Police at Lake Katrine substation said Harris was driving north on County Road 33 making a right turn across the railroad tracks when the rig was struck by the northbound N. Y. Central freight. The collision destroyed the rear duals of the truck's trailer which was owned by the A and P Equipment Supply Corporation, of Morton Boulevard, Kingston.

The freight train engine was operated by engineer Clark Bonesteel, 57, of Port Ewen. He was not injured, but there was damage to one one of the four engines hauling the freight cars, due to an air failure.

The accident occurred about 8:55 a. m. near the Hudson Valley Lightweight Aggregate Corp.

Trooper W. E. Wiedemann and Investigator Joseph Ventrigilia investigated.

Peking Starts 'Maneuvers' in View of Crisis

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China announced today it is conducting "large - scale military maneuvers" in provinces facing North Viet Nam and Nationalist China.

Peking Radio, in a Japanese language broadcast monitored in Tokyo, left no doubt the exercises were connected with the Gulf of Tonkin crisis and the U.S. air strike at North Viet Nam Aug. 5.

The broadcast noted that the announcement was being issued almost "immediately after (Communist) China would stand beside North Viet Nam in repulsing any aggressor."

Chen Yi's pledge was made in a letter sent to Communist Vietnamese Foreign Minister Xuan Thuy and broadcast by Peking's New China news agency Wednesday.

Peking Radio said "thousands of men in high spirits underwent such military drills as shooting, throwing grenades, handling of explosives and crossing rivers" in Kwantung and Fukien provinces and Luichow Peninsula.

A section of Kwantung borders the northeastern corner of Communist Viet Nam. Fukien Province is directly opposite Formosa, and Luichow Peninsula faces Communist-held Hainan Island.

High Point Tower Reports Quiet In Fire Sector

"Things are very good — everything is quiet at the moment."

That was the report to The Freeman shortly before 1 p. m. today from an observer at the High Point tower, High Point Mountain, on conditions in the Shawangunk Mountains where a forest fire blackened about 1,100 acres since Saturday.

The observer said, "We have a couple of hot spots, but no fire has broken out as yet." He reported a bulldozer is working to establish a fire line around the area, which is not separated by roads to prevent further outbreak of fire.

Conservation Department ground crews remain on the job, carefully scanning the area where the fire kept scores of fire companies, forest rangers and civilian volunteers busy battling the fire more than four days.

The Shawangunk Mountain fire is reported to be "completely under control" at this hour.

Italian President Is Improving, Doctors Report

ROME (AP) — The condition of Italian President Antonio Segni continued to improve today.

Doctors said the 73-year-old chief of state, stricken last Friday with a cerebral stroke, had rested the entire night without needing oxygen.

"The improvement of his general condition persists, and his senses are clearly more alert," the doctors added in a medical bulletin.

Segni was partially paralyzed by the stroke.

Freedom Dream Just Nightmare For 4 Inmates

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — Four convicts nursed calloused hands and shattered dreams of freedom today in the Indiana State Prison.

They sat in solitary confinement while guards sealed a tunnel the inmates had worked more than a half-year to build.

Warden Ward Lane said the four apparently worked quietly on weekends, trying to chisel a tunnel through an eight-foot section of the outside wall with tools stolen from the prison machine shop.

He said he heard of a planned escape several weeks ago, but had hoped to catch the four at work. When guards found the tunnel's exact location, Lane decided to act.

"It would have taken them years to escape at the rate they were going," he said. Officials estimated the four began digging the tunnel six to eight months ago.

Ward identified the four as Thomas McMeans, 27, and Frank Black, 32, both of Richmond, Ind.; George Clark, 34, Muncie, Ind., and James Scott, 32, Glasford, Ill.

Lane said they would appear before an institutional court.

Citizens Protest Removal of Trees In W'dstock Area

Residents of the VanDeBogart Road area in Woodstock staged a physical protest this morning to the cutting down of trees and removal of old stone fences to make way for a housing development.

A spokesman for the group said town equipment was being used to widen a road leading to the development and at least a half dozen trees have been razed in the process. He said the area involved was in a huge development being built by Ulster Homes Inc.

Among the protesting groups was a number of women who reportedly stood in front of the trees to defy workmen. A Zena Road resident who was among those who owned property in the area, said the work was destroying the rustic beauty in the countryside for which Woodstock was famous.

He said one of the trees which was cut down had been valued by the Tree Trust of Woodstock at $2,000. Tree Trust is a town organization which seeks to maintain and preserve trees in an effort to retain the scenic and artistic value of the area.

One observer described the area after the razing of the trees as "a dust bowl from Long Island." He said he was referring to his former residence, and that "if I wanted to be away from beautiful trees and countryside, I would have moved back to Long Island."

Supervisor Abram Molyneaux of Woodstock could not be reached for comment at the time, but he reportedly was at the scene where the protests were staged. Albert Cashdollar, town highway superintendent and a spokesman for Ulster Homes also could not be reached.

African Zealot Lays Down Arms

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesa (AP) — Alice Lenshina, surrendered leader of a rampaging African religious sect, broadcast an appeal to her followers Wednesday night to lay down their spears. She said the government has guaranteed her safety.

During the last several weeks, her fanatical followers have been charging government troops. Nearly 500 lives were lost in the battles and the government ordered her brought in dead or alive. Two days ago she surrendered.

In her broadcast, she told her followers to announce their surrender by putting large white circles outside their villages.

"The government and I," she said, "want to settle our troubles peacefully."

A public reception will be held for her at the University of Vermont.

Rejection Seen For 18 Orbits Of First Gemini

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A recommendation for 18 orbits instead of three for the first manned Gemini flight has apparently been turned down.

Charles W. Mathews, Gemini program director, said a proposal for 18 orbits had been discussed but plans were proceeding with three trips around the globe by two astronauts.

The recommendation was accompanied with nine reasons why a longer flight was needed. Most dealt with astronaut safety.

A Manned Spacecraft Center spokesman said it was assumed the proposal had been rejected, although Mathews didn't specifically say so.

"The proposal was discussed and the original plan of three orbits still is in effect. I assume the recommendation was rejected," said the spokesman.

The proposal was reportedly made by a high official at the space center. He said a longer first flight was needed to check out spacecraft systems in space because they would be untried in later flights of longer duration.

The space capsule for the first manned mission in December has a maximum capability of 18 orbits.

SS Agents Arrest West Coast Man With Bogus Bills

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Secret Service has $744,000 in crisp new bills — all counterfeit.

The bundled bills were found Wednesday in a Hartford warehouse where the Secret Service said Stanley Frederick Withe Jr. had been storing them in two foot lockers.

Withe, arrested on counterfeiting charges Tuesday at his home in Berkeley, Calif., printed almost $1 million in bogus $10 and $20 bills last year while operating a job printing business in Unionville, Conn., the Secret Service said.

He moved to California with his wife and two children earlier this year after his shop went into bankruptcy and its equipment was sold at auction.

At least $12,000 in counterfeit bills were found when Withe was arrested, agents said, and another $500 had been passed in the last two weeks in the San Francisco area.

Special Agent Robert R. Hastings said the counterfeiting job was "not too hot," but the bills were passable.

GM Units Told To Take Strike Vote by Aug. 31

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union has ordered all its General Motors Corp. units to take strike votes before the end of the month.

Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice president and director of the union's GM department, ordered the vote Wednesday night.

A telegram to all local units said:

"As of today, Aug. 12, General Motors Corp. has made no movement at the national level. It has not indicated any date at which the union may expect counter-proposals. In view of the shortness of time remaining, it is essential that all local unions and units schedule strike votes to be completed prior to Aug. 31."

The UAW contracts with GM, Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. expire Aug. 31.

Meanwhile, top-level negotiations resumed today between contract bargainers for Chrysler and the UAW.

Non - economic issues were mulled over Wednesday by subcommittees for both sides.

In other talks Wednesday, the UAW renewed its bid to persuade General Motors to cut down on the amount of work which is farmed out to smaller companies. The union wants this work to be handled by GM workers.

Discussions at Ford centered on production standards.

Johnson Signs Highway Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed a $2.4-billion highway bill today and said it will help do justice to a stepchild in society, the American motorist.

The bill authorizes a two-year federal highway construction program, mainly for primary and secondary roads and not including the super-highways, starting in the 1966 fiscal year.

"For much too long," Johnson said, "the man who owns and drives an automobile has been treated like a stepchild. We require him to pay for the highways he uses and we require him to pay in advance. We divert his taxes to other uses but we delay the building of the roads that he deserves.

"I hope and I believe that our attitudes are changing."

The bill - signing ceremony took place in the White House Cabinet room with the secretaries of interior, agriculture and commerce on hand along with 30 or 40 members of the Senate and House.

Construction of the multibillion-dollar 41,000-mile interstate highway system is already covered by the Federal Highway Act of 1961. That act authorizes $2.8 billion for the program in the 1966 fiscal year and $2.9 billion in the 1967 fiscal year.

The bill signed by the President today authorizes funds for primary and secondary projects for fiscal 1966 and 1967.

Under the primary and secondary system, the federal government pays 45 per cent of the cost of projects on the primary highways, 30 per cent on secondary highways and 25 per cent on extensions in urban areas.

The federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of the interstate highway system.

Ontario Favors RFK for Senate

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Forces of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy cracked the home territory of Rep. Samuel S. Stratton today in the undeclared contest for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator.

The Ontario County Democratic organization announced it favored Kennedy.

The county is one of eight in the 35th Congressional District, Stratton's base.

The attorney general now has announced support, in an unofficial tabulation, of party leaders in counties that will cast 567 votes at the convention Sept. 1 in New York City. He has sufficient unannounced support to give him more than the 573 votes needed for nomination.

Kennedy has not yet declared his candidacy. Neither has Stratton. But both are known to be interested in the nomination.

John Fabrizi, Ontario County chairman, said his delegation's five votes would not be committed formally to Kennedy until he declared his candidacy, meaning that the attorney general can have them if he wants them.

New York Men Demand Hearing on Car Charge

Two New York City men, arrested early today by State Police on a second-degree grand larceny charge in connection with a car theft, demanded a preliminary hearing later at their appearance before Peace Justice John O. Beaver, Town of Esopus.

They were Raymond Gonzales, 30, who gave 241 Salltivian Street, Manhattan, as his address, and William Macey, 28, of 160 Bleecker Street, New York City. Both men were remanded to the Ulster County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bail each, for a hearing Aug. 20.

Judge Beaver also suspended imposition of a $50 fine when Macey admitted a charge of being an unlicensed driver. Troopers Wallace Mahan and John Ostermark of the Highland substation, arrested the pair about two this morning in a patrol check on Route 9W, Town of Esopus. They said a teletype message said the car Gonzales and Macey were in was reported stolen earlier.

No Agreement

There is no general agreement as to the whereabouts of Vinland, the region supposedly discovered by Leif Ericson. Some scholars place it no further south than Labrador, others were sure it was Chaleur Bay or somewhere on the coast of Nova Scotia, Maine or Boston Harbor.

UAR Urges End Of West Plan

GENEVA (AP) — The United Arab Republic called today for a halt in the plannning for a proposed Western multilateral nuclear force.

It was the first time a nonaligned delegation to the 17-nation disarmament conference has submitted a formal proposal directly affecting the controversial project. The proposal was made by UAR Ambassador Abdel Fattah Hassan.

Hassan suggested the two nuclear super-powers—the United State and the Soviet Union—open technical discussions on whether the proposed force would constitute a dissemination of atomic arms. The Soviet Union maintains that it would be and that the proposed force is designed chiefly to put nuclear weapons into the hands of the West Germans.

Britain also has reservations about the American - sponsored project.

U.S. Ambassador Clare H. Timberlake and Italian delegate Francisco Cavalletti said they would study the proposal. Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin said the proposal was "worthy of the closest attention."

Timberlake assured the conference the United States will take no action inconsistent with resolutions by the U.N. Assembly and the Organization for African Unity against the dissemination of nuclear weapons.

"That is the declared policy of the United States," he added.

Tsarapkin, who was the last speaker, repeated the Soviet arguments against the multilateral force and said that his government, while seeking to improve relations with West Germany continues to oppose any arrangement providing that country access to nuclear arms.

Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Alice Schuler, who passed away one year ago August 13, 1963.

We never knew when we awoke
The sorrow the day would bring
The call was sudden, the shock severe
We little thought such grief was near
To a beautiful life came a sudden end
She died as she lived everyone's friend
Thank you dear God, for our dear mom
For she was of the best
And the joy she missed in life
May she find in God's Garden of rest.

Rocky's Tip for Barry on Unity:

Steer Conservatives To Keating in State

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says Sen. Barry Goldwater can promote the party unity he wants in New York State by persuading the Conservative Party not to oppose reelection of Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

The governor reported Wednesday, after the GOP summit conference here, that Goldwater had promised to use his influence in behalf of support for Keating.

But Rockefeller, who opposed nomination of Goldwater for president, indicated he still had doubts about some positions of the senator from Arizona. And Rockefeller repeated that he had no plans to campaign for the national ticket outside of New York State.

Keating, meanwhile, continued to withhold endorsement of Goldwater and his vice presidential running-mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York.

Rockefeller said that both Wednesday and at a secret meeting in Washington Tuesday he discussed with Goldwater "the threat to Republican unity in New York State presented by the (Conservative) party made up almost entirely of dissident Republicans."

There have been rumors the Conservatives, a strictly New York State party, would run Clare Boothe Luce against Keating, whom they regard as too liberal. Mrs. Luce is co-chairman of the Citizens for Goldwater-Miller organization.

In Washington, Keating said that Goldwater's repudiation of some extremist organizations would be "helpful to him and the country." The New York senator declined further comment.

Rockefeller called Goldwater's statements Wednesday on extremism, foreign policy and social security a "clarification" and added:

"I hope and trust that he will continue to emphasize these points..."

Radiation Test

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A capsule filled with mice and rats will be fired into orbit in 1965 and half the rodents will be subjected to radiation. Purpose of the test will be to determine whether the radiation hazard is increased during weightless flight.

THEATRE MANAGER HONORED — Chief Petty Officer Joseph E. Brown Jr. (right) of the local Navy recruiting station today presented Al Goddard a certificate of appreciation for his services as district supervisor for Walter Reade-Sterling Theaters. The award reads in part, "Through your spirited cooperation with the Navy Recruiting Service, you have contributed immeasurably in furthering the excellent relations between the United States Navy and the people of your community."

Woman Is Killed Checking Car Noise

ONEONTA, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Mildred L. Schell, a 34-year-old mother of three, thought she heard a noise in the automobile Wednesday, while teaching a friend to drive.

So, after they stopped the car, Mrs. Schell walked to the rear of the car to investigate. Suddenly it lurched backward and ran over her. She died later in Fox Hospital here.

State Police said Mrs. Schell had been teaching Genesio DeNinis, 29, also of Binghamton, to operate the car, which he owned.

They stopped at Mount Vision, on Route 205 about 20 miles north of Oneonta, to check on the noise.

Sheep Growers to Meet

A meeting of Ulster County sheep growers will be held Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 8 p. m. at 74 John Street.

Hudson Reveals Emergency Plan

"Operation Water Emergency," which will bring at least eight Columbia County fire departments to the aid of Hudson volunteer firefighters in the event of a major fire in that city, was announced Wednesday by Mayor Samuel T. Wheeler.

The plan provides for pumping water from the Hudson River to Worth Avenue, a distance of more than a mile. The operation calls for the assignment of county fire units to strategic locations along the route to bolster the pumping pressure from the river to the fire area.

A simulated fire run — minus the use of water—is slated for Sunday, August 23, and prior to that date additional fire departments in Columbia County are expected to join in "Operation Water Emergency."

Because of the dry fire run on August 23, there will be no parking on the south side of Warren Street from Front Street to Worth Avenue, and one-way east-west traffic will be maintained on Warren Street.

"Operation Water Emergency" was arranged through the coordination of Fire Chief Ralph Pough, Hudson, Deputy Civil Defense Director Harold Horton, Fire Police Capt. John Hering, Police Chief John J. Sullivan and fire officials from several Columbia County fire districts.

A Year After Tragedy in Pa.

Rescued Miners Seldom Speak of Disaster Now

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — A year ago today the roof of the Oneida No. 2 hard coal mine near here gave way 300 feet underground, trapping David Fellin, Henry Throne and Louis Bova.

Fourteen days later Fellin and Throne were hoisted to safety through a newly drilled 20-inch shaft as people around the world waited anxiously for every development

Rarely See Each Other

What has life been like for Fellin, 59, of nearby Sheppton, and Throne, 29, of Hazleton, since the glare of the limelight passed?

Friends say the two seldom speak of the event now. And only rarely do they see each other.

Throne says he seldom thinks of the ordeal, adding: "It's pretty well kept out of my mind."

Fellin says the experience may have sobered him some but has not changed him basically.

"Have I changed? No, I don't think so," he said before starting a vacation trip. "I was just a pick-and-shovel man before, and I'm still a pick and shovel man."

Right after the rescue Fellin and Throne appeared on television, told their stories nationwide in print, and made many speaking engagements. Gradually the invitations to speak tapered off. Cards and letters, once a flood, became a trickle.

Although both had vowed never to return to the mines again, both eventually went back for a while. Throne also worked as a bartender, and now he's a construction worker. Fellin drives a bus.

Mine Site Quiet Now

The mine site, about a mile from Fellin's home, is quiet now, in marked contrast to the frenzied round-the-clock activity of rescuers and the almost constant roar of the giant drill that reached the men a year ago.

During the past year Fellin, a part owner of the mine, was often called to court as the state explored ways to recover Bova's body. Eventually it was decided to close the mine forever, leaving Bova buried. Plans call for a memorial to Bova to be erected there.

"I'd like to keep my end of the bargain and recover Bova's body," said Fellin recently, "but I don't have any money, so how can I go about it?"

Rocky's Tip for Barry on Unity:

Steer Conservatives To Keating in State

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says Sen. Barry Goldwater can promote the party unity he wants in New York State by persuading the Conservative Party not to oppose reelection of Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

The governor reported Wednesday, after the GOP summit conference here, that Goldwater had promised to use his influence in behalf of support for Keating.

But Rockefeller, who opposed nomination of Goldwater for president, indicated he still had doubts about some positions of the senator from Arizona. And Rockefeller repeated that he had no plans to campaign for the national ticket outside of New York State.

Keating, meanwhile, continued to withhold endorsement of Goldwater and his vice presidential running-mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York.

Rockefeller said that both Wednesday and at a secret meeting in Washington Tuesday he discussed with Goldwater "the threat to Republican unity in New York State presented by the (Conservative) party made up almost entirely of dissident Republicans."

There have been rumors the Conservatives, a strictly New York State party, would run Clare Boothe Luce against Keating, whom they regard as too liberal. Mrs. Luce is co-chairman of the Citizens for Goldwater-Miller organization.

In Washington, Keating said that Goldwater's repudiation of some extremist organizations would be "helpful to him and the country." The New York senator declined further comment.

Rockefeller called Goldwater's statements Wednesday on extremism, foreign policy and social security a "clarification" and added:

"I hope and trust that he will continue to emphasize these points..."

Woman Is Killed Checking Car Noise

ONEONTA, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Mildred L. Schell, a 34-year-old mother of three, thought she heard a noise in the automobile Wednesday, while teaching a friend to drive.

So, after they stopped the car, Mrs. Schell walked to the rear of the car to investigate. Suddenly it lurched backward and ran over her. She died later in Fox Hospital here.

State Police said Mrs. Schell had been teaching Genesio DeNinis, 29, also of Binghamton, to operate the car, which he owned.

They stopped at Mount Vision, on Route 205 about 20 miles north of Oneonta, to check on the noise.

Sheep Growers to Meet

A meeting of Ulster County sheep growers will be held Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 8 p. m. at 74 John Street.

Hudson Reveals Emergency Plan

"Operation Water Emergency," which will bring at least eight Columbia County fire departments to the aid of Hudson volunteer firefighters in the event of a major fire in that city, was announced Wednesday by Mayor Samuel T. Wheeler.

The plan provides for pumping water from the Hudson River to Worth Avenue, a distance of more than a mile. The operation calls for the assignment of county fire units to strategic locations along the route to bolster the pumping pressure from the river to the fire area.

A simulated fire run — minus the use of water—is slated for Sunday, August 23, and prior to that date additional fire departments in Columbia County are expected to join in "Operation Water Emergency."

Because of the dry fire run on August 23, there will be no parking on the south side of Warren Street from Front Street to Worth Avenue, and one-way east-west traffic will be maintained on Warren Street.

"Operation Water Emergency" was arranged through the coordination of Fire Chief Ralph Pough, Hudson, Deputy Civil Defense Director Harold Horton, Fire Police Capt. John Hering, Police Chief John J. Sullivan and fire officials from several Columbia County fire districts.

Jail-Breaking Artists

Say Freedom Fixers Helped Escape of Key Robbery Figure

LONDON (AP) — An underworld syndicate known as the Freedom Fixers was credited today with whisking Charles Frederick Wilson out of prison and adding another footnote to the great train robbery.

Wilson, 32, ex-bookmaker, married and the father of three daughters, was the most wanted man in Britain, sought across the nation and in many parts of the world through the Interpol police network.

Police clamped a close watch on British ports and air terminals, visited scores of addresses and combed through the known haunts of the man who may have the secret of $6 million in his possession.

Wilson was sentenced to 30 years in jail last April when he stood trial with 11 other men for staging the biggest cash grab in history — the raid on the Glasgow-London mail train one year and five days ago. The robbers got away with $7,280,000. Only $840,000 has been recovered.

At Winson Green Prison in Birmingham where Wilson had served less than four months of his term, an inquiry was launched into the escape. The probe was ordered by Home Secretary Henry Brooke.

London newspapers said Wilson had been spirited to freedom by the "Freedom Fixers, a group of jail-breaking artists. Part of the mail train booty was said to have been used to buy their special talents at a price estimated to be between $140,000 and $280,000.

The gang moved in at 3 a.m. Wednesday, scaling the prison wall with a ladder. They moved through the jail grounds to cell block B and, using duplicate keys, went almost unchallenged to Wilson's cell. A prison officer, Bill Nicholls, 50, who surprised them, was knocked out.

Moves to Escape Tariff

OTTAWA (AP) — A Canadian firm is expected to open a branch plant in Watertown, N.Y., to escape paying a 35 per cent U.S. tariff on precision die-casting assembly equipment.

Finance Minister Walter Gordon said Wednesday the Fisher Gauge Works Ltd. hoped this move would enable it to compete successfully in the United States.

CLUSTER OF 'SUNS' — This group of optical units is used to simulate sunlight to test satellites at NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center in Maryland. Units can create artificial sunlight for thermal-vacuum conditions approximating 400-mile orbits.

State Is Studying Speed Zones for Possible Changes

A program to re-evaluate the speed restrictions on state, county, and town highways, is about one-third completed, the New York State Traffic Commission announced today.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner William S. Hults said that 1,000 of the 2,700 reduced speed zones and areas have been checked since the program was begun in 1960. The program involves re-evaluation of: restrictions on all state, town and county roads outside of cities and villages; and speed limits on state highways within cities and villages.

"This program is designed to make our speed restrictions realistic and reasonable, so that drivers will respect and obey them," Commissioner Hults explained. "When speed restrictions are unrealistic, they create contempt for all speed limits, and this contempt often extends to other traffic controls. When the program is completed, the re-evaluated limits should provide for a smoother flow of traffic, and greater safety on our highways."

So far, most of the re-evaluations have resulted in increases in the limits. For example, in one group of 669 restrictions checked, 435 were raised from between 5 and 20 miles per hour, 228 were left unchanged, and six were lowered by 5 miles per hour.

Does an increase in a speed limit result in an increase in the speed of traffic?

"No," said Commissioner Hults, "because in the cases where the limits were raised, the prior limits were unrealistic and generally ignored by drivers using the road. Radar checks made after the the limits were raised have shown that traffic speeds have not increased. In some cases, the traffic speed has decreased slightly."

In re-evaluating speed restrictions, the State Traffic Commission considers the following factors:

1. Marginal development with access into the highway—houses, stores, businesses, schools, intersections, and other factors.
2. The existing speed pattern as checked by radar when speeds are generally highest — a majority of drivers (about 85 per cent) will drive at or below a reasonable speed, under normal driving conditions.
3. Traffic volume and pedestrian activity.
4. The accident record.
5. Existing traffic control devices such as signs, signals and pavement markings.
6. Parking practices that affect traffic.
7. Design and condition of the highway.

Hospital Group To Honor Worley

John D. Worley Jr., assistant administrator of the Kingston Hospital, will be advanced to the status of Membership in the American College of Hospital Administrators at the professional society's 30th annual convocation ceremony Sunday, Aug. 23, in the Arie Crown Theater of Chicago's McCormick Place.

The announcement was made by ACHA President Robert W. Bachmeyer, executive director of The Youngstown Hospital Association, Youngstown, O., who will preside at the ceremony.

At the same event, the college will confer its highest commendation, Honorary Fellowship, upon five distinguished leaders in the hospital and health fields. To be honored are: Dr. Luther L. Terry, Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C.; Dr. George D. Cameron, Deputy Minister of National Health and Welfare, Ottawa, Canada; William S. McNary, chairman, Board of Health Service, Inc., Detroit; Mrs. Abraham E. Pininski, volunteer auxiliary worker and charter founder of national auxiliary group of the American Hospital Association, Brookline, Mass., and Clarence A. Warden Jr., president, The Delaware Valley Hospital Council, Philadelphia.

The convocation ceremony is held annually preceding the yearly meeting of the college which takes place in conjunction with the convention of the American Hospital Association.

Trowbridge Sold To New Jersey Man

Trowbridge Farm in High Falls has been sold to John Lynch of Orange, N. J. The resort had been operating under the same management since 1911.

Mrs. Sylvia Trowbridge will continue to assist the new owner in an advisory capacity. Mrs. Trowbridge has been the sole owner since the death of her husband in 1954 and her son, Nathan in 1962.

The farm will be renovated and opened at an early date as a resort.

Returned to Prison After 38-Yr. Escape

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)— After nearly 38 years of freedom, an escaped convict in Bath, N.Y., is being returned to prison in Texas.

The state prison system dispatched an agent Wednesday to return Anthony Leonard, who was identified as a fugitive after his July 11 arrest in New York on charges of intoxication and indecent exposure.

After Leonard pleaded guilty and received a 30-day jail sentence, his photograph and fingerprints were sent to the FBI in Washington. The FBI found he escaped Oct. 11, 1926, after serving about 15 years of a life sentence for murder. He waived extradition.

Range Blaze Is Fire Police Topic

The spectacular fire that raged four days this week in the Shawangunk Mountains and use of blue lights on volunteer firemen's vehicles were among topics discussed at the regular meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Fire Police Association, Wednesday night in the Connelly Firehouse.

Main speakers were Winfred Snyder, Ulster County fire cofield representative of the New York State Division of Safety. They participated in a question and answer session.

Association members stressed the cooperation of the various volunteers in the Shawangunk range blaze and commended Chief Emmanuel Samuels of the Kerhonkson Fire Department and his fire fighters in their fast and efficient work in battling the blaze.

In other business, the association heard a request from Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America, for 100 feet of 1½-inch fire hose for use at Camp Trimount.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting.

Jail-Breaking Artists

Say Freedom Fixers Helped Escape of Key Robbery Figure

LONDON (AP) — An underworld syndicate known as the Freedom Fixers was credited today with whisking Charles Frederick Wilson out of prison and adding another footnote to the great train robbery.

Wilson, 32, ex-bookmaker, married and the father of three daughters, was the most wanted man in Britain, sought across the nation and in many parts of the world through the Interpol police network.

Police clamped a close watch on British ports and air terminals, visited scores of addresses and combed through the known haunts of the man who may have the secret of $6 million in his possession.

Wilson was sentenced to 30 years in jail last April when he stood trial with 11 other men for staging the biggest cash grab in history — the raid on the Glasgow-London mail train one year and five days ago. The robbers got away with $7,280,000. Only $840,000 has been recovered.

At Winson Green Prison in Birmingham where Wilson had served less than four months of his term, an inquiry was launched into the escape. The probe was ordered by Home Secretary Henry Brooke.

London newspapers said Wilson had been spirited to freedom by the "Freedom Fixers, a group of jail-breaking artists. Part of the mail train booty was said to have been used to buy their special talents at a price estimated to be between $140,000 and $280,000.

The gang moved in at 3 a.m. Wednesday, scaling the prison wall with a ladder. They moved through the jail grounds to cell block B and, using duplicate keys, went almost unchallenged to Wilson's cell. A prison officer, Bill Nicholls, 50, who surprised them, was knocked out.

Moves to Escape Tariff

OTTAWA (AP) — A Canadian firm is expected to open a branch plant in Watertown, N.Y., to escape paying a 35 per cent U.S. tariff on precision die-casting assembly equipment.

Finance Minister Walter Gordon said Wednesday the Fisher Gauge Works Ltd. hoped this move would enable it to compete successfully in the United States.

State Is Studying Speed Zones for Possible Changes

A program to re-evaluate the speed restrictions on state, county, and town highways, is about one-third completed, the New York State Traffic Commission announced today.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner William S. Hults said that 1,000 of the 2,700 reduced speed zones and areas have been checked since the program was begun in 1960. The program involves re-evaluation of: restrictions on all state, town and county roads outside of cities and villages; and speed limits on state highways within cities and villages.

"This program is designed to make our speed restrictions realistic and reasonable, so that drivers will respect and obey them," Commissioner Hults explained. "When speed restrictions are unrealistic, they create contempt for all speed limits, and this contempt often extends to other traffic controls. When the program is completed, the re-evaluated limits should provide for a smoother flow of traffic, and greater safety on our highways."

So far, most of the re-evaluations have resulted in increases in the limits. For example, in one group of 669 restrictions checked, 435 were raised from between 5 and 20 miles per hour, 228 were left unchanged, and six were lowered by 5 miles per hour.

Does an increase in a speed limit result in an increase in the speed of traffic?

"No," said Commissioner Hults, "because in the cases where the limits were raised, the prior limits were unrealistic and generally ignored by drivers using the road. Radar checks made after the the limits were raised have shown that traffic speeds have not increased. In some cases, the traffic speed has decreased slightly."

In re-evaluating speed restrictions, the State Traffic Commission considers the following factors:

1. Marginal development with access into the highway—houses, stores, businesses, schools, intersections, and other factors.
2. The existing speed pattern as checked by radar when speeds are generally highest — a majority of drivers (about 85 per cent) will drive at or below a reasonable speed, under normal driving conditions.
3. Traffic volume and pedestrian activity.
4. The accident record.
5. Existing traffic control devices such as signs, signals and pavement markings.
6. Parking practices that affect traffic.
7. Design and condition of the highway.

Worley Jr., assistant administrator of the Kingston Hospital, will be advanced to the status of Membership in the American College of Hospital Administrators at the professional society's 30th annual convocation ceremony Sunday, Aug. 23, in the Arie Crown Theater of Chicago's McCormick Place.

The announcement was made by ACHA President Robert W. Bachmeyer, executive director of The Youngstown Hospital Association, Youngstown, O., who will preside at the ceremony.

Returned to Prison After 38-Yr. Escape

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)— After nearly 38 years of freedom, an escaped convict in Bath, N.Y., is being returned to prison in Texas.

The state prison system dispatched an agent Wednesday to return Anthony Leonard, who was identified as a fugitive after his July 11 arrest in New York on charges of intoxication and indecent exposure.

After Leonard pleaded guilty and received a 30-day jail sentence, his photograph and fingerprints were sent to the FBI in Washington. The FBI found he escaped Oct. 11, 1926, after serving about 15 years of a life sentence for murder. He waived extradition.

Along Capitol Corridors

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) —Gov. Rockefeller's hints that he will seek a third term in 1966 are a political "must" — no high public official turns himself into a lame duck less than halfway through his term.

For Rockefeller to indicate he was marking time until he could retire to private life would weaken his hand in dealing with the Legislature. It also would jeopardize his control of the state Republican party machinery and bring about wild maneuvering and skirmishing among his would-be successors.

So it was no surprise when the governor said this week that he not only expected to serve all of his current term "but don't be surprised if I'm around four more years after that."

Beyond immediate political concerns there is good reason for believing that Rockefeller will run again in 1966.

The movement, conflict, intrigue, varying crises and frequent high drama at the upper levels of political life are suited ideally to the free-wheeling Rockefeller temperament.

He has strong ideas on a great many subjects, most of them controversial. The office of governor of New York State has given him a powerful position from which to operate.

Favorite Observation

As an appointive official in government, Rockefeller often chafed under the domination of elected officials who frequently did not share his enthusiasms for his own views.

One of his favorite observations in comparing the appointive with the elected official is a Latin - American description of elected leaders as "the authentic representatives of the people."

Now in the position of "authentic representative" himself, it is hard to visualize the energetic, often impatient Rockefeller returning voluntarily to private life or the ranks of appointive officialdom.

His dream of winning the presidency has been shattered.

The 1964 Republican national convention showed that, despite five years of hard work and enormous expenses, Rockefeller has no broad support among Republican leaders throughout the nation.

This was dramatized harshly in the chorus of boos and catcalls he received from the convention when he pressed for a more liberal platform.

Deserves Place

As governor of New York, however, Rockefeller cannot be denied a place in the top councils of his party — as shown by his meeting Tuesday night with Sen. Barry Goldwater, the presidential nominee. He also participated in Tuesday's high-level strategy sesssions in Hershey, Pa.

As governor, Rockefeller could continue to presss his own ideas from a powerful base and, if not always completely successful, see many of them become official policy.

Re-election would not be Rockefeller's for the asking. He still faces grave fiscal problems over the next two years, and a new round of major tax increases is probable. His handling of these matters could further impair his already shaky position with New York Republicans.

But, with his usual optimism, Rockefeller is taking the positive approach.

Making All Stops

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — When the American Legion held its state convention here this summer the hotel where most of the Legionnaires stayed manned its three automatic elevators with bellhops. "They never push the right buttons," explained one operator, "and often they get the cars to stop at all floors."

King John signified royal assent to the Magna Carta by attaching his Great Seal to it. Signatures were ordinarily not used to authenticate documents until the 15th Century.

Break the Rules for Better Play

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"I guess that Friday the 13th falls on Thursday for me also," groaned West. "No matter how well I play, my partner is always around to ruin things for me."

West had opened the king of spades and continued with the nine. East ruffed and returned the seven of diamonds. South played the deuce and West ruffed, but that closed matters for the defense. South drew two rounds of trumps, ruffed out his one losing club and took the proven diamond finesse.

"What did I do wrong?" mumbled East. "You wanted me to ruff that spade and return a diamond didn't you?"

"I sure did," said West. "But couldn't you have lead the right diamond, not just any diamond?"

"What's wrong with a fourth best lead?" replied East. "All the books recommend it."

All the books do recommend a fourth best lead, but only as a standard play when a better card is not available.

There was a far better card available this time. East should have led the jack of diamonds. South's best play would be to cover with the queen. West would still get his ruff and East would be left with a diamond trick, since his king-nine combination could bracket dummy's 10.

"I guess that Friday the 13th falls on Thursday for me also," groaned West. "No matter how well I play, my partner is always around to ruin things for me."

West had opened the king of spades and continued with the nine. East ruffed and returned the seven of diamonds. South played the deuce and West ruffed, but that closed matters for the defense. South drew two rounds of trumps, ruffed out his one losing club and took the proven diamond finesse.

"What did I do wrong?" mumbled East. "You wanted me to ruff that spade and return a diamond didn't you?"

"I sure did," said West. "But couldn't you have lead the right diamond, not just any diamond?"

"What's wrong with a fourth best lead?" replied East. "All the books recommend it."

All the books do recommend a fourth best lead, but only as a standard play when a better card is not available.

There was a far better card available this time. East should have led the jack of diamonds. South's best play would be to cover with the queen. West would still get his ruff and East would be left with a diamond trick, since his king-nine combination could bracket dummy's 10.

YEARLY VISIT TO HER FAMILY

Q: After my marriage I moved to my husband's hometown which is several hundred miles from where I lived. I try to get home at least once a year to visit my parents. When I do, my relatives expect me to make the rounds to visit them and are very hurt if I don't go to see them. I think it is up to them to come to see me.

A: If your visit is of a short duration, it is very unfair of your relatives to expect you to go and visit them thereby leaving you very little time to spend with your parents. If you are staying any length of time, you should at least go to see your older relatives and not expect them to come to see you.

A Come and Go Party

Q: My husband and I soon will be celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary and would like to give a reception for relatives and friends. We thought of making it a "come-and-go" party. How can we word the invitations so that the guests will do just that and not remain throughout the afternoon?

A: If you invite guests to come in between certain specified hours—say four to six o'clock—it should be taken to mean that they are expected to come in any time between these hours, stay a short while and leave. Some guests may come early and stay late but a majority of them will 'come and go."

* * *

Reusing Same Napkins

Q—When having guests stay in one's house for the weekend, is it necessary for the hostess to provide them with fresh napkins for every meal, or could they be given their same ones over again as long as they are not soiled?

A—They should be given fresh napkins for every meal, unless the rather old-fashioned napkin rings are used so that each person is assured of receiving his or her same napkin.

* * *

Leaving the Dinner Tip

Q: If a woman takes one or two friends out to dinner in a restaurant and after paying the check leaves a tip alongside her plate, is it expected of her guests to leave tips too?

A: Certainly not! The tip is considered as part of the cost of the dinner and is given by the hostess alone.

Capital News In Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., has asked Congress to ban publication or release of national election results until after all the polls have closed.

And, in a similar move, Sen. Pierre Salinger, D-Calif., is asking Congress to go on record as opposed to broadcast of electronic vote projections this year until all voting has ended.

In introducing his bill Wednesday, Prouty cited the section of the Constitution that gives Congress authority over the conduct of national elections for president, vice president and members of Congress.

Salinger made his proposal in the form of a concurrent resolution that would express Congress' views but would have no binding effect.

Because of the large number of electoral votes in Eastern states where the polls close first, Prouty said, it is sometimes possible to determine a presidential election before Western voters have a chance to ballot.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Assistant Secretary of State Thomas C. Mann said Wednesday that U.S. government aid to Latin America was a record $1.23 billion in the fiscal year that ended June 30.

Included, said Mann, are Alliance for Progress credits, those of the Import-Export Bank and the Social Progress Trust Fund, the Food for Peace plan and the Peace Corps.

Mann is head of the U.S. alliance agency and is President Johnson's special assistant on hemisphere matters.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress passed Wednesday and sent to President Johnson an appropriation of $210.3 million to pay congressional salaries and expenses.

Some congressmen said the language of the bill is aimed at greater public surveillance of congressional expenses.

Separate Senate and House action was by voice vote. The President is expected to sign the measure into law.

JFK Mementos Are Displayed

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — A coconut shell that saved the lives of 11 men. A rocking chair that started a national craze. A schedule calendar for Nov. 21, 1963.

These are some of the mementos of the late President John F. Kennedy that went on display here today as part of a nation-wide tour of the JFK Library, soon to be housed in Boston.

The coconut shell, etched with a call for help by Kennedy as a Navy lieutenant, saved the lives of his crew, stranded on a small Pacific island after their PT boat was destroyed by the Japanese.

The rocking chair, used by Kennedy because of a back injury suffered during the war, sent Americans in droves to buy one similar to the president's.

For her wedding the bride wore a full length sheath with rounded neckline, three quarter length sleeves and a lace front panel accented with pearls. A full train was worn as an overskirt. Her silk illusion veil was held by a rose headpiece and she carried white carnations with an orchid.

The maid of honor wore deep pink taffeta and the attendant, pale pink organza.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School. She received her degree from Syracuse University and a masters from UCLA. Her husband is an alumnus of Peter Stuyvesant High School and Union College where he received his Bachelor of Civil Engineering. He is a member of Omega Delta Phi.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobrowolski are at home at 231 S. Avenue 66, Los Angeles 42, Calif.

JFK Mementos Are Displayed

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — A coconut shell that saved the lives of 11 men. A rocking chair that started a national craze. A schedule calendar for Nov. 21, 1963.

These are some of the mementos of the late President John F. Kennedy that went on display here today as part of a nation-wide tour of the JFK Library, soon to be housed in Boston.

The coconut shell, etched with a call for help by Kennedy as a Navy lieutenant, saved the lives of his crew, stranded on a small Pacific island after their PT boat was destroyed by the Japanese.

The rocking chair, used by Kennedy because of a back injury suffered during the war, sent Americans in droves to buy one similar to the president's.

Not Trying to Stop RFK Move: Wagner

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner denies he is "trying to stop" Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy from running for U.S. Senator from New York but says "we need further clarification whether he intends to be a candidate."

No clarification came when newsmen contacted Kennedy Wednesday night as he put into Blue Hill, Maine, for an overnight stop on a coastal yachting trip with his wife and a dozen friends.

No Kennedy Comment

Kennedy declined comment on reports that he had decided to seek the Democratic nomination for senator.

The last public word from the attorney general was his declaration here last Monday that he would not consider entering the race without "express approval" by Wagner, the state's top-ranking Democrat.

Wagner, who has spoken highly of Kennedy but withheld an endorsement, made his latest comment to newsmen Wednesday.

"I'm not trying to stop him," Wagner said in answer to questions. "All this talk that I don't want him is sheer nonsense."

Wagner had conferred with Adlai E. Stevenson, ambassador to the United Nations, who has been mentioned frequently for the Senate nomination but has ruled himself out of consideration.

Doubts Adlai's Interested

Asked by newsmen whether he had asked Stevenson to run, the mayor said "no." Asked whether Stevenson is likely to run, Wagner said: "He has never expressed any keen interest in it. I don't think he's interested."

There has been talk that Wagner would prefer Stevenson to Kennedy as a Senate candidate, on the surmise that if Kennedy was elected he might take over the state party organization, thus downgrading Wagner in party power.

There also has been speculation that Wagner wants Stevenson to run because he is the first choice of the Liberal Party for the nomination.

A leader of the Liberal Party has said it would support Kennedy if Stevenson does not run.

After conferring with Stevenson, Wagner talked with President Johnson who was here to address the annual meeting of the American Bar Association.

Wagner told newsmen that he and the president discussed politics "in general," but not what Wagner called local politics. "It's always been my feeling," the mayor said, "that political affairs here are in our hands. We don't want to involve the president in them."

Stratton Claims Support

The maneuvering is for the nomination, to be made at the Democratic state convention here Sept. 1, for the seat now held by Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester.

The most active contender against Kennedy is Rep. Samuel S. Stratton of Upstate Amsterdam. He says he has not formally declared his candidacy for the Democratic nomination, but he claims party support in 35 counties. Most of the 35 are relatively small Upstate counties.

Stratton sent telegrams from Washington to county leaders and leading Democrats who have announced support for him.

He assured these supporters: "I intend to stay in this thing no matter who announces, and I hope I can continue to count on your full support."

New big-county support for Kennedy was announced by Lawrence Delaney, Suffolk County Democratic leader, and Robert O'Brien of Rochester, the Monroe County party chairman.

Several on Verge

Several more upstate county chairmen were reported on the verge of endorsing the attorney general.

Among big-county support in Kennedy's lap are Kings County (Brooklyn), The Bronx, Nassau County on Long Island and Erie County, of which Buffalo is the county seat.

Stratton's unofficial campaign manager, George V. Palmer of Schenectady, Wednesday extended his plans to fight Kennedy.

Palmer said that if the state convention chooses Kennedy, he will challenge the nomination on the grounds of non-residency. Palmer had said Tuesday that any legal objections by the Stratton forces would be filed between a Kennedy announcement of candidacy and the convention, but would not be pressed beyond the convention.

Driver Involved In Fatal Crash Pays $100 Fine

The driver of a flatbed tractor trailer involved in a traffic crash in which two teenagers were killed last Aug. 4 near Catskill in Greene County, was fined $100 Wednesday night when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a vehicle which was over the legal width.

Walter Jeune, 34, of Route 9W, Catskill, appeared before Peace Justice George E. Carl, Town of Catskill.

Killed in the accident were Robert F. Possano, of Catskill, and Rose Bennett, of Coxsackie, both 17.

State Police said the two and four others in the automobile were traveling on Rt. 9W about four miles south of Catskill when their car was struck by the blade of a bulldozer which was carried on the flatbed tractor trailer operated in the opposite direction by Jeune. They said the blade of the bulldozer sheared off the top of the car.

Also injured in the accident were Rossano's brother, Richard, 22; Charles Cook, 19, and George Guldenstern, 19, all of Catskill, and Barbara Hilderbrandt, 17, of West Coxsackie.

Troopers said the investigation was being continued by the Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

NEW RIFLE FOR THE GROUND FORCES?—Although the Army's M-14 rifle (top) has been used by the troops for only four years, the Army is searching for a newer, lighter more powerful weapon. High on its list of possible replacements is the AR-15 (bottom manufactured by Colt's Patent Firearms Manufacturing Co. The AR-15, now in very limited use in Viet Nam, fires a high-velocity .223 caliber slug, not much larger than a .22 caliber bullet. The M-14 uses the larger .30 caliber slug. Tests indicate that the AR-15 is remarkably accurate and lethal. Also under test are the AR-18, Stoner 63 and the Special Purpose Individual Weapon (which shoots darts and rifle grenades).

Police Pursuit Of Speeder Is Topic of Article

An article by Arthur Cornelius Jr., superintendent of New York State Police, designed to clarify the problems of pursuit and apprehension of speeders was published recently in The Trooper, monthly publication of the State Police.

It was released for general publication as part of the August Learn and Live Program's anti-speeding campaign.

The article follows:

Accidents periodically occur during the course of pursuit by a police officer of the speeding motorist and frequently involve innocent people. Sometimes the accident involves the car of the speeding motorist and sometimes the police vehicle.

When these accidents occur, we frequently hear criticism and sometimes comment in the news media to the effect that the pursuit of the speeding vehicle by the police was the cause of the accident and perhaps the accident would not have occurred had the pursuit not taken place. Thus, indirectly and ironically, the officer is blamed, rather than the speeder who was, of course, the cause.

In each case where a trooper observes a speeding vehicle, he is faced with a decision of pursuit or non-pursuit. If he chooses pursuit he runs the risk of criticism by the public and the press, particularly if innocent people are injured or killed in the pursuit either by the violator or by the officer.

If the trooper decides to let the violator go rather than endanger the lives of others by pursuit, he is not only ignoring a violation of a law, committed in his presence, but may also be permitting a criminal or a potentially dangerous driver to escape.

Non-pursuit, as a matter of policy, is not realistic since violators would know they would not be pursued if they resorted to high speeds. They would increasingly adopt this procedure with disastrous results to the public.

What then is the answer? There can be no set formula. The decision to pursue or not to must be reached by the trooper on the scene — and he must instantly evaluate the circumstances in the individual case.

In some cases, a conclusion may be reached easily, such as the instance where radio may be used to summon aid that is sure to head off the speeder without the need for high-speed pursuit. In other cases the need for pursuit will be apparent and similarly dictate his decision.

The policy of the New York State Police is that the decision must be the responsibility of the individual trooper, who must use his own good judgement and carefully consider the safety of the citizens whose protection is his responsibility.

In these cases, as in all others, there must be accountability, and thus the trooper will always be in a position of reaching a sound decision which he can justify and explain, regardless of what the decision may have been.

U.S. Starts Program to Up Power of Congo Government

WASHINGTO N(AP) — After four years of effort and the expenditure of $418 million in trying to save the Congo, U.S. strategists are once again faced with confusion and crisis in this vast heartland of Africa.

Four U.S. Air Force transports arriving in Leopoldville today signal the start of an expanded American effort to bolster the central Congo government. More U.S. arms and aid will be flowing in.

Washington's general goal is clear: To stave off anarchy and a possible Red takeover of the huge, potentially rich land which could some day become the continent's prime power.

Far less clear — in fact, downright confusing in U.S. eyes — is the situation in the Congo and just what can be done to remedy it.

The Congo's confused situation first implanted itself firmly on the Washington mind in 1960 when Belgium granted independence to the colony. Those dealing with it soon found it was no nation in the modern sense.

With more than 200 tribes and that many languages, without central leadership or the facilities of a nation, the territory started falling apart fast. The Soviets were becoming active.

The U.S. response then was to bring in the United Nations to help build an administratively, financially sound nation.

Over the next four years the United Nations supplied 20,000 peace-keeping troops and nearly $600 million in aid, enough to beset its own finances. Through the United Nations and on its own, the United States poured in $418, million in economic and arms aid.

Then the United Nations pulled out its troops last June 30 and the crisis began building up again. Rebels in the eastern Congo have now seized the important city of Stanleyville and big chunks of territory elsewhere. The central government forces show little fight.

Guardsmen Hurt As Jeep Topples On Way to Camp

Three National Guardsmen were injured Wednesday, when an Army jeep in which they were enroute to Camp Smith for summer training, went out of control and overturned after failing to negotiate a curve on Route 9, Town of Fishkill.

Fishkill State Police said the jeep struck a hill and ejected the occupants before it overturned. The injured were taken to Highland Hospital in Beacon.

Troopers said the injured were: Richard Holmes, 26, of 808 Myrtle Avenue, Albany, who was admitted at the hospital with head and elbow injuries; Joseph Z. Novak, 27, of 1105 Fifth Avenue, Watervliet, driver of the venicle, who sustained cuts and bruises, and Carl Rimsky, 26, of 216 Broadway, Rensselaer, who suffered a fractured spine and lung contusion.

Manfred Witt, of 231 Madison Avenue, Rensselaer, another passenger in the jeep escaped injury, troopers said.

U.S. Starts Program to Up Power of Congo Government

WASHINGTO N(AP) — After four years of effort and the expenditure of $418 million in trying to save the Congo, U.S. strategists are once again faced with confusion and crisis in this vast heartland of Africa.

Four U.S. Air Force transports arriving in Leopoldville today signal the start of an expanded American effort to bolster the central Congo government. More U.S. arms and aid will be flowing in.

Washington's general goal is clear: To stave off anarchy and a possible Red takeover of the huge, potentially rich land which could some day become the continent's prime power.

Far less clear — in fact, downright confusing in U.S. eyes — is the situation in the Congo and just what can be done to remedy it.

The Congo's confused situation first implanted itself firmly on the Washington mind in 1960 when Belgium granted independence to the colony. Those dealing with it soon found it was no nation in the modern sense.

With more than 200 tribes and that many languages, without central leadership or the facilities of a nation, the territory started falling apart fast. The Soviets were becoming active.

The U.S. response then was to bring in the United Nations to help build an administratively, financially sound nation.

Over the next four years the United Nations supplied 20,000 peace-keeping troops and nearly $600 million in aid, enough to beset its own finances. Through the United Nations and on its own, the United States poured in $418, million in economic and arms aid.

Then the United Nations pulled out its troops last June 30 and the crisis began building up again. Rebels in the eastern Congo have now seized the important city of Stanleyville and big chunks of territory elsewhere. The central government forces show little fight.

Guardsmen Hurt As Jeep Topples On Way to Camp

Three National Guardsmen were injured Wednesday, when an Army jeep in which they were enroute to Camp Smith for summer training, went out of control and overturned after failing to negotiate a curve on Route 9, Town of Fishkill.

Fishkill State Police said the jeep struck a hill and ejected the occupants before it overturned. The injured were taken to Highland Hospital in Beacon.

Troopers said the injured were: Richard Holmes, 26, of 808 Myrtle Avenue, Albany, who was admitted at the hospital with head and elbow injuries; Joseph Z. Novak, 27, of 1105 Fifth Avenue, Watervliet, driver of the venicle, who sustained cuts and bruises, and Carl Rimsky, 26, of 216 Broadway, Rensselaer, who suffered a fractured spine and lung contusion.

Manfred Witt, of 231 Madison Avenue, Rensselaer, another passenger in the jeep escaped injury, troopers said.

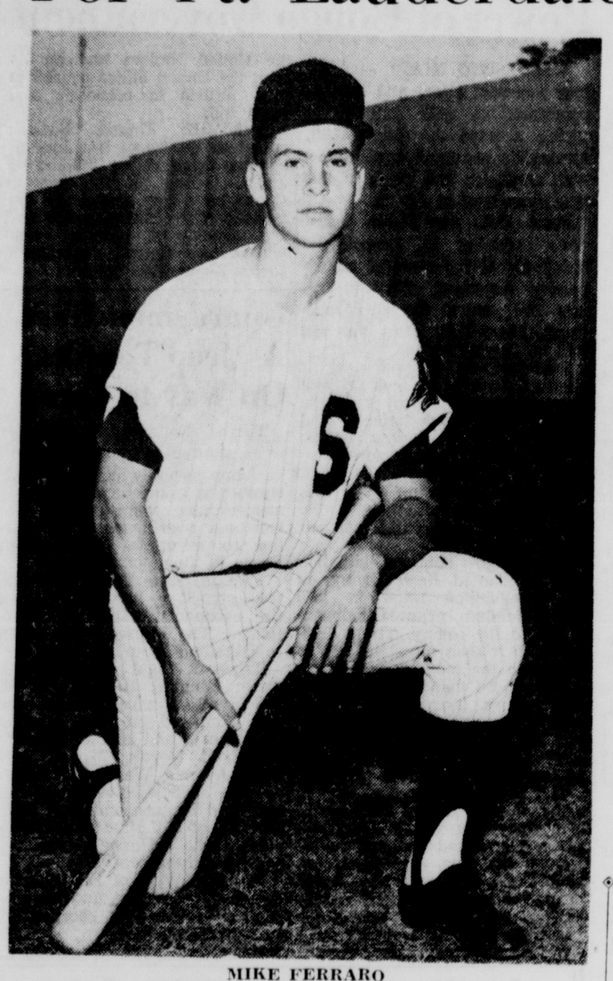
Mike Ferraro Sets Two Marks For Ft. Lauderdale Yankees



MIKE FERRARO

Takes Over Lead In Hitting With .318 Average

Mike Ferraro, on his way to the greatest season of his budding baseball career, set a pair of records this week for the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees. In the process, the former Kingston High athlete, now a bonus player in the Yankee organization, took over the batting lead in the Florida State league.

Ferraro stroked his 130th hit of the season and drove home his 70th run, breaking club records set by Mike Hegan, son of the Yankee coach. Hegan is now in Triple A ball, playing with Columbus.

The Ft. Lauderdale third baseman has boosted his average to .318, having collected 10 hits in his last 23 times to the plate. He has had 23 hits during the month of August.

In addition to leading the circuit with his .318 mark, Ferraro's 70 runs-batted-in are also high. Among his 130 hits are 18 doubles, seven triples and a home run.

Ft. Lauderdale, which won the first half title, is in fourth place in the second half but has copped five straight games. The regular season ends on Sept. 5.

As a result of his accomplishment, the game in which he set the mark was stopped and Ferraro was awarded the game ball.

Pat DeVore Wallops 568 in Summerettes

Pat DeVore his 200, 170 and 198 for a 568 triple in the Summerettes league. Maud Simmons had 207-505, Marilyn Wolven 507. Phils Not Relaxing But Lead by 4 Games

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Mention the word relax and you can see the blood pressure mounting in Gene Mauch, manager of the National League-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

"Can you imagine anybody asking if we can relax a little now that we're in front by several games?" asked Mauch after the Phillies edged the Chicago Cubs 6-5 Wednesday.

"Wes Covington hits a three-run homer in the eighth and we're ahead 4-2. It looks like we're in free. Then, all of a sudden the Cubs have the tying run on base in the ninth.

"Relax — you can't for a single minute in this game. But I'll tell you when we can relax. That's when the mathematicians get on your side and say we're in without any chances of being out."

Seek 6th Straight

The Phillies need a series sweep against the Cubs today to have a six-game winning streak. This would match the longest in the league this season. The St. Louis Cardinals had one earlier.

In his first 87 games, Covington has 69 hits and his homer over the right field bleachers Wednesday padded his RBI's to 44.

"We are thinking about one thing — more W's — that means wins," said Covington. "We're getting them any way we can. Recently in Milwaukee, a .205 hitter (Bobby Wine) got two homers that won a pair for us.

"The big reason we're where we are is being of two magic men — John Quinn (general manager) and Mauch. Mr. Quinn's deals have made this team. He got (Tony) Taylor, (Cookie) Rojas, (Johnny) Callison, (Gus) Triandos, (Jim) Bunning, (Ed) Roebuck, (Tony) Gonzales and (Frank) Thomas.

"Mauch is a great leader and a master juggler. He doesn't believe in a set position for a player who has the skill to play more than one position."

Covington did not include himself in his touch-of-magic summation. He should have. Quinn obtained him from Kansas City for Bobby Del Greco.

Phils Increase NL Margin; Mick Brings Tape Measures

Defeat Cubs As Giants Bow To Cardinals

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants, tripping over former teammate Bill White, have taken the first big tumble in the National League pennant scramble.

White, the slugging first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, slammed three hits and triggered two rallies in a 6-4 victory over the second-place Giants Wednesday night that opened a big gap between the leading pennant contenders.

The defeat, coupled with Philadelphia's 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs, gave the first-place Phillies a four-game lead — the largest margin either team has enjoyed in the season-long struggle for the top spot.

White was with the Giants until the end of the 1958 season when he was found expendable and traded to the Cardinals for pitchers Don Choate and Sam Jones. White is the only one still in the majors, a fixture with the Cardinals and currently the hottest hitter in the league.

The 30-year-old left-handed swinger extended his hitting streak to 20 games against the Giants — tying the majors top mark for the season. During that stretch he has hit at a .432 clip, raising his average from .273 to .310.

White collected a double in the first inning, drove in the Cardinals' first run in a four-run third inning rally with a single, then triggered the winning two-run uprising in the seventh with another single.

18th for Koufax

While the Phillies and Giants continued their team struggle, Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers added to his laurels by posting his 18th victory with a 4-1, five-hit victory over Cincinnnati. In other games, Milwaukee whipped Houston 5-1 and Pittsburgh ended the New York Mets 5-4.

Trailing 2-1 after Ron Santo's homer had put the Cubs out front, the Phillies moved ahead to stay in the eighth when John Briggs stroked a pinch-hit single, Richie Allen walked and Wes Covington tagged Larry Jackson for a homer.

The Phillies added two runs in the ninth on Bobby Wine's single and they proved decisive when the Cubs scored twice in their half before Jack Baldschun pitched out of the jam. It was the Phillies' fifth straight victory.

Defeat O'Toole

Koufax, now 18-5, had a shutout until the seventh when Deron Johnson homered for the Reds. The Dodgers put it out of reach early against Jim O'Toole, 12-5, scoring twice in the second on a single by Tommy Davis, an error, John Roseboro's single and Johnson's fumble of an attempted pickoff.

Eddie Mathews got the job done for the Braves, drilling a homer, double and two singles in support of Tony Cloninger, who balanced his record at 11-11. Cloninger had a five-hit shutout until Dave Roberts produced the Houston run with a two-out homer in the ninth.

Dennis Ribant, making his first major league start for the Mets after being acquired in a trade with the Braves, was tagged for a solo homer by Willie Stargell in the fourth and a three-run shot by Jerry Lynch in the fifth and that proved decisive for the Pirates.

Wins at Finger Lakes

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y. (AP)— Janet Orr scored a 2½-length victory over Solar star in the $1,200 feature race at Finger Lakes race track Wednesday.

Janet Orr covered the six furlongs in 1:15 2-5 to return $5.40, $4.80 and $4.50. Night cover was third.

A crowd of 4,416 wagered $242,890.

Hits 500-Foot Job, One Other In 7-3 Triumph

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle and Sam Bowens.

Each of them hit two homers and made the headlines in the American League Wednesday.

Result: The first place Baltimore Orioles increased their lead to two games over the Chicago White Sox while the New York Yankees remained 3½ games back.

Mantle, veteran Yankee outfielder, hit a tape-measured homer of just over 500 feet and one of 350 feet in the Yankees' 7-3 triumph over the White Sox.

Bowens, rookie outfielder for the Orioles, connected for homers of 375 and 425 feet in Baltimore's 7-0 shutout over the Boston Red Sox.

Mantle's long clout came in the fourth inning off Ray Herbert and was the first to be measured at Yankee Stadium.

The ball went into the center field bleachers over a screen 22 feet 5 inches high at the 461-foot mark. It landed 15 rows back and Danny O'Sullivan, assistant stadium superintendent, said it traveled just over 500 feet on the fly.

3rd In That Sector

It was the third time a homer has been hit in that sector. Larry Doby of Cleveland did it in 1949 and Mantle 10 years ago. This latest Mantle homer, No. 443 of his career, compares to his estimated 600-footer last year against the right field facade in the Stadium and his measured 565-footer in Washington in 1953.

In other AL games, Los Anfeles defeated Cleveland 4-2, Detroit downed Minnesota, 6-2 and Washington edged Kansas City 4-3.

Rookie pitcher Mel Stottlemyre shared the spotlight with Mantle for the Yankees as did veteran Milt Pappas with Bowens for the Orioles.

Stottlemyre, a right-hander up from Richmond of the International League, pitched a seven-hitter and issued only one walk against the White Sox in his first major league start. Pappas yielded only five hits to the Red Sox in recording his fourth shutout of the season.

Piersall Celebrates

Jimmy Piersall celebrated the birth of his ninth child by leading the fourth place Los Angeles Angels to their triumph over Cleveland. He singled home two runs in the second that broke a 1-1 tie and later scored the last Angel run. He went 3-for-5 and also stole a base.

Harmon Killebrew, the major league leader, hit his 40th homer for Minnesota, but Bill Freehan's three-run round-tripper for Detroit more than offset this in the Tigers' triumph.

Jim King's two-run homer in the eighth inning scored the tying and winning runs in Washington's win over Kansas City. It was the A's seventh straight defeat.

Larry Petersen Hits 628 in Mixed League

Larry Petersen stroked a 628 triple in the Ferraro Summer Mixer, shooting 210, 245 and 173. High also included Ellie Howland 503. WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Speedy Scot, harness racing's Horse of the Year in 1963, drew the No. 2 post position Wednesday and immediately was installed the 3-5 favorite to whip six other trotters in the $50,000 American Trotting Championship at Roosevelt Raceway Saturday night.

Stottlemyre, Mantle Give Yankees Lift

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The lift the New York Yankees have been waiting for virtually all season finally may have arrived.

It came — at least for one day — Wednesday from two sources. One was wholly unexpected. The other was from the most natural of all sources.

The unexpected pickup was supplied by a kid pitcher named Mel Stottlemyre, who got his first look at the big city only the day before.

Brought up from their Richmond Va. farm club, the 22-year-old right-hander, in his first big league start, pitched the Yankees to a 7-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. He allowed seven hits and only one base on balls.

Good Hiting Support

And for the first time in seven games, the Yankees gave their pitcher ample batting support. The pace-maker, as might be expected, was Mickey Mantle, who smashed two home runs and a single and scored three times. Clete Boyer and Roger Maris also homered for the Yanks.

One of Mickey's blows, the first, was a Yankee Stadium record-breaker. Hit off right-hander Ray Herbert in the fourth inning, the drive cleared the screen in dead center and landed 15 rows up in the bleachers. The drive was estimated at 500 feet. Only one other ball ever has been hit in that specific sector. The author of that other blow was Mantle, of course.

Even Mickey was impressed by that giantic wallop.

"I never expected it to travel that far," he said. "In fact, I threw my bat down in disgust thinking it was just a big out. Then I saw center fielder Gene Stephens turning around and running as hard as he could. I still didn't believe it would clear the wall.

Daniels Takes Place of Alongi

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Alongi of Miami Beach was found to be suffering from bone chips in his right elbow Wednesday night and declared out of his heavyweight bout against Doug Jones at Madison Square Garden Friday night in the television fight of the week.

Billy Daniels of New York was immediately named to replace Alongi. Daniels, with an 18-5-1 record, was outpointed by Jones in their fight at Teaneck, N.J., last year.

In his first 87 games, Covington has 69 hits and his homer over the right field bleachers Wednesday padded his RBI's to 44.

"We are thinking about one thing — more W's — that means wins," said Covington. "We're getting them any way we can. Recently in Milwaukee, a .205 hitter (Bobby Wine) got two homers that won a pair for us.

"The big reason we're where we are is being of two magic men — John Quinn (general manager) and Mauch. Mr. Quinn's deals have made this team. He got (Tony) Taylor, (Cookie) Rojas, (Johnny) Callison, (Gus) Triandos, (Jim) Bunning, (Ed) Roebuck, (Tony) Gonzales and (Frank) Thomas.

"Mauch is a great leader and a master juggler. He doesn't believe in a set position for a player who has the skil' to play more than one position."

Covington did not include himself in his touch-of-magic summation. He should have. Quinn obtained him from Kansas City for Bobby Del Greco.

Phils Increase NL Margin; Mick Brings Tape Measures

Defeat Cubs As Giants Bow To Cardinals

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants, tripping over former teammate Bill White, have taken the first big tumble in the National League pennant scramble.

White, the slugging first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, slammed three hits and triggered two rallies in a 6-4 victory over the second-place Giants Wednesday night that opened a big gap between the leading pennant contenders.

The defeat, coupled with Philadelphia's 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs, gave the first-place Phillies a four-game lead — the largest margin either team has enjoyed in the season-long struggle for the top spot.

White was with the Giants until the end of the 1958 season when he was found expendable and traded to the Cardinals for pitchers Don Choate and Sam Jones. White is the only one still in the majors, a fixture with the Cardinals and currently the hottest hitter in the league.

The 30-year-old left-handed swinger extended his hitting streak to 20 games against the Giants — tying the majors top mark for the season. During that stretch he has hit at a .432 clip, raising his average from .273 to .310.

White collected a double in the first inning, drove in the Cardinals' first run in a four-run third inning rally with a single, then triggered the winning two-run uprising in the seventh with another single.

18th for Koufax

While the Phillies and Giants continued their team struggle, Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers added to his laurels by posting his 18th victory with a 4-1, five-hit victory over Cincinnnati. In other games, Milwaukee whipped Houston 5-1 and Pittsburgh ended the New York Mets 5-4.

Trailing 2-1 after Ron Santo's homer had put the Cubs out front, the Phillies moved ahead to stay in the eighth when John Briggs stroked a pinch-hit single, Richie Allen walked and Wes Covington tagged Larry Jackson for a homer.

The Phillies added two runs in the ninth on Bobby Wine's single and they proved decisive when the Cubs scored twice in their half before Jack Baldschun pitched out of the jam. It was the Phillies' fifth straight victory.

Defeat O'Toole

Koufax, now 18-5, had a shutout until the seventh when Deron Johnson homered for the Reds. The Dodgers put it out of reach early against Jim O'Toole, 12-5, scoring twice in the second on a single by Tommy Davis, an error, John Roseboro's single and Johnson's fumble of an attempted pickoff.

Eddie Mathews got the job done for the Braves, drilling a homer, double and two singles in support of Tony Cloninger, who balanced his record at 11-11. Cloninger had a five-hit shutout until Dave Roberts produced the Houston run with a two-out homer in the ninth.

Dennis Ribant, making his first major league start for the Mets after being acquired in a trade with the Braves, was tagged for a solo homer by Willie Stargell in the fourth and a three-run shot by Jerry Lynch in the fifth and that proved decisive for the Pirates.

Wins at Finger Lakes

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y. (AP)— Janet Orr scored a 2½-length victory over Solar star in the $1,200 feature race at Finger Lakes race track Wednesday.

Janet Orr covered the six furlongs in 1:15 2-5 to return $5.40, $4.80 and $4.50. Night cover was third.

A crowd of 4,416 wagered $242,890.

Hits 500-Foot Job, One Other In 7-3 Triumph

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle and Sam Bowens.

Each of them hit two homers and made the headlines in the American League Wednesday.

Result: The first place Baltimore Orioles increased their lead to two games over the Chicago White Sox while the New York Yankees remained 3½ games back.

Mantle, veteran Yankee outfielder, hit a tape-measured homer of just over 500 feet and one of 350 feet in the Yankees' 7-3 triumph over the White Sox.

Bowens, rookie outfielder for the Orioles, connected for homers of 375 and 425 feet in Baltimore's 7-0 shutout over the Boston Red Sox.

Mantle's long clout came in the fourth inning off Ray Herbert and was the first to be measured at Yankee Stadium.

The ball went into the center field bleachers over a screen 22 feet 5 inches high at the 461-foot mark. It landed 15 rows back and Danny O'Sullivan, assistant stadium superintendent, said it traveled just over 500 feet on the fly.

3rd In That Sector

It was the third time a homer has been hit in that sector. Larry Doby of Cleveland did it in 1949 and Mantle 10 years ago. This latest Mantle homer, No. 443 of his career, compares to his estimated 600-footer last year against the right field facade in the Stadium and his measured 565-footer in Washington in 1953.

In other AL games, Los Anfeles defeated Cleveland 4-2, Detroit downed Minnesota, 6-2 and Washington edged Kansas City 4-3.

Rookie pitcher Mel Stottlemyre shared the spotlight with Mantle for the Yankees as did veteran Milt Pappas with Bowens for the Orioles.

Stottlemyre, a right-hander up from Richmond of the International League, pitched a seven-hitter and issued only one walk against the White Sox in his first major league start. Pappas yielded only five hits to the Red Sox in recording his fourth shutout of the season.

Piersall Celebrates

Jimmy Piersall celebrated the birth of his ninth child by leading the fourth place Los Angeles Angels to their triumph over Cleveland. He singled home two runs in the second that broke a 1-1 tie and later scored the last Angel run. He went 3-for-5 and also stole a base.

Harmon Killebrew, the major league leader, hit his 40th homer for Minnesota, but Bill Freehan's three-run round-tripper for Detroit more than offset this in the Tigers' triumph.

Jim King's two-run homer in the eighth inning scored the tying and winning runs in Washington's win over Kansas City. It was the A's seventh straight defeat.

Larry Petersen Hits 628 in Mixed League

Larry Petersen stroked a 628 triple in the Ferraro Summer Mixer, shooting 210, 245 and 173. High also included Ellie Howland 503. WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Speedy Scot, harness racing's Horse of the Year in 1963, drew the No. 2 post position Wednesday and immediately was installed the 3-5 favorite to whip six other trotters in the $50,000 American Trotting Championship at Roosevelt Raceway Saturday night.

Stottlemyre, Mantle Give Yankees Lift

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The lift the New York Yankees have been waiting for virtually all season finally may have arrived.

It came — at least for one day — Wednesday from two sources. One was wholly unexpected. The other was from the most natural of all sources.

The unexpected pickup was supplied by a kid pitcher named Mel Stottlemyre, who got his first look at the big city only the day before.

Brought up from their Richmond Va. farm club, the 22-year-old right-hander, in his first big league start, pitched the Yankees to a 7-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. He allowed seven hits and only one base on balls.

Good Hiting Support

And for the first time in seven games, the Yankees gave their pitcher ample batting support. The pace-maker, as might be expected, was Mickey Mantle, who smashed two home runs and a single and scored three times. Clete Boyer and Roger Maris also homered for the Yanks.

One of Mickey's blows, the first, was a Yankee Stadium record-breaker. Hit off right-hander Ray Herbert in the fourth inning, the drive cleared the screen in dead center and landed 15 rows up in the bleachers. The drive was estimated at 500 feet. Only one other ball ever has been hit in that specific sector. The author of that other blow was Mantle, of course.

Even Mickey was impressed by that giantic wallop.

"I never expected it to travel that far," he said. "In fact, I threw my bat down in disgust thinking it was just a big out. Then I saw center fielder Gene Stephens turning around and running as hard as he could. I still didn't believe it would clear the wall.

Daniels Takes Place of Alongi

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Alongi of Miami Beach was found to be suffering from bone chips in his right elbow Wednesday night and declared out of his heavyweight bout against Doug Jones at Madison Square Garden Friday night in the television fight of the week.

Billy Daniels of New York was immediately named to replace Alongi. Daniels, with an 18-5-1 record, was outpointed by Jones in their fight at Teaneck, N.J., last year.

Armstrong-Commanche, Subway Win

Defeat Hi-Lo G-G's in First Playoff Tilts

Regular season champion Armstrong - Commanche and third place Subway Grill won opening games of the City Softball league semi-final playoffs last night.

Armstrong-Commanche scored four runs in the seventh and held off a belated Hi-Lo rally to capture a 6-3 contest at Block Park.

Subway came from behind with a four run rally in the third frame to defeat G-G's Rest, 6-4, at Upper Hasbrouck.

Bill Costello spun a five-hitter for Armstrong. His wildness kept him in hot water. Costello issued seven walks and fanned the same number.

Hobie Armstrong slammed a home run and George Kithcart tripled as the winners had 10 hits off Joe Amato Sr.

Bullet Bob Lasher went the distance for Subway, giving up five safeties. Bernie Schlanger, Ron Scheffel and Bob Martin doubled to pace the attack on George Norton.

The same clubs will got at it again Monday with Armstrong-Commanche and Hi-Lo meeting at Upper Hasbrouck and the Subway-G-G's duel taking place at Block.

Eight Top Pacers Set For George Levy Race

MONTICELLO — George Sholty's Bengazi Hanover has drawn the number two hole and is the 3-1 early favorite as eight of the top three-year-olds in the country go postward Friday in the George M. Levy Pace for colts and geldings with a purse of $13,923 on the line.

Bengazi Hanover appears here after a second place finish in the Messenger Stakes last week at Roosevelt Raceway. The Tar Heel colt finished only a neck behind front running Race Time in the snappy time of 2:01.2.

The Chief Opponent

Chief opposition is expected to come from Vicar Hanover, to be driven by the veteran Bill Haughton. Vicar Hanover, a fifth place finisher in the Messenger, will leave from the five hole. Sheer Genius, coupled in the betting with Vicar Hanover, drew the number eight post. No driver is listed as yet.

Most of the other horses in the Messenger field are entered. Local favorite Mercury Don, the long shot in the race, will start from post one and will have Percy Davis in the sulky.

The rest of the field will include Lyss Hanover (Vernon Dancer), post three; Red Carpet (Clarence Martin), post four; Lopez Hanover (Bill Gilmour), post six; Iron Rail (No driver), post seven.

Last year's race went in a blistering 2:00.2 as Overtrick beat a top notch field. Tonight's race might go a shade faster, especially if the track is in its usual excellent shape.

The race is named for George Morton Levy, the individual who was most responsible in popularizing night harness racing and the founder of Roosevelt Raceway, now in its 25th year.

Co-features on Friday's top program are a $3,500 Invitational Trot and a $3,500 Invitational Pace, both of them handicap races. Kenland Squaw, a winner the last time out, has been assigned the outside six post and is the morning line favorite in the trot feature. Pocomoonshine, a second place finisher in the recent New York Sire Stakes, has been assigned post eight in the pace.

One of the largest Friday night crowds of the season is expected to sit in on the action. The usual 9:05 post time for the first race will prevail with daily double windows closing ten minutes earlier.

Cardinals Get Much Support In Eastern Division Race

By JACK HAND ...
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP) — On the theory that the St. Louis Cardinals matured in the heat of the rousing four-club race in 1963, many pro football observers are tabbing Wally Lemm's club for the Eastern championship in the National Football League this season.

The Cards came close last year although they finished third. With three games to go they were locked in a three-way tie for first with New York and Cleveland. Only a last game defeat by Dallas cost them a piece of second place. Their 9-5 record was the teams best since 1948.

"When you get in contention you are hurt if you don't have experience," said Lemm at the training camp at Lake Forest College where he used to coach. "None of our boys had played with a contender except Joe Childress and Jimmy Hill in 1956. I think we matured last year under real pressure. Now we know how it feels.

Counting on Crow

"The loss of Bill Triplett (out for the season with a lung condition) has to hurt. If John David Crow can pick us up we'll be all right. Crow has torn adhesions after an operation but we expect him back before the opener."

Lemm is high on Charley Johnson, who has come to be recognized as one of the best—if not the best—young quarterback in the league.

Johnson, of course, is the key to the Cards' attack. Sonny Randle, the tricky split end, is one of the best receivers in the league and he knows all the moves. Bobby Joe Conrad, the flanker, led the NFL with 73 receptions last season.

Taz Anderson and Jackie Smith, the tight ends are good receivers. So are halfback Prentice Gautt, out all last year with injuries, and fullback Childress.

Lemm counts on Gautt and Childress to carry the running attack and hopes for help from Crow, Bob Paremore and Bill (Thunder) Thornton. Rookie Willie Crenshaw of Kansas State was to have been a defensive back but his play in the All-Star games convinced Lemm to give him a chance at offense.

Four of the defensive men were rookies last year—tackle Sam Silas, end Don Burmm, linebacker Larry Stallings and safety Jerry Stovall, who also is the punter. Lemm expects all to improve. Veterans Joe Robb and Luke Owens join Silas and Brumm on the front four. Dale Meinert, the defensive captain, is a top flight middle linebacker and Bill Koman is a standout at right linebacker.

Spence Wins Decision

Learning Fast

MINNEAPOLIS — (NEA) — Quarterback Fran Tarkenton is entering his fourth year with the Minnesota Vikings, and already he sounds like a veteran. Asked about the 1964 rookies, he replied, "the best crop we've ever had."

Ed Palladino's MR Selections

BEST BET — Nevele Surprise (8th).

UPSET CHANCE — Rebel Land Chick (7th).

1. GUY BURKE broke in previous start and still finished third. PERFECT FREIGHT seeks third straight. LEONARD'S DREAM was just nipped the last time.

2. STRONGHOLD has shown some solid efforts. Should handle this field. AIR SIGN will be close at the finish. ANDY MINBAR is in and out.

3. FIRST EDITION broke the last time. Will be tough with Grundy. FORESIGHT a consistently fine pacer. REBECCA ADIOS after second straight.

4. HAIL ADIOS in hands of a capable reinsman. The one to beat. GALBUC can go wire to wire. MISSILE HANOVER still seeks that first win. Will be tough if on stride.

5. MOON HAVEN has been getting better. Maybe now. JUNE LAND always goes well at Monticello. FRIEDA'S FREIGHT doesn't show a thing.

6. LADY EDEN gets the call in a wide open battle. Can close better than the rest. HAPPY CARDINAL shows a couple of good qualifying efforts. LORD MELBURN can take it all with a well-rated drive.

7. FRISKY PRINCE made gallant effort the last time. Can do it here. REBEL LAND CHICK did well at Saratoga. A good upset chance. NEVELE HANOVER is hampered by the post. Will be tough to beat.

8. NEVELE SURPRISE was making a move the last time but was involved in a three-horse mishap. The night's best bet. SAL'S MITE always close but very seldom wins. ARMY HANOVER was lucky the last time.

9. PRINCESS NORRIS can't go much lower. Has the class to down this field. WILBUR BLACKSTONE closes with a rush. KNIGHT FROST seeks initial win.

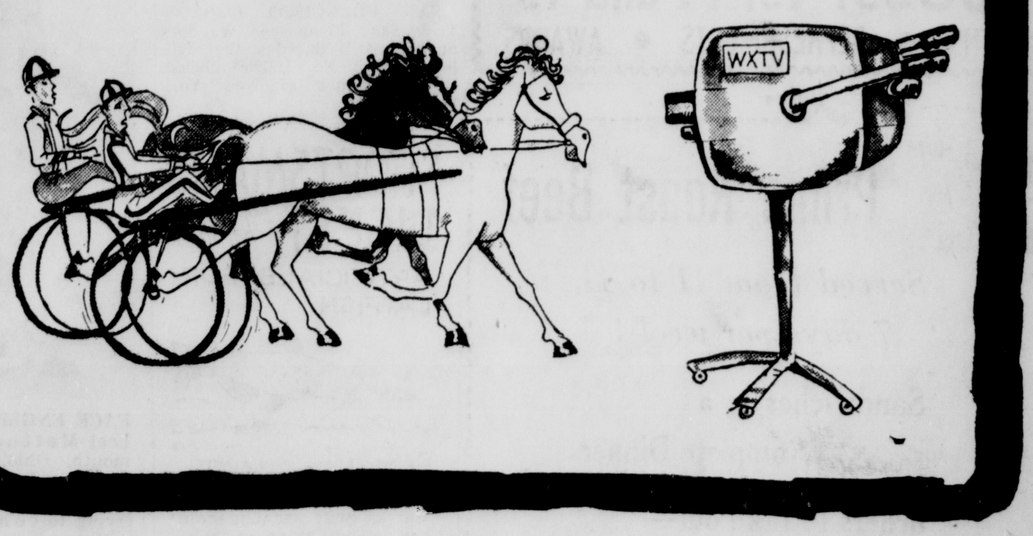
"WELL, THAT'S SHOW BIZ!!"



Every night the fillies, colts, mares, horses and geldings powder their noses for the TV cameras that follow them around the oval at the "MIGHTY M". Actually, our interest isn't in glamor, but in accuracy. You see, MONTICELLO RACEWAY has installed the most modern system of race filming available for recording the action of every race. There are two television cameras that do the recording in addition to providing the picture you see on the many TV monitors located around the track. The film is available to the judges, if called for, immediately after each race. The judges can check the minutest detail at a moment's notice. Thus, when objections or claims of irregularities are raised, these films provide incontestable proof of the way the race went. Just another reason why MONTICELLO RACEWAY is the place to go for fun and thrills.

Many more interesting facts, figures and legends about pacers and trotters in "YOUR GUIDE TO HARNESS RACING." Write for it today, or better yet, pick one up at the track . . . they're free.

4. HAIL ADIOS in hands of a capable reinsman. The one to beat. GALBUC can go wire to wire. MISSILE HANOVER still seeks that first win. Will be tough if on stride.

5. MOON HAVEN has been getting better. Maybe now. JUNE LAND always goes well at Monticello. FRIEDA'S FREIGHT doesn't show a thing.

6. LADY EDEN gets the call in a wide open battle. Can close better than the rest. HAPPY CARDINAL shows a couple of good qualifying efforts. LORD MELBURN can take it all with a well-rated drive.

7. FRISKY PRINCE made gallant effort the last time. Can do it here. REBEL LAND CHICK did well at Saratoga. A good upset chance. NEVELE HANOVER is hampered by the post. Will be tough to beat.

8. NEVELE SURPRISE was making a move the last time but was involved in a three-horse mishap. The night's best bet. SAL'S MITE always close but very seldom wins. ARMY HANOVER was lucky the last time.

9. PRINCESS NORRIS can't go much lower. Has the class to down this field. WILBUR BLACKSTONE closes with a rush. KNIGHT FROST seeks initial win.

A Bit Stingy

DETROIT — (NEA) — Earl Morrall and Milt Plum, the Detroit Lions' quarterbacks, are ranked first and third in the all-time National Football League record books for fewest passes intercepted. The record is based on 1,000 or more attempts.

Morrall has allowed just 63 interceptions while Plum has allowed 71. John Bodie of San Francisco is second with 64.

Eight Top Pacers Set For George Levy Race

MONTICELLO — George Sholty's Bengazi Hanover has drawn the number two hole and is the 3-1 early favorite as eight of the top three-year-olds in the country go postward Friday in the George M. Levy Pace for colts and geldings with a purse of $13,923 on the line.

Bengazi Hanover appears here after a second place finish in the Messenger Stakes last week at Roosevelt Raceway. The Tar Heel colt finished only a neck behind front running Race Time in the snappy time of 2:01.2.

The Chief Opponent

Chief opposition is expected to come from Vicar Hanover, to be driven by the veteran Bill Haughton. Vicar Hanover, a fifth place finisher in the Messenger, will leave from the five hole. Sheer Genius, coupled in the betting with Vicar Hanover, drew the number eight post. No driver is listed as yet.

Most of the other horses in the Messenger field are entered. Local favorite Mercury Don, the long shot in the race, will start from post one and will have Percy Davis in the sulky.

The rest of the field will include Lyss Hanover (Vernon Dancer), post three; Red Carpet (Clarence Martin), post four; Lopez Hanover (Bill Gilmour), post six; Iron Rail (No driver), post seven.

Last year's race went in a blistering 2:00.2 as Overtrick beat a top notch field. Tonight's race might go a shade faster, especially if the track is in its usual excellent shape.

The race is named for George Morton Levy, the individual who was most responsible in popularizing night harness racing and the founder of Roosevelt Raceway, now in its 25th year.

Co-features on Friday's top program are a $3,500 Invitational Trot and a $3,500 Invitational Pace, both of them handicap races. Kenland Squaw, a winner the last time out, has been assigned the outside six post and is the morning line favorite in the trot feature. Pocomoonshine, a second place finisher in the recent New York Sire Stakes, has been assigned post eight in the pace.

One of the largest Friday night crowds of the season is expected to sit in on the action. The usual 9:05 post time for the first race will prevail with daily double windows closing ten minutes earlier.

Cardinals Get Much Support In Eastern Division Race

By JACK HAND ...
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP) — On the theory that the St. Louis Cardinals matured in the heat of the rousing four-club race in 1963, many pro football observers are tabbing Wally Lemm's club for the Eastern championship in the National Football League this season.

The Cards came close last year although they finished third. With three games to go they were locked in a three-way tie for first with New York and Cleveland. Only a last game defeat by Dallas cost them a piece of second place. Their 9-5 record was the teams best since 1948.

"When you get in contention you are hurt if you don't have experience," said Lemm at the training camp at Lake Forest College where he used to coach. "None of our boys had played with a contender except Joe Childress and Jimmy Hill in 1956. I think we matured last year under real pressure. Now we know how it feels.

Counting on Crow

"The loss of Bill Triplett (out for the season with a lung condition) has to hurt. If John David Crow can pick us up we'll be all right. Crow has torn adhesions after an operation but we expect him back before the opener."

Lemm is high on Charley Johnson, who has come to be recognized as one of the best—if not the best—young quarterback in the league.

Johnson, of course, is the key to the Cards' attack. Sonny Randle, the tricky split end, is one of the best receivers in the league and he knows all the moves. Bobby Joe Conrad, the flanker, led the NFL with 73 receptions last season.

Taz Anderson and Jackie Smith, the tight end are good receivers. So are halfback Prentice Gautt, out all last year with injuries, and fullback Childress.

Lemm counts on Gautt and Childress to carry the running attack and hopes for help from Crow, Bob Paremore and Bill (Thunder) Thornton. Rookie Willie Crenshaw of Kansas State was to have been a defensive back but his play in the All-Star games convinced Lemm to give him a chance at offense.

Four of the defensive men were rookies last year—tackle Sam Silas, end Don Burmm, linebacker Larry Stallings and safety Jerry Stovall, who also is the punter. Lemm expects all to improve. Veterans Joe Robb and Luke Owens join Silas and Brumm on the front four. Dale Meinert, the defensive captain, is a top flight middle linebacker and Bill Koman is a standout at right linebacker.

Spence Wins Decision

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Ed Spence, 153, of Pittsfield gained a eight-round split decision over Willie James, 152, of Miami Beach Wednesday night in the featured boxing bout at Waconah Park.

MINNEAPOLIS — (NEA) — Quarterback Fran Tarkenton is entering his fourth year with the Minnesota Vikings, and already he sounds like a veteran. Asked about the 1964 rookies, he replied, "the best crop we've ever had."

Every night the fillies, colts, mares, horses and geldings powder their noses for the TV cameras that follow them around the oval at the "MIGHTY M". Actually, our interest isn't in glamor, but in accuracy. You see, MONTICELLO RACEWAY has installed the most modern system of race filming available for recording the action of every race. There are two television cameras that do the recording in addition to providing the picture you see on the many TV monitors located around the track. The film is available to the judges, if called for, immediately after each race. The judges can check the minutest detail at a moment's notice. Thus, when objections or claims of irregularities are raised, these films provide incontestable proof of the way the race went. Just another reason why MONTICELLO RACEWAY is the place to go for fun and thrills.

BETWEEN YOU 'N' ME ... by MURRAY

MONTREAL, Canada — (NEA) — I've got a tip for the pro football coaches of Ameria. I know where there's a quarterback who can launch footballs 50 and 60 yards in the air with more accuracy than Ranger 7. He is quick and tough enough to play defensive back, which he once did. And he calls signals like a Rhodes scholar, which he almost was.

His name is Russ Jackson, and the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants wouldn't worry what might happen to John Unitas and Y. A. Tittle if they had him.

The only catch is, they can't get him. He belongs to the Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian league and intends to keep it that way.

RUSS JACKSON

"He could play anywhere in the National League," says Coach Joe Trimble of the Montreal Alouettes, who qualifies for comparison purposes because he once coached the Philadelphia Eagles. "Maybe not two years ago because he couldn't throw long then. But he can now."

He looked good to me, and Trimble, in a pre-season tune up here in which he demolished the Alouettes with his passes, long and short. He sets up fast, throws sharply, hitting his receiver on the break, and he can take the gaff.

There are 140 American kids with extensive college training playing pro football in Canada, but the most valuable player in the country last year was Russ Thomas, who went to little McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario, because it was only three blocks from his home.

He is an impressive young man of 28 — 6-1 and 200 pounds with the upper torso of a wrestler (I'm top heavy," grins Russ) and a broad, square-chiseled face that shows a lot of teeth when he smiles. Since he makes some $40,000 a year out of several activities, he smiles a lot.

The quarterback heroes of Canadian football have been Sam Etch-everry of Albuquerque, N.M., and Jackie Parker of Starkville, Miss. Jackson, say Trimble and Coach Frank Clair of the Roughriders, is right up there with them as an all-time great.

He is also head of the mathematics department at Rideau High School in Ottawa, with 14 teachers under him to service 2,000 students. He had a choice of playing football or accepting a nomination for a Rhodes scholarship out of college in 1958.

The Canadian as a quarterback," admits Russ, "still isn't accepted here. Let's face it, the American football player has made our game."

Russ gambled on football — and wound up playing defensive back as a rookie to become a quarterback, he beat out Frank Tripucka, who had been an All-American at Notre Dame, a regular in the NFL and only last season bowed out in the AFL after 14 years.

Six years ago, Russ' main asset was to run for his life around end on rollout options that are effective in Canadian ball because the field is 12 yards wider. In 1960 he bruised his ribs and discovered the prudence of throwing the ball over big guys instead of scampering around them. Last year he was second to hockey's Gordie Howe in the voting for Canada's Top Athlete of 1963.

This makes him the Y. A. Tittle of the North, with hair and a 10-year edge. And no import tariff.

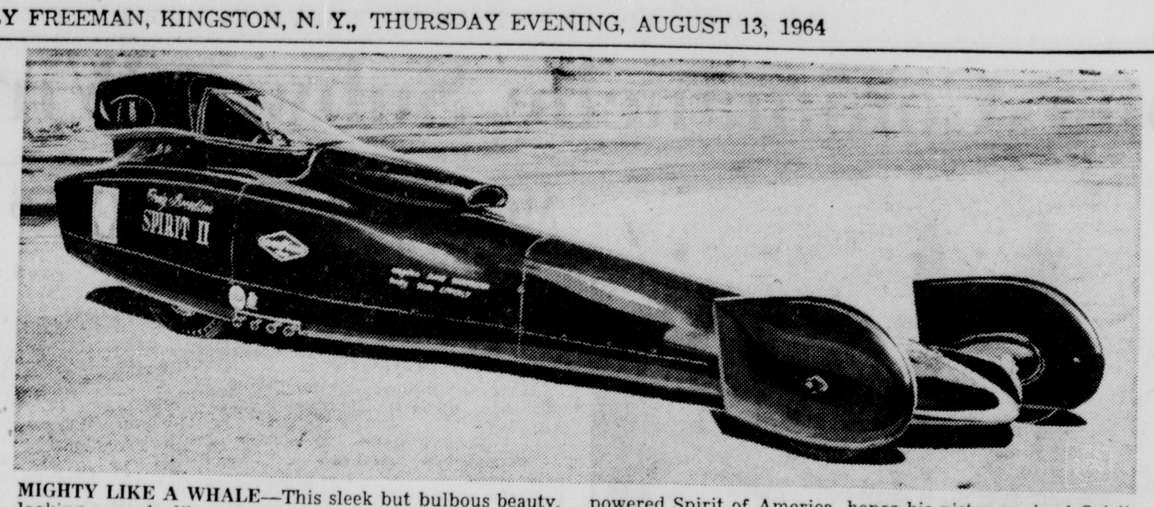
ARTIFICIALS FOR CATFISH

CATFISH FEED UPON ALMOST ANYTHING THEY CAN MOUTH. VARIOUS "STINK," OR BLOOD BAITS MAY BE BEST BECAUSE "CATS" FEED MAINLY BY SCENT, BUT, ALL CATFISH WILL TAKE MINNOWS, NYMPHS, ETC., BY SIGHT. THUS, ARTIFICIALS MAY BE USED, ESPECIALLY FOR BLUE, CHANNEL, AND WHITE CATFISH.

USE DARK STREAMERS, PLUGS, ETC., SLOWLY AND JUST OFF THE BOTTOM; BASS BUGS AND SURFACE LURES WORK SOMETIMES, BUT CATS FEED MOSTLY ON THE BOTTOM. TWILIGHT AND NIGHT ARE BEST TIMES.

FISH A STREAM'S DEEP RUNS AND RIFFLES, OR A LAKE'S SHALLOWS AT NIGHT.



MIGHTY LIKE A WHALE—This sleek but bulbous beauty, looking vaguely like a big fish out of water, is actually a futuristic aluminum dragster designed by Craig Breedlove. Breedlove, who set a world land speed record in his jet-powered Spirit of America, hopes his piston-engined Spirit II will set quarter-mile drag records by consistently reaching 200 miles per hour or more this summer on drag strips throughout the country.

Aussie Cuppers Favored to Win

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Australia's Davis Cup tennis team, anchored by Roy Emerson, is heavily favored to defeat Chile in the American Zone finals opening Friday.

Emerson won the Wimbledon singles championship this year and the U.S. title last year.

Teamed with him are Fred Stolle, runner-up at Wimbledon the past two years; John Newcombe, Tony Roche and Owen Davidson.

BETWEEN YOU 'N' ME ... by MURRAY

MONTREAL, Canada — (NEA) — I've got a tip for the pro football coaches of Ameria. I know where there's a quarterback who can launch footballs 50 and 60 yards in the air with more accuracy than Ranger 7. He is quick and tough enough to play defensive back, which he once did. And he calls signals like a Rhodes scholar, which he almost was.

His name is Russ Jackson, and the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants wouldn't worry what might happen to John Unitas and Y. A. Tittle if they had him.

The only catch is, they can't get him. He belongs to the Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian league and intends to keep it that way.

RUSS JACKSON

"He could play anywhere in the National League," says Coach Joe Trimble of the Montreal Alouettes, who qualifies for comparison purposes because he once coached the Philadelphia Eagles. "Maybe not two years ago because he couldn't throw long then. But he can now."

He looked good to me, and Trimble, in a pre-season tune up here in which he demolished the Alouettes with his passes, long and short. He sets up fast, throws sharply, hitting his receiver on the break, and he can take the gaff.

There are 140 American kids with extensive college training playing pro football in Canada, but the most valuable player in the country last year was Russ Thomas, who went to little McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario, because it was only three blocks from his home.

He is an impressive young man of 28 — 6-1 and 200 pounds with the upper torso of a wrestler (I'm top heavy," grins Russ) and a broad, square-chiseled face that shows a lot of teeth when he smiles. Since he makes some $40,000 a year out of several activities, he smiles a lot.

The quarterback heroes of Canadian football have been Sam Etch-everry of Albuquerque, N.M., and Jackie Parker of Starkville, Miss. Jackson, say Trimble and Coach Frank Clair of the Roughriders, is right up there with them as an all-time great.

He is also head of the mathematics department at Rideau High School in Ottawa, with 14 teachers under him to service 2,000 students. He had a choice of playing football or accepting a nomination for a Rhodes scholarship out of college in 1958.

The Canadian as a quarterback," admits Russ, "still isn't accepted here. Let's face it, the American football player has made our game."

Russ gambled on football — and wound up playing defensive back as a rookie to become a quarterback, he beat out Frank Tripucka, who had been an All-American at Notre Dame, a regular in the NFL and only last season bowed out in the AFL after 14 years.

Six years ago, Russ' main asset was to run for his life around end on rollout options that are effective in Canadian ball because the field is 12 yards wider. In 1960 he bruised his ribs and discovered the prudence of throwing the ball over big guys instead of scampering around them. Last year he was second to hockey's Gordie Howie in the voting for Canada's Top Athlete of 1963.

This makes him the Y. A. Tittle of the North, with hair and a 10-year edge. And no import tariff.

CONTINUOUS VIGIL — Armed East German soldiers stand atop portion of the Communist-built wall which divides the city of Berlin. The guard is kept to watch for possible escape attempts from the Red sector since the barrier was built three years ago.

Supervisors Due To Act Tonight On Naming Spur

Ulster County Board of Supervisors at a regular monthly meeting at 8 p. m. today, is expected to approve a resolution urging the State Legislature to name Interstate Highway 587, a local arterial spur, the George F. Chandler Drive.

The Common Council at its August 4 meeting adopted a resolution which makes possible a measure to name the highway in tribute to Col. George F. Chandler, prominent Kingstonian and founder of the New York State Police.

Tonight's resolution will be offered by Supervisor James A. Rapp (R-First Ward).

Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who proposed the Council resolution, will also propose in a letter to the Board of Supervisors, passage of a follow-up resolution. The Assemblyman notes that local resolutions will enable State Senator E. Ogden Bush and himself to introduce a necessary measure in the State Legislature.

Action is expected to be taken by the Board tonight on a $20,000 capital note to provide for repairs involving plumbing, heating and electrical work at the county-owned building at 74 John Street.

The John Street property presently houses the Board of Elections, the Extension Service Agricultural Department and the 4-H Clubs of Ulster County. Upon completion of the new County office building at Main and Fair Streets, the Board of Elections will move into offices there. The Extension Service Home Demonstration Department, will move into the John Street building at a later date.

Romney's Stand

Michigan Gov. George Romney, who has been cool toward the ticket, said he was accepting the party's decisions on platform and nominees.

Romney flew home to Lansing from the Hershey meeting Wednesday night and issued a brief statement that offered no personal endorsement of the Arizona conservative's presidential candidacy.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton was host for the Hershey meeting, but he wasn't a very talkative one when it was over. "Both the approach made and the feeling engendered was very good," he said.

Reed Gets Into Line

One governor who had withheld his support — John H. Reed of Maine — was quoted as saying he's now behind the ticket.

Goldwater told a news conference his unity drive is three weeks ahead of schedule. He said the party is as solid now as he had hoped it would be by Sept. 1.

"We now have, I believe, only two senators and a few congressmen on the reluctant list," he said.

Among them: Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York. They were not at the Hershey session, and neither indicated his stand has changed.

"They're free and 21 and they can do what they want to," Goldwater said of the New York senators.

Exam Announced For Coast Guard Academy Dec. 5

Congressman J. Ernest Wharton announced today that the annual competition for entrance into the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will start with the administration of the College Entrance Examination Board Tests Dec. 5.

He emphasized the opportunity offered qualified young men who choose this four-year course which leads to a commission as a career officer in America's oldest continuous seagoing Armed Service which also provides for a bachelor of science degree.

"Appointments are made on a competitive basis;" Congressman Wharton said, "there are no separate quotas for states or districts and no special categories. I urge all qualified young men who are interested in this worthwhile profession to write for details and application as soon as possible, to the Commandant (PTP-2), U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., 20226."

A candidate for the next examination for the Academy must be single; must have reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1965, and must be in excellent physical condition.

A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30, 1965 are eligible to take the exam if they will have at least 15 credits by that time. All applicants must have three units of English, two in algebra, and one in plane geometry by graduation.

Jersey Cites

Brien estimated that between 200 and 300 store windows were broken in the Fourth Ward. A flaming gasoline bomb struck a bus, but caused little damage.

Two newspapermen — photographer Mel Finkelstein and reporter Mike Pearl of the New York Journal-American — suffered cuts and bruises when a brick flew through their car window in Paterson.

Some 150 policemen scoured halls and alleys in the Negro district for hit-and-run bands of youths who hurled empty wine bottles.

Paterson Mayor Frank X. Graves, at the scene, said he would decide today whether to impose a curfew for the coming weekend. Bottles narrowly missed him on several occasions.

Graves called the disturbances "more of a racial outbreak" than those of Tuesday night.

In Elizabeth, the brief riot climaxed a tense night in which an estimated 500 Negroes and whites congregated at one point near the Pioneer homes, a low-income project.

Gasoline bombs flew from atop and behind the project, and exploded in the street. Store windows were smashed.

Twenty standby police cars screeched into the area. Officers alighted, firing pistol shots in the air and wielding nightsticks. It took them only minutes to clear away knots of Negroes. The streets quieted as suddenly as they had erupted.

A communication was received from Richard Whalen, general manager of IBM requesting the Town Board to limit the speed on Boice's Lane and Neighborhood Road to 35 miles per hour.

Board members noted this cannot be done without permission from the New York Traffic Commission. The Board authorized Supervisor Banyo to forward the request on behalf of the Board and the IBM executive to the Traffic Commission.

About a year ago a similar request was denied by the State commission.

Kennedy Is Not Having Operation On Broken Back

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward C. Kennedy, D-Mass., will not require an operation on his back which was broken in a plane crash June 19, a team of doctors said today.

Dr. Herbert D. Adams, surgeon in chief of New England Baptist Hospital, said the youngest brother of the late President John F. Kennedy is making "excellent progress, a really remarkalbe recovery."

The doctor said, however, that Kennedy will have to spend six months in the stretcher-like frame in which he is immobilized. He has been in an orthopedic bed ever since the accident.

Dr. George Hammond, an orthopedic surgeon, estimated that sometime in January Kennedy will be able to return to "adult activity."

Adams Stairway

cient height and depth so that a child could go up and down with ease. The sides would be so constructed that the children could not go off the steps and into the foliage.

"This stairway would have many desirable features not now obvious in a sidewalk on Delaware Avenue. It would eliminate the childrens' crossing Delaware Avenue. It would eliminate driver frustration during icy days. It would most certainly eliminate a donnybrook this fall in the Fifth Ward.

Warns Against Politics

"I am sure there will be objections, and they are welcomed, as long as they are not politically motivated.

"Having been an alderman, I know what the alderman do, they do from a sincere conviction that it is the right solution. The time is fast approaching when the Board of Public Works must start the job, or it will be too late this year. So I say to the Common Council, the mayor and the board: Come on boys, give the kids a break. I am sure those who live there will thank you."

Mayor Schwenk said this morning:

Discussed Before

"I heard Mr. Adams' statement on the radio, in which he proposes a stariway off Yeomans Street leading up to the sidewalk alongside of Hasbrouck Park on Delaware Avenue.

"This idea was discussed several months ago, but since it was not considered as desirable as sidewalks on the north side of Delaware Avenue, it was not given serious consideration.

"However, I would be glad to have Mr. Adams come to the office and explain his proposal further, as his idea may be slightly different, and in any case, it would be impossible to give it thorough consideration from the brief description given over the radio."

May Need Autopsy

SHAFTSBURY, Vt. (AP)—An Albany, N. Y., man died early today in the driveway of a Shaftsbury home and state police said an autopsy may be performed to determine the cause of death.

Police identified the man as Thomas Gazetas, 47. They said he was in his car with a woman companion when he complained he was not feeling well.

She sought help at a house and when she returned, she said she found his body sprawled on the ground beside the car.

Margin Buying Amplifies Potential Profits & Losses

Q) "I have been reading about buying stock on margin. What does this mean?" — D. C.

A) When using margin, the buyer in effect uses his broker's money to finance part of his purchases. Under today's rules, for instance, your broker can lend you 30 per cent of the purchase price of listed shares if you put up the other 70 per cent. In so doing, you will of course have to pay interest on the funds borrowed until the loan is paid off.

Margin transactions are used primarily by speculators who wish to increase the profit potentials of their available cash. However, if the stock falls in price, this also means a larger potential loss.

During a steep market sell-off your broker may ask you to put up more cash to maintain the required amount of equity. And if you're unable to do so, he will be forced to sell your shares at a steep loss.

Q) "I am ill, under doctor's care and need income. What do you think of my stocks? They are Consumers Power; Niagara Mohawk Power; Westinghouse Electric; Tennessee Gas Transmission; American Can; Duquesne Light. I am especially concerned about Westinghouse and Tennessee Gas." — A. B.

A) I am very sorry to learn of your illness, which I hope will be only temporary.

You have an excellent list of stocks for income except the two you have singled out for concern. Westinghouse's earnings have been in a generally downward trend in recent years. Some improvement should be shown in 1964 which I believe is fully discounted in the price of the shares, yielding 3.7 per cent.

I would switch to Libby-Owens-Ford Glass which has just raised its dividend and declared an extra The yield here is 5 per cent.

Tennessee Gas Transmission is subject to heavy regulation. I would switch the common, yielding 4½ per cent, into 5⅛ per cent bonds of the same company, which yield 5.07 per cent.

Supervisors Due To Act Tonight On Naming Spur

Ulster County Board of Supervisors at a regular monthly meeting at 8 p. m. today, is expected to approve a resolution urging the State Legislature to name Interstate Highway 587, a local arterial spur, the George F. Chandler Drive.

The Common Council at its August 4 meeting adopted a resolution which makes possible a measure to name the highway in tribute to Col. George F. Chandler, prominent Kingstonian and founder of the New York State Police.

Tonight's resolution will be offered by Supervisor James A. Rapp (R-First Ward).

Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who proposed the Council resolution, will also propose in a letter to the Board of Supervisors, passage of a follow-up resolution. The Assemblyman notes that local resolutions will enable State Senator E. Ogden Bush and himself to introduce a necessary measure in the State Legislature.

Action is expected to be taken by the Board tonight on a $20,000 capital note to provide for repairs involving plumbing, heating and electrical work at the county-owned building at 74 John Street.

The John Street property presently houses the Board of Elections, the Extension Service Agricultural Department and the 4-H Clubs of Ulster County. Upon completion of the new County office building at Main and Fair Streets, the Board of Elections will move into offices there. The Extension Service Home Demonstration Department, will move into the John Street building at a later date.

1,400 garbage cans.
1,400 galvanized pails.

Cooking utensils, a pump, lawnmower, construction equipment parts and lumber.

Hawkins said they will be sold at auction.

Jersey Cites

Brien estimated that between 200 and 300 store windows were broken in the Fourth Ward. A flaming gasoline bomb struck a bus, but caused little damage.

Two newspapermen — photographer Mel Finkelstein and reporter Mike Pearl of the New York Journal-American — suffered cuts and bruises when a brick flew through their car window in Paterson.

Some 150 policemen scoured halls and alleys in the Negro district for hit-and-run bands of youths who hurled empty wine bottles.

Paterson Mayor Frank X. Graves, at the scene, said he would decide today whether to impose a curfew for the coming weekend. Bottles narrowly missed him on several occasions.

Graves called the disturbances "more of a racial outbreak" than those of Tuesday night.

In Elizabeth, the brief riot climaxed a tense night in which an estimated 500 Negroes and whites congregated at one point near the Pioneer homes, a low-income project.

Gasoline bombs flew from atop and behind the project, and exploded in the street. Store windows were smashed.

Twenty standby police cars screeched into the area. Officers alighted, firing pistol shots in the air and wielding nightsticks. It took them only minutes to clear away knots of Negroes. The streets quieted as suddenly as they had erupted.

area. Supervisor Alexander J. Banyo said drilling already is underway and yesterday had reached a depth of 65 feet, but as yet has hit no water. Drilling operations will continue the rest of this week.

A communication was received from Richard Whalen, general manager of IBM requesting the Town Board to limit the speed on Boice's Lane and Neighborhood Road to 35 miles per hour.

Board members noted this cannot be done without permission from the New York Traffic Commission. The Board authorized Supervisor Banyo to forward the request on behalf of the Board and the IBM executive to the Traffic Commission.

About a year ago a similar request was denied by the State commission.

Kennedy Is Not Having Operation On Broken Back

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward C. Kennedy, D-Mass., will not require an operation on his back which was broken in a plane crash June 19, a team of doctors said today.

Dr. Herbert D. Adams, surgeon in chief of New England Baptist Hospital, said the youngest brother of the late President John F. Kennedy is making "excellent progress, a really remarkalbe recovery."

The doctor said, however, that Kennedy will have to spend six months in the stretcher-like frame in which he is immobilized. He has been in an orthopedic bed ever since the accident.

Dr. George Hammond, an orthopedic surgeon, estimated that sometime in January Kennedy will be able to return to "adult activity."

Adams Stairway

cient height and depth so that a child could go up and down with ease. The sides would be so constructed that the children could not go off the steps and into the foliage.

"This stairway would have many desirable features not now obvious in a sidewalk on Delaware Avenue. It would eliminate the childrens' crossing Delaware Avenue. It would eliminate driver frustration during icy days. It would most certainly eliminate a donnybrook this fall in the Fifth Ward.

Warns Against Politics

"I am sure there will be objections, and they are welcomed, as long as they are not politically motivated.

"Having been an alderman, I know what the alderman do, they do from a sincere conviction that it is the right solution. The time is fast approaching when the Board of Public Works must start the job, or it will be too late this year. So I say to the Common Council, the mayor and the board: Come on boys, give the kids a break. I am sure those who live there will thank you."

Mayor Schwenk said this morning:

Discussed Before

"I heard Mr. Adams' statement on the radio, in which he proposes a stariway off Yeomans Street leading up to the sidewalk alongside of Hasbrouck Park on Delaware Avenue.

"This idea was discussed several months ago, but since it was not considered as desirable as sidewalks on the north side of Delaware Avenue, it was not given serious consideration.

"However, I would be glad to have Mr. Adams come to the office and explain his proposal further, as his idea may be slightly different, and in any case, it would be impossible to give it thorough consideration from the brief description given over the radio."

May Need Autopsy

SHAFTSBURY, Vt. (AP)—An Albany, N. Y., man died early today in the driveway of a Shaftsbury home and state police said an autopsy may be performed to determine the cause of death.

Police identified the man as Thomas Gazetas, 47. They said he was in his car with a woman companion when he complained he was not feeling well.

She sought help at a house and when she returned, she said she found his body sprawled on the ground beside the car.

Margin Buying Amplifies Potential Profits & Losses

Q) "I have been reading about buying stock on margin. What does this mean?" — D. C.

A) When using margin, the buyer in effect uses his broker's money to finance part of his purchases. Under today's rules, for instance, your broker can lend you 30 per cent of the purchase price of listed shares if you put up the other 70 per cent. In so doing, you will of course have to pay interest on the funds borrowed until the loan is paid off.

Margin transactions are used primarily by speculators who wish to increase the profit potentials of their available cash. However, if the stock falls in price, this also means a larger potential loss.

During a steep market sell-off your broker may ask you to put up more cash to maintain the required amount of equity. And if you're unable to do so, he will be forced to sell your shares at a steep loss.

Q) "I am ill, under doctor's care and need income. What do you think of my stocks? They are Consumers Power; Niagara Mohawk Power; Westinghouse Electric; Tennessee Gas Transmission; American Can; Duquesne Light. I am especially concerned about Westinghouse and Tennessee Gas." — A. B.

A) I am very sorry to learn of your illness, which I hope will be only temporary.

You have an excellent list of stocks for income except the two you have singled out for concern. Westinghouse's earnings have been in a generally downward trend in recent years. Some improvement should be shown in 1964 which I believe is fully discounted in the price of the shares, yielding 3.7 per cent.

I would switch to Libby-Owens-Ford Glass which has just raised its dividend and declared an extra The yield here is 5 per cent.

Tennessee Gas Transmission is subject to heavy regulation. I would switch the common, yielding 4½ per cent, into 5⅛ per cent bonds of the same company, which yield 5.07 per cent.

Pays $20 in Fines

A 62-year-old motorist paid $20 in fines Wednesday when he was found guilty after trial on charges of driving an unregistered motor vehicle and crossing a double line.

Claude Spragge, of Waverly Place, New York City, who said he was an actor in the Hyde Park Playhouse and currently living in Woodstock, was tried before Peace Justice William Pollard, Village of Rhinebeck. Spragge was issued the traffic summons Aug. 9 in the village by Trooper R. McPhail, Rhinebeck substation of State Police.

Cold Air Front Scanning Nation: Freezing Out West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge mass of cold air from Canada, fanned by stiff northwesterly winds, covered wide areas from the Dakotas to the Atlantic Coast and southward nearly to the Gulf region today.

The autumn-like weather in midsummer was in sharp contrast to the abnormally high temperatures in many areas last week. Temperatures in some sections headed for record low marks for Aug. 13.

The mercury slid into the 30s for the second day in a row in parts of the Norther Plains and into the 40s as far south as the Ohio River.

A frosty 32-degree reading chilled Brookings, S.D., and it was 33 at Fargo and Devils Lake in North Dakota.

Bismarck, N.D., registered 35 and it was 37 at Duluth, Minn. Vandalia, in south-central Illinois, was given a 40-degree cooling.

The 45 reading in Waterloo, Iowa, was the lowest mark for Aug. 13 since 1916. Louisville's 49 temperature was a record low for the date and compared to a reading of 51 in Anchorage, Alaska.

In the West, heavy rain hit the normally arid sections of Arizona and New Mexico. Flood waters swept across Winslow, a town of 9,000 in northern Arizona, forcing evacuation of 17 patients in the Winslow hospital by National Guard troops. Some 20 families were evacuated from a south side residential district. About 100 homes were reported damaged by the flood waters. The floods followed Wednesday's heavy rain, with about three inches reported in a one-hour period.

Rains also fell in southern Arizona and caused minor flooding in downtown sections of Florence and Casa Grande, about 60 miles from Phoenix. In the Southeast, a heavy thunderstorm dumped nearly three inches of rain on Columbus, Ga., in a two-hour period. Twenty-five persons were evacuated from their homes in low-lying areas.

Showers fell in some parts of the cool belt in the Great Lakes region and in New England.

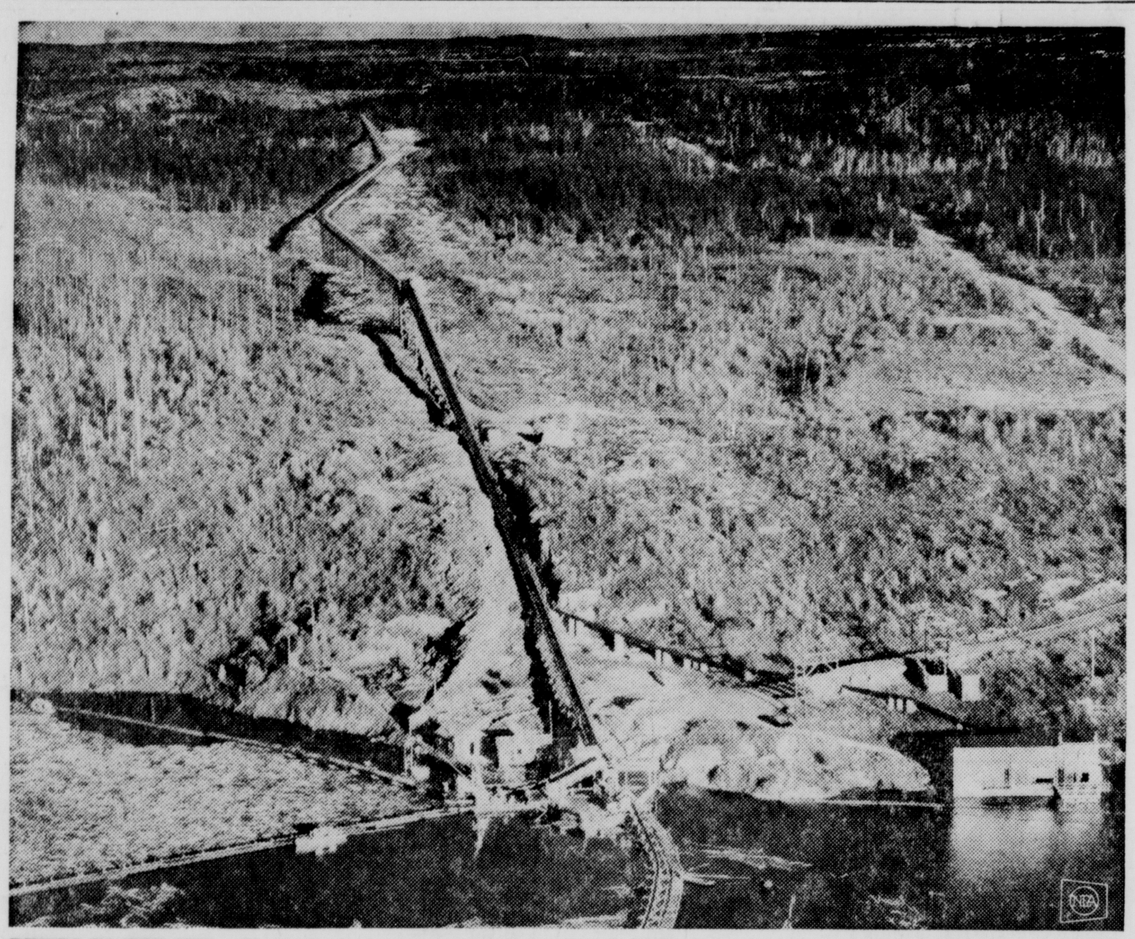
52 German Street
Kingston, New York
August 11, 1964

Editor, The Freeman:

I wish to call to your attention and to that of the alderman of the 7th Ward the condition on the lower end of German Street near Ravine where there are a lot of old abandoned cars that drunks are sleeping in and children of the area are playing in. The mayor and police of this city know that this condition exists so why are they left there until some children are hurt or killed. Will the mayor take action which he has promised to do since 1963? Or does he intend to make a dump there also?

Respectfully,
Kenneth W. Egan



RIVERS IN THE SKY—What's the easy way to get tons of newly felled logs cross-country quickly and cheaply? Easy. Build a 10-mile-long trough—a river in the sky. That's exactly what the Quebec North Shore Paper Co. did to get its pulpwood from a storage depot in Manicouagan to the wharf at Baie Comeau. It takes about 90 minutes for the logs to make the trip. The system handles 150 cords of wood an hour. The flume, supported by trestles, is about 160 feet above the ground.

Points to Orders Given PTs in Tonkin Gulf

Goldwater Says That LBJ Shoots Down Own Trigger-Happy Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says President Johnson has shot down one campaign issue — the charge Goldwater is trigger happy.

The Republican presidential nominee said the orders to the 7th Fleet in last week's North Vietnamese crisis could have been interpreted to mean the President was authorizing the use of nuclear arms.

The administration fired back with a statement from Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that "Sen. Goldwater's interpretation is both unjustified and irresponsible."

The controversy began Wednesday at Goldwater's press conference at Hershey, Pa., where Republican leaders had gathered for a unity summit conference.

Goldwater also said he was far from satisfied with the President's actions in Southeast Asia and added "if the President will continue to listen to me, take my advice, we'll have less trouble."

In a New York speech to the American Bar Association Wednesday, Johnson said the U.S. course in Southeast Asia will not be diverted by political attacks at home. He said it has never been the policy of an American president "to systematically place in hazard the life of this nation by threatening nuclear war."

Points to Weapons Order

The Arizona senator, who had stirred a controversy over suggestions that NATO commanders should have more "leeway" in use of weapons, was asked at his news conference about charges he is trigger happy with tactical nuclear power.

Said Goldwater: "I think the President has somewhat removed it (the charge) by impulsive action no one has condemned, by telling subordinate commanders to use any weapons necessary, which pretty much removes any criticism of what he could make of what I supposedly have stood for."

A week ago Wednesday, the day after the President ordered naval air strikes against North Vietnamese PT boats and their bases, McNamara was asked at a news conference what orders U.S. ships were operating under in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Force If Necessary

He replied: "Our orders to the commanders are to continue their patrols, to protect themselves against aggression on the high seas with whatever force is necessary."

Johnson's statement on Aug. 3 was that he had instructed the Navy to give its forces orders "(A) to attack any force which attacks them in international waters and (B) to attack with the objective not only of driving off the force but of destroying it."

The actual order to the fleet was not made public.

A reporter asked Goldwater, "could you amplify the remark you made? Do you mean that the President has given field commanders the right to use any weapons including atomic weapons?"

"I would suggest you read his admonition to the commander of the 7th Fleet in which he said to use any weapons," Goldwater said. "I think I know what he means.

"But I also know what I meant when I said that the supreme commander of NATO should have more say-so in the choice of tactical nuclear weapons.

"It's not to give him the ICBM, the IRBM, it's merely tactical weapons and I imagine that these people — though I don't know — in the Pacific have the right to use these weapons if the commander feels it's necessary.

The reporter pressed on, asking "do you feel President Johnson has given these Pacific commanders the right to use low yield. . ."

But Goldwater interrupted, saying "I'm only quoting his admonition to his commander. I don't know what went on in his orders. I haven't seen the orders, but I read the papers and if you say any weapons necessary the public mind can imagine a lot of things."

In retort, the administration contended that would be an unreasonable interpretation.

Text of Statement

The statement issued by the State Department under the names of Rusk and McNamara said:

"The President gave no authorization for the use of any nuclear weapons in the course of the episode in the Gulf of Tonkin, and he made no statement which could reasonably be interpreted to suggest that any such authorization had been given.

"Sen. Goldwater's interpretation is both unjustified and irresponsible."

After commenting he was far from satisfied with the President's actions last week in Southeast Asia, he was asked what he would do.

"I've been over this so many times that I could do it in Chinese," Goldwater replied. "I'd say interdict the supply lines." But, he said, "I'm going to ask my chiefs of staff how you go about it. I'm a civilian."

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson went to New York City Wednesday to shop for dresses while her husband, the President, addressed the American Bar Association.

And her shopping took longer than his business. The result: She kept him waiting 15 minutes at the Wall Street Heliport, whence they left on the first leg of their return trip to Washington.

Mrs. Johnson apparently wasn't able to make up her mind about the dresses and she left without buying any.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Barry Goldwater took time from a physical checkup at Scripps Clinic to dedicate a new research building there Wednesday.

A spokesman for the hospital said she'll return to her summer home at Balboa, Calif., this weekend after the routine, annual examination.

Mr. Benenati would like also to encourage any other students to come in and examine their fall schedule so that if there are any additions or deletions necessary they can be made now and relieve the confusion of doing it the opening week of school. World News in Brief

Soviet Changes Plan

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union is retreating from its much heralded system of combining education with work experience.

The government announced Wednesday that the amount of on-the-job training in factories and on farms is being cut.

This means the 11-year system of primary and secondary education is being reduced to 10 years as it was prior to 1958.

The change was announced by the government newspaper Izvestia and is to become effective Sept. 1.

Refuses to Be Lady

LONDON (AP)—Lady Mitchison refuses to be a lady.

"I will not take the title," she said. "I don't want it and I won't have it."

She automatically received the title when her husband, Gilbert Mitchison, 74, was made a life peer last month.

Before he was ennobled, Lord Mitchison was a Labor member of the House of Commons. His wife, Naomi, is a successful writer.

"I Naomi Mitchison still wish to be called Naomi Mitchison."

Brawl About Food

BOMBAY, India (AP) — India's spreading food shortage has triggered a noisy brawl in the Maharastra State Assembly.

Opposition members started it by shouting and thumping their desks during Wednesday's session. Tempers became short and fist fighting broke out. Guards had to restore order and two of them were injured.

The speaker had refused to grant an opposition request that the assembly adjourn in sympathy with a workers' strike against rocketing food prices.

Cold Air Front Scanning Nation: Freezing Out West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge mass of cold air from Canada, fanned by stiff northwesterly winds, covered wide areas from the Dakotas to the Atlantic Coast and southward nearly to the Gulf region today.

The autumn-like weather in midsummer was in sharp contrast to the abnormally high temperatures in many areas last week. Temperatures in some sections headed for record low marks for Aug. 13.

The mercury slid into the 30s for the second day in a row in parts of the Norther Plains and into the 40s as far south as the Ohio River.

A frosty 32-degree reading chilled Brookings, S.D., and it was 33 at Fargo and Devils Lake in North Dakota.

Bismarck, N.D., registered 35 and it was 37 at Duluth, Minn. Vandalia, in south-central Illinois, was given a 40-degree cooling.

The 45 reading in Waterloo, Iowa, was the lowest mark for Aug. 13 since 1916. Louisville's 49 temperature was a record low for the date and compared to a reading of 51 in Anchorage, Alaska.

In the West, heavy rain hit the normally arid sections of Arizona and New Mexico. Flood waters swept across Winslow, a town of 9,000 in northern Arizona, forcing evacuation of 17 patients in the Winslow hospital by National Guard troops. Some 20 families were evacuated from a south side residential district. About 100 homes were reported damaged by the flood waters. The floods followed Wednesday's heavy rain, with about three inches reported in a one-hour period.

Rains also fell in southern Arizona and caused minor flooding in downtown sections of Florence and Casa Grande, about 60 miles from Phoenix. In the Southeast, a heavy thunderstorm dumped nearly three inches of rain on Columbus, Ga., in a two-hour period. Twenty-five persons were evacuated from their homes in low-lying areas.

Showers fell in some parts of the cool belt in the Great Lakes region and in New England.

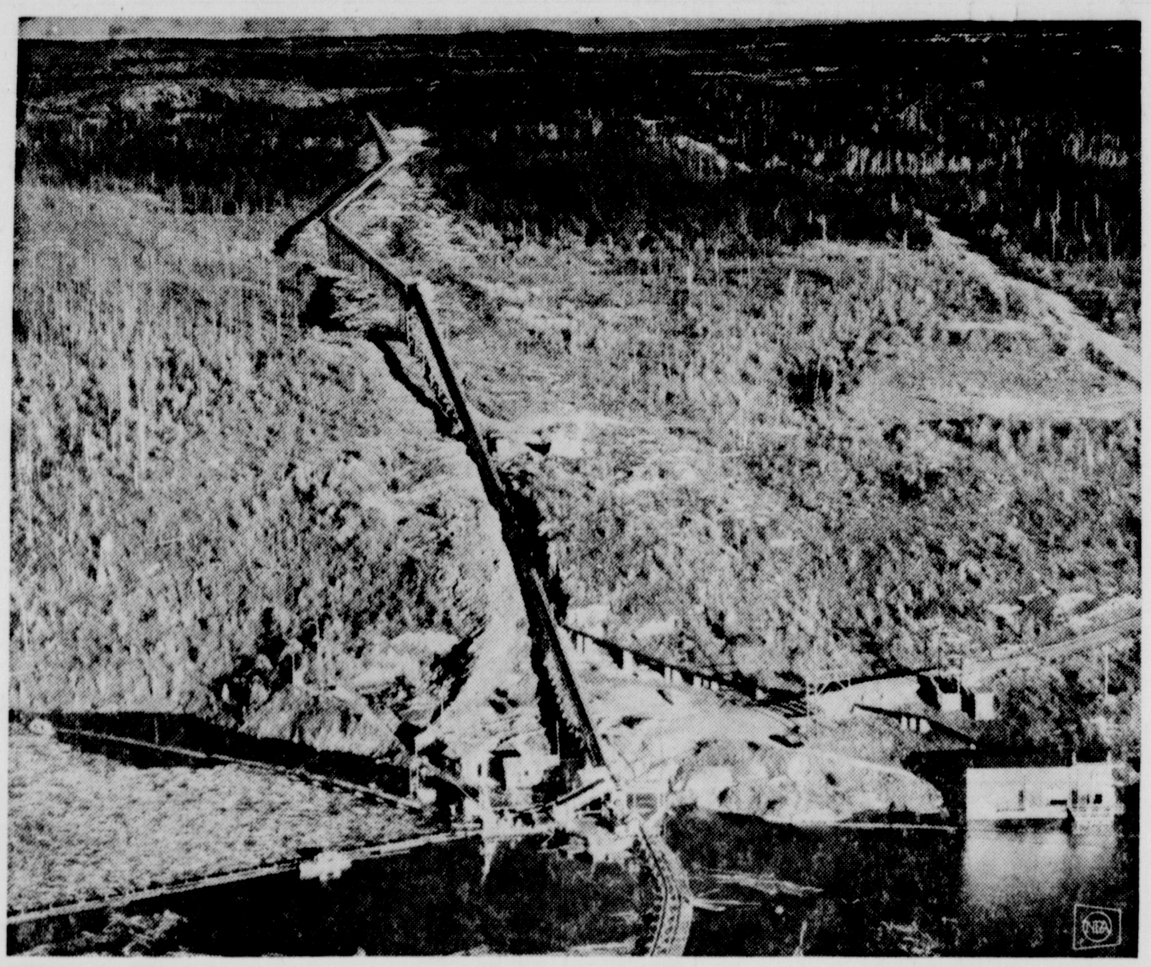
52 German Street
Kingston, New York
August 11, 1964

Editor, The Freeman:

I wish to call to your attention and to that of the alderman of the 7th Ward the condition on the lower end of German Street near Ravine where there are a lot of old abandoned cars that drunks are sleeping in and children of the area are playing in. The mayor and police of this city know that this condition exists so why are they left there until some children are hurt or killed. Will the mayor take action which he has promised to do since 1963? Or does he intend to make a dump there also?

Respectfully,
Kenneth W. Egan



RIVERS IN THE SKY—What's the easy way to get tons of newly felled logs cross-country quickly and cheaply? Easy. Build a 10-mile-long trough—a river in the sky. That's exactly what the Quebec North Shore Paper Co. did to get its pulpwood from a storage depot in Manicouagan to the wharf at Baie Comeau. It takes about 90 minutes for the logs to make the trip. The system handles 150 cords of wood an hour. The flume, supported by trestles, is about 160 feet above the ground.

Points to Orders Given PTs in Tonkin Gulf

Goldwater Says That LBJ Shoots Down Own Trigger-Happy Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says President Johnson has shot down one campaign issue — the charge Goldwater is trigger happy.

The Republican presidential nominee said the orders to the 7th Fleet in last week's North Vietnamese crisis could have been interpreted to mean the President was authorizing the use of nuclear arms.

The administration fired back with a statement from Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that "Sen. Goldwater's interpretation is both unjustified and irresponsible."

The controversy began Wednesday at Goldwater's press conference at Hershey, Pa., where Republican leaders had gathered for a unity summit conference.

Goldwater also said he was far from satisfied with the President's actions in Southeast Asia and added "if the President will continue to listen to me, take my advice, we'll have less trouble."

In a New York speech to the American Bar Association Wednesday, Johnson said the U.S. course in Southeast Asia will not be diverted by political attacks at home. He said it has never been the policy of an American president "to systematically place in hazard the life of this nation by threatening nuclear war."

Points to Weapons Order

The Arizona senator, who had stirred a controversy over suggestions that NATO commanders should have more "leeway" in use of weapons, was asked at his news conference about charges he is trigger happy with tactical nuclear power.

Said Goldwater: "I think the President has somewhat removed it (the charge) by impulsive action no one has condemned, by telling subordinate commanders to use any weapons necessary, which pretty much removes any criticism of what he could make of what I supposedly have stood for."

A week ago Wednesday, the day after the President ordered naval air strikes against North Vietnamese PT boats and their bases, McNamara was asked at a news conference what orders U.S. ships were operating under in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Force If Necessary

He replied: "Our orders to the commanders are to continue their patrols, to protect themselves against aggression on the high seas with whatever force is necessary."

Johnson's statement on Aug. 3 was that he had instructed the Navy to give its forces orders "(A) to attack any force which attacks them in international waters and (B) to attack with the objective not only of driving off the force but of destroying it."

The actual order to the fleet was not made public.

A reporter asked Goldwater, "could you amplify the remark you made? Do you mean that the President has given field commanders the right to use any weapons including atomic weapons?"

"I would suggest you read his admonition to the commander of the 7th Fleet in which he said to use any weapons," Goldwater said. "I think I know what he means.

"But I also know what I meant when I said that the supreme commander of NATO should have more say-so in the choice of tactical nuclear weapons.

"It's not to give him the ICBM, the IRBM, it's merely tactical weapons and I imagine that these people — though I don't know — in the Pacific have the right to use these weapons if the commander feels it's necessary.

The reporter pressed on, asking "do you feel President Johnson has given these Pacific commanders the right to use low yield. . ."

But Goldwater interrupted, saying "I'm only quoting his admonition to his commander. I don't know what went on in his orders. I haven't seen the orders, but I read the papers and if you say any weapons necessary the public mind can imagine a lot of things."

In retort, the administration contended that would be an unreasonable interpretation.

Text of Statement

The statement issued by the State Department under the names of Rusk and McNamara said:

"The President gave no authorization for the use of any nuclear weapons in the course of the episode in the Gulf of Tonkin, and he made no statement which could reasonably be interpreted to suggest that any such authorization had been given.

"Sen. Goldwater's interpretation is both unjustified and irresponsible."

After commenting he was far from satisfied with the President's actions last week in Southeast Asia, he was asked what he would do.

"I've been over this so many times that I could do it in Chinese," Goldwater replied. "I'd say interdict the supply lines." But, he said, "I'm going to ask my chiefs of staff how you go about it. I'm a civilian."

Names In The News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson went to New York City Wednesday to shop for dresses while her husband, the President, addressed the American Bar Association.

And her shopping took longer than his business. The result: She kept him waiting 15 minutes at the Wall Street Heliport, whence they left on the first leg of their return trip to Washington.

Mrs. Johnson apparently wasn't able to make up her mind about the dresses and she left without buying any.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Barry Goldwater took time from a physical checkup at Scripps Clinic to dedicate a new research building there Wednesday.

A spokesman for the hospital said she'll return to her summer home at Balboa, Calif., this weekend after the routine, annual examination.

NICE, France (AP) — David Oistrakh's son says the famed Russian violinist, who suffered a heart attack in Leningrad last April, plans to return to the concert stage next month or in October.

The son, Igor Oistrakh, also a violinist, was in Nice Wednesday for a concert appearance.

Motorist Injured In Catskill Mishap

A Greene County motorist was injured in a one-car mishap about 3:15 a. m. today on the Sandy Plains Road, Town of Catskill.

John Sutter, 21, of Cairo, was taken to Greene County Memorial Hospital, Catskill, where he was treated for facial cuts.

State Police at the Leeds substation said that Sutter's vehicle went out of control on a curve and struck a bridge. They cited the driver for failure to have his vehicle under control.

World News in Brief

Soviet Changes Plan

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union is retreating from its much heralded system of combining education with work experience.

The government announced Wednesday that the amount of on-the-job training in factories and on farms is being cut.

This means the 11-year system of primary and secondary education is being reduced to 10 years as it was prior to 1958.

The change was announced by the government newspaper Izvestia and is to become effective Sept. 1.

Refuses to Be Lady

LONDON (AP)—Lady Mitchison refuses to be a lady.

"I will not take the title," she said. "I don't want it and I won't have it."

She automatically received the title when her husband, Gilbert Mitchison, 74, was made a life peer last month.

Before he was ennobled, Lord Mitchison was a Labor member of the House of Commons. His wife, Naomi, is a successful writer.

Lady Mitchison feels so strongly about it that she took the following advertisement in the personal column of The Times of London.

"I Naomi Mitchison still wish to be called Naomi Mitchison."

Brawl About Food

BOMBAY, India (AP) — India's spreading food shortage has triggered a noisy brawl in the Maharastra State Assembly.

Opposition members started it by shouting and thumping their desks during Wednesday's session. Tempers became short and fist fighting broke out. Guards had to restore order and two of them were injured.

The speaker had refused to grant an opposition request that the assembly adjourn in sympathy with a workers' strike against rocketing food prices.

About the Folks

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray of Rochester, N. Y. are receiving congratulations on the birth of their son, William Doyle, born Aug. 3.

Mrs. Murray is the former Mary Louise Goodyear of Kingston. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Emil Goodyear, 61 Maiden Lane.

New Paltz

Adult Education Schedule Planned

NEW PALTZ — Theodore Sirko, director of adult education at the New Paltz Central School, has announced that plans for the adult education program for the 1964-65 school year are now being formulated.

Except for the fact that a nominal registration fee will be charged for each course, the program will follow the same general pattern as in previous years.

Mr. Sirko is searching for new ideas that will enable practically every member of the community to derive some benefit from the program. Individuals having ideas about courses that would appeal to the adults of the community may contact Mr. Sirko at the high school or at his home.

New Students May Register at NPCS

Starting Aug. 17, Thomas P. Benenati, guidance director at New Paltz Central School will be in the guidance office daily from 8:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Any new resident planning to attend New Paltz Central School this fall must register and be scheduled for classes. Mr. Benenati would like to emphasize that this be done as far ahead of the opening day of school as possible so that the student will be placed in the proper classes.

Mr. Benenati would like also to encourage any other students to come in and examine their fall schedule so that if there are any additions or deletions necessary they can be made now and relieve the confusion of doing it the opening week of school. Any parents who would like to talk with the director concerning their child's educational or vocational plans may contact him.
